Brief Items Concerning the Comings and Goings of Yourself and Your Neighbors, as Told to The Tribune Reporters.

One of the Nicest Courtesies You Can Show to Your Guests is to Have Their Visits Mentioned in These Columns. The Tribune Will Consider It a Special Favor if You Will Help Us Make This Paper More Interesting to Its Readers by Sending in Items for This Column. Write us, or, if Convenient, Telephone Your News Items to This Office.

Mrs. Susie Ransom of Aumsville spent part of Sunday and Sunday night here with Dr. and Mrs. Ransom.

Goodrich combination bottle and attachments, regular $2.50, special $1.79 this month at the drug store.

Victoria Chapter, Eastern Star, entertained 20 members from the Stayton Lodge last Wednesday evening.

Christmas Card Assortments—21 cards and 6 tags—$1.00 at Prather's.

Rev. Groves and family of West Salem gave the Gunnings a pleasant surprise visit Thursday of last week.

Mrs. Watson, who has spent several weeks in Idaho with relatives, has returned to her home here.

The many friends here of Earl B. Hughs of Astoria were grieved to hear of his death on November 1.

Herbert Briggs is in the Salem General Hospital. On November 13 he had one major and one minor operation and is doing nicely at last reports.

Grandpa Garner spent Friday of last week with his old Comrade Smith at the Gunning home. The two old soldiers swapped war stories to their hearts content and to the enjoyment of their hostess.

Eugene, the small son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Harrison, was taken to Stayton the first of the week where Dr. Brewer lanced and dressed an abscess on his head. Eugene had suffered a bump on his head about a week ago and as a result the abscess formed.

Mr. and Mrs. Sloan, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bones and children, Ruth and Keith, motored to Eugene, Sunday, and spent the day with their daughters, who are seniors in the P. C. hospital. While there they also visited Errol Sloan and Chas. H. Bones, who are seniors in the University of Oregon.

There would be no such thing as law and order without good street lighting. This is the opinion of Edward Pierce Mulrooney, police commissioner of New York city.

"Good street lighting is as effective as good policemen," Mulrooney says, recalling the days of dimly lighted street when policemen "came to grief on their beats because it was almost worth anyone's life to venture out alone at night."

Persons planning visits home or elsewhere for the Thanksgiving holiday will be given the benefit of special low roundtrip railroad fares on various lines operating in the west, according to joint announcement by Southern Pacific, Santa Fe, Western Pacific and the Sacramento Northern railroads today.

Roundtrip fares between points west of Ogden and Salt Lake City, as far north as Portland, and as far south as El Paso and Albuquerque, will be offered on the basis of a fare-and-one-third, it was stated. Sale dates will be November 25 to 27, inclusive, with return limit of December 1.

The ladies of the Catholic parish of Stayton are making big preparations for a Thanksgiving turkey dinner to be served at the Foresters Hall, Stayton on Thanksgiving day.

The charge for the dinner is 50c for adults and 35c for children. Following the dinner the afternoon will be spent in various amusements at the hall and in the evening the affair will be closed by a dance, with lunch being served following the dance. Dance tickets have been placed at 50c.

Every year the Catholic Ladies of Stayton have arranged a Thanksgiving event of this nature and they have always proved a decided success, and they look forward to this event being of the same proportion as other years.

They invite the general public to spend the noon and balance of the day with them, assuring them that the whole time will be well enjoyed.
