The Turner Tribune

SUBSCRIPTION $1.25 PER YEAR

Entered at the Postoffice at Turner, Oregon, as second-class matter, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Issued every Thursday at Turner, Marion County, Oregon.

MRS. CHAS. S. CLARK, Editor

ton were dinner guests at the Chamberlain home Christmas.

Fear Breeden of Rose Lodge is visiting her sister, Mrs. James Studnicka.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Saere of Salem and two children and of West Stayton spent Christmas with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Crane.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Nuys had their daughter and husband, Myrtle and George Howard, with them on Christmas.

Mrs. Sprinkles visited Mrs. Chamberlain, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Y. McClellan spent Christmas at Aumsville with the Charley Martin family.

Mr. and Mrs. Hankel and family and Mr. and Mrs. Allen went to Willamina, Sunday, to visit George Hankel.

A Christmas program was given in the Pleasant Grove church Sunday. This is the first Christmas program to be given there for several years.

The clubs at West Stayton school are doing well. The Jolly Girls, who are taking the second division in sewing, met with Mrs. Elsie Bone, their leader. The Needle and Thread club, taking the first division in sewing, meet at the school house with Mrs. Minnie Dickman, their leader. The Boys Handicraft club meet with Elmer Asche at his home. All are interested and enjoying the work very much.

Miss Nickerson left Wednesday morning for the Christmas holidays. School opens again Monday.

The West Stayton schools sold $9.48 worth of tuberculosis seals this year. They were all working to win the prize. Tex Snoddy, in the fifth grade, was high man of the school, having sold 150. Velma Royse, in the seventh grade, sold 125. Each were presented with a pound box of candy furnished by Mrs. E. A. Bradley.

The school gave a good Christmas program Tuesday afternoon to a large crowd.

Robert Royse and Verne Chamberlain went to the alumni meeting at Aumsville, Monday, and also the banquet in the evening.

Virgene Johnson has been quite sick with tonsillitis but is much better at the present time.

METHODIST CHURCH

"When the times or refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord" (Acts 3:10) one of those blessed seasons is on now! and any child of God who is not getting the benefit of the meetings is certainly missing a great opportunity, and if the unsaved could realize what they are cheating themselves out of, the church could not seat the crowds that would come. After all is said and done, what is this life but a place in which to get ready to live—forever—in the next world? Are you ready? No time, now? Say! when the reaper comes he won't ask if you have time to go with him, but you'll go.

The interest is very good. Some souls have been born into the kingdom. The three specials from the men's quartet and the harmonica solo from West Salem last night was just one of the treats planned for this week. There is special singing every night. There's a good warm room, there's a hardy welcome for all. After the watch night meeting, the subjects on which Rev. Groves plans to speak are:

Thursday—"The Impassable Gulf."
Friday—"The Unpardonable Sin."
Saturday—"The Living Sacrifice."
Sunday—"Twice Born."
"The spirit and the bride say, 'Come.' And let him that heareth say 'Come.' And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely."
