

LOCAL ACTIVITIES DURING THE WEEK

Brief Items Concerning the Comings and Goings of Yourself and Your Neighbors, as Told to The Tribune Reporters.

One of the Nicest Courtesies You Can Show to Your Guests is to Have Their Visits Mentioned in These Columns. The Tribune Will Consider It a Special Favor if You Will Help Us Make This Paper More Interesting to Its Readers by Sending in Items for This Column. Write us, or, if convenient, telephone your news items to this office.

Charles Standley was a Salem shopper one day the past week.

Christopher Schmitt went to Salem and brought out his sister and husband to spend Christmas.

Hans Jensen and children attended a Christmas program in Salem last Sunday evening.

Hans Jensen and children will spend Christmas with the Chris Jensen family at Aumsville.

J. M. Bones is on the sick list.

Miss Marian Peterson of Eugene is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse at the Boy Home.

Mrs. Glen Kirkpatrick is here from Centralia, Wash., for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Lee Barber, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Thomason left Wednesday for Albany to spend Christmas with their daughter and family.

F. A. Mitchell and wife spent Monday evening with Mrs. Mitchell's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. George Crume.

Rev. and Mrs. Gilstrap and daughters Josephine, Margaret, Ruth and Fernel were Sunday Christmas in Eugene with relatives.

Lawrence Edwards, who has been ill for the past two weeks, suffering from diphtheria, is reported as slowly improving in health.

The farmers in the Marion vicinity are experiencing some difficulty in getting their plowing done on account of the rain.

Mr. and Mrs. John Avery, former Turnerites, now living at Rocky Point where he is employed on the Marion Hunt farm, were here Friday for a short visit.

Miss Bernice Sauder, a student from the Eugene Bible school is visiting at the Boys Home and as a Christmas gift to Mrs. Sessee, is doing the cooking, including the Christmas dinner.

Prof. and Mrs. John Cox are visiting his parents near Jefferson this week. They will also visit Mrs. Cox' relatives at Oregon City during the holidays.

E Robinson and sister, Mrs. Asquith received a Christmas cablegram from a nephew and niece, Frank and Claire Asquith, who are in Strallengrad, Russia, where they have spent the past five months. Mr. Asquith is a foreman in a branch Detroit factory, there manufacturing tractors.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Haworth were calling on Mr. and Mrs. Tony Gentry at Marion, Wednesday evening. Mrs. Gentry, who is an invalid, enjoys visitors very much.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Webb are enjoying a Christmas visit from their daughter, Mrs. Brooks. Mrs. Brooks has been employed at Cascadia during the summer.

Mrs. L. J. Rowley and son, Paul, are spending Christmas at the home of Mrs. Rowley's sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George D. Thomas, at Amity.

The Christian Endeavor society held their monthly social and business meeting at the church Monday evening with about 25 in attendance. A very enjoyable time was had by all present.

Mr. and Mrs. Toney Sherod and children of Lebanon, Glen Sherod of Wallowa, spent Sunday at George Sherman's home. Glen Sherod brought three carload of fat steers from Wallowa, where he has a big cattle ranch, to the Portland stockyards.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Harris of Portland were here Sunday for a visit with Ray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harris. Ray is an optician with the Riggs Optical company in the Rose city.

Mrs. C. A. Davis and Miss Mary Davie left Saturday evening to spend the winter in Los Angeles, Calif. Attorney Endicott accompanied them and will transact business in San Francisco for a few days before returning to Oregon.

The alumni girls basketball team, Helen Peetz, Laura Rokos, guards; Irma and Fay Barber, centers; Faustina and Mildred Schifferer, forwards, with Margaret McKay as substitute, went down to defeat 4 to 17 when they played the high school team Friday evening. Cecil Martin refereed the game.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bear are enjoying a pleasant visit from their daughter, Mrs. R. E. Stewart and son, Quinten, who arrived last Saturday morning from Spring Valley, Minnesota. Mrs. Stewart is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bear and has many friends here where she attended school before her marriage.

CRAWFORD

Miss Helene Witzel was a weekend visitor in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Little were Salem shoppers Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Patterson and Miss Tilda Johanson of West Salem were Sunday visitors at the R. O. Witzel home.

Mrs. Chas. Ramsdell, Mrs. Thomas Little and Mrs. Raymond Titus attended a meeting of the Woman's Work Club held at the home of Mrs. Stella Miller in Turner last Tuesday.

J. N. Jolly is spending the winter with his daughter, Mrs. C. M. Barber, and family. Mr. Jolly has just returned from a trip in the eastern states including Iowa, Nebraska, Michigan and also the Yellowstone National Park.

CLOVERDALE

Mrs. Arthur Kunke was a Salem visitor Saturday.

Little Edith Schifferer has been suffering for the past week from an attack of grip.

Mrs. Jay Cook and Mrs. Dumbeck were shopping in Salem early in the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dumbeck attended an auction sale over near Aumsville, Thursday.

Oscar Fliflet and his mother, Mrs. M. Fliflet visited here Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Cook were doing their Christmas shopping in Salem.

Christmas Joys

By William Banks in Missouri Farmer

THE olden days, the golden days
They all come back to me,
As happily the children crowd
Around the Christmas tree.
I see once more the comrades true
March onward by my side,
I hear the echo of their songs
To greet the Christmastide.

In olden days, in golden days
My thoughts were high and bold,
But oh the glory of this hour
When in my arms I hold
The gifts that love has brought to me,
They fill my heart with pride,
As I join in their happy songs
To greet the Christmastide.

Saturday.

The Cloverdale school put on a neat little program Monday evening for their Christmas holidays. The pupils and teacher, Miss Gertrude Anderson, worked diligently on this entertainment and deserved much credit for the able manner in which it was given.

AUMSVILLE

Miss Eunice Lewis is home for the holidays.

Mrs. Nor Pound was in Salem Tuesday.

Virgie Bradley was a Salem shopper Monday.

Mrs. E. M. Keith was a Christmas shopper in Salem, Monday.

Miss Merle Martin came from Oregon State College to spend Christmas with home folks.

Troy Nance of Albany and Miss Irene Nance of Stayton visited at the Susie Ransom home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell of Molalla spent the Sabbath here with C. L. Hartley.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hartley will have their family with them for Christmas day.

Florence, the small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Powell, is quite ill with intestinal flu.

Reba Spencer, who is attending school at Dallas is home for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Lamb and Mrs. Munkers are here for the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Hein.

Herman Darley is spending the holidays in Los Angeles, California, with Kenneth Martin. They are both students at Oregon State.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Davenport and two children are at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Wilcox, for the holidays.

Noble Bradley took the scoutmaster, C. M. Dregnie, and his group of Boy Scouts to a Salem show Thursday evening.

Robert Mountain is home from Oregon State College for the holidays with his parents, Prof. and Mrs. T. C. Mountain.

Victor, the 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Arbie Martin, is recovering nicely from a mastoid, tonsil and adenoid operation, performed at the Salem General hospital Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Clark will spend Christmas in Silverton with Mrs. Clark's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hayes and Mrs. Clark's son, Milan Weston.

Wayne Ransom and John Sacre Jr., are at their respective homes again after spending several days in the Salem General hospital following an auto accident. Both boys are recovering rapidly and will soon be out among their friends.

A class tournament in basketball has been started in the local high school, and will continue for the next few days. The freshmen won the right to play the winners of the junior-senior game to be played Monday by defeating the sophomores 17-7 in the first game Friday. The girls will start their games next week.

The senior play, "Restful Hour Inn," was presented at Stayton, Thursday, by request. The musical numbers between acts were furnished by the junior girls quartet, Louise Hieberger, Marie Hise, Eileen Brauner and Imogene Alzman; Charles Pomeroy and Merle Crane in a duet, and the faculty quartet, Mrs. Ella England, T. C. Mountain, Mr. Dregnie and Mrs. Hull of Stayton.

The basketball game between the alumni teams of Turner and Aumsville was a close and even game throughout and had to be played one minute overtime to decide the victors. Turner won with a score of 24 to 23. The lineup was: Aumsville—Tim White, Bert Bradley, Kenneth Porter, Eugene Richards, John Prospal, Robert Mountain; Turner—Cecil Martin, Clifford Ensley, Edwin Gath, Max McKay, Bill Pearson, Hugh Webb, Mervin Pearson. Hebert Briggs referred the game.

An unusually good program and community Christmas tree was enjoyed by a large crowd at the school house Tuesday night. Following is the program presented: Invocation, H. C. Porter; solo, Mrs. Mae Lamb; recitation, Roland Landers; song, primary chorus; recitation, Richard Gray; a playlet, 4th, 5th and 6th grades; recitation, Kennell Brow; music, Thomas Merry Maker orchestra; concert recitation, primary room; song, "Silent Night," Charles Pomeroy, Fred Stiner, Prof. Mountain and Charles Martin; playlet, 7th and 8th grades; group of songs, High School Glee Club; songs, Junior Chorus. Santa appeared following the program and remembered all with gifts.

McClellan Thornton and Wesley M. x, who are assistant Scout Masters, were in the group that attended a show in Salem one evening the past week.

FOR SALE or TRADE—Overland 4, ready to go with license. Price $50. Will take hay, grain or spuds. Chas. Parsons, Box 126, Aumsville, Oregon.

The annual Christmas party celebrated each year by the Aumsville Women's club was observed for this year at the home of Mrs. George Claxton Thursday afternoon. The afternoon was spent socially and with needlework.

The guest rooms were decorated to represent the Christmas spirit. A large tree held gifts for each member and guest. Mrs. Bland Speer acted as Santa Claus with Mrs. Chas. Martin as her helper. A miniature tree, red tapers, green holders and holly served as a centerpiece for the luncheon table. Paper napkins as well as the menu, were suggestive of the Christmas season. At a late hour Mrs. Claxton served luncheon. Mrs. Bland Speer, Mrs. J. E. Towle and Mrs. Charles Martin assisted during the luncheon hour.

Mrs. David W. Lamb of Cascadia was a special guest for the afternoon.

Club members present were: Mrs. Charles Heia, Mrs. T. Y. McClellan, Mrs. Millie Martin, Mrs. Charles Martin, Mrs. Edger Perce, Mrs. Bland Speer, Mrs. Margaret Strayer, Mrs. J. E. Towle and Mrs. George Claxton.

Mrs. T. Y. McClellan will entertain the club at her West Stayton home on January 8.

Last Friday evening the local gym was well filled with basketball sports who were treated to some real good basketball play. Gates came to take the scalps of the locals and for a time it looked as though they would do that very thing.

Aumsville scored the first basket when Zuber threw a long shot which opened the scoring for Aumsville. From then on the locals shot several baskets running the score up to ten more points, holding the visitors to three, but let up for a time allowing Gates to come within two points of them before the quarter ended.

The visitors outscored the locals in the second quarter and at half time the score stood 19-17 in the visitors favor.

In the third canto Aumsville came back strong to bring the count 21 all, but Gates counted five more to bring the count to 26-21 in their favor four minutes before the game ended.

With the score 28 to 27 in favor of Gates and only 30 seconds to go, the locals got into fast action and Lee made one of his sensational throws which changed the score to 29-28.

Johnson was high point man with 12, while Lee was second with 9.

In the girls game the Mt. Angel academy team won over the locals by a score of 21-17.

KRUSE & RYGH

Expert Watch and Jewelry Repairing

New Jewelry Made to Order

Prices Reasonable

484 Court St. Salem, Ore.

W. JAY DENHAM
General Contractor and Builder
Cement Work and Plumbing
Route 3 Turner, Oregon

Used CHEVROLET Cars
WITH AN O. K. THAT COUNTS

- 1930 Chevrolet Sport Roadster, rumble seat, wire wheels, wings, special heater and run only 7000 miles; new car guarantee.....$565.00
- 1929 Chevrolet; can't be told from new.....495.00
- 1928 Chevrolet Coach, original finish like new; new tires .....365.00
- 1928 Durant Coach, run very little, fine shape.....295.00
- 1928 Whippet Sedan, priced under Blue book.....285.00
- 1927 Pontiac Coupe, new paint, new tires, fine shape .....325.00
- 1929 Ford roadsters, perfect condition.....385.00
- 1927 Chevrolet Touring in good mechanical condition .....125.00
- 1926 Overland 4 Sedan, runs good.....85.00
- 1926 Ford Touring .....80.00
- 1927 Star 6 Coupe, reconditioned throughout.....285.00
- 1925 Chevrolet Roadsters .....135.00

McKAY'S
333 CENTER STREET
SALEM, OREGON