

LOCAL ACTIVITIES DURING THE WEEK

Brief Items Concerning the Comings and Goings of Yourself and Your Neighbors, as Told to The Tribune Reporters.

One of the Nicest Courtesies You Can Show to Your Guests is to Have Their Visits Mentioned in These Columns. The Tribune Will Consider It a Special Favor if You Will Help Us Make This Paper More Interesting to Its Readers by Sending in Items for This Column. Write us, or, if Convenient, Telephone Your News Items to This Office.

The Methodist Men's Brotherhood held its regular meeting Tuesday evening December 2, with thirteen local men, and five visitors from Salem present.

The program consisted of group singing, conducted by Chaplain A. S. Bond, talks on the theme, "Ye are my witnesses", and the business session. As a special part of the program, Mr. Fitzgerald, member of the Industrial Accident Commission, gave an interesting talk on the formation, operation and benefits to be derived from the Workman's Compensation Law.

Among the items of business was the report of the committee on arrangements for the Peace Oratorical Contest, the finals to be held at the January meeting of the Community Club. Cash prizes will be awarded at that time. Eliminations will be held during December or early January, and only the best three or four will appear at the Community Club. Prizes offered are: first, $7; second $3 and third $2. The contest is put on in the interest of World Peace and it is hoped that the principals of real peace will be brought out in the orations.

O. W. Emmons, district president of the Brotherhood, was one of the visitors present.

guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Barelay at McFarland during the Thanksgiving holidays. Rev. Burgoyne had the pastorate at McFarland several years ago and their visit was made very pleasant for them with a good fellowship dinner on Thanksgiving day with
