NUMBER 12

Community Club Meeting Monday Night

TURNER TAKES GATES DOWN THE LINE TO THE TUNE OF 47-23

In one of the fastest games of the season the locals took the rod for the third consecutive game of the season. It turned out to be a red hot battle from start to finish, Turner holding the lead throughout.

The game was closely checked throughout by Referee Cox, of Turner high which resulted in the retirement of three men on personal fouls. M. Pearson was high point man with 23 tallies to his credit, with W. Pearson next and E. Gath third.

The locals are showing some real team work and with a little more practice will probably have a good chance for the Cascade league championship.

The next game will be at Turner with our old rivals, Stayton, on next Wednesday night, January 14. We are hopefully looking forward to winning this game. We cordially invite the public to this game. Come and help us win. There will be a small admission charge to cover expenses.

The lineups:

Turner	Gates
E. Gath.....R.F.....	G. Gates
M. Pearson.....L.F.....	L. Goodwin
W. Pearson.....C.....	Gates
C. Martin.....R.G.....	Bowes
C. Enslay.....L.G.....	R. Goodwin

Turner subs, McKay, Hickock, A. Gath, Denyer; Gates subs, Meyers and Shephard.

Referee, Cox.

Wife (looking up from magazine): I've just read an article about electricity, Henry, and it says that before long we shall get everything we want by just touching a button.

Henry (sadly): It won't do us any good.

Wife: Why not, Henry?

Henry: Because nothing would ever make you touch a button. Look at my shirt.—Coos Bay Times.

The Wind Storm

The storm of Sunday night put the electric light and power system out of commission in Turner, took the roof off the flax shed at the Bradley flax plant, blew down signs around town, crippled the telegraph and telephone system and it was not till towards Monday evening that the light and power and telegraph lines were back to normal again. While Turner suffered some from the storm we were fortunate considering the heavy damage done to other towns around us.

TURNER W. C. T. U. IN- STITUTE JANUARY 14

Turner and Cloverdale W. C. T. U. are sponsoring an institute on Wednesday, January 14, in the Turner Christian church. All day sessions at 10:30 a. m., 1:30 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. All women interested are welcome to come as it is open to the public. Special speakers, including Mrs. Nacia E. Buck, field worker and lecturer for the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, will be on the program; also departmental work featured. A bounteous potluck dinner, furnished by those attending, will be served at the noon hour. A number of out-to-town guests are planning to attend this institute.

When you subscribe for your home paper you are not only helping the editor, but you are helping to support a community enterprise. Are you a subscriber?

METHODIST CHURCH

Everyone should plan to hear the peace contest sponsored by the Methodist Brotherhood next Monday evening at the Community Club.

Let all our people plan on attending the W. C. T. U. institute given in the Christian church next Wednesday, January 14. There will be three sessions—morning, afternoon and evening. If you cannot attend all, be there as much as you can.

One of the most peaceful and helpful series of special meetings we have ever had came to a close with last Sunday's services. Everyone who was in attendance regularly witnessed Sunday night that they had been greatly helped by the meetings. There were a few very bright conversions and everyone, even to the pastor, received new fire.

Wish everyone of you could have heard the last talk of the series Rev. Groves gave us on the subject "Twice Born." He showed so clearly that the "new birth" is more than intellectual belief, more than being baptized, more even than conversion—(though often spoken of as though they meant the same thing), but conversion is a turning about, forsaking sin and facing the heaven way, hence that is man's part while the new birth is God's work—the change of heart and life that His touch gives when we humble ourselves and repent and give ourselves to Him.

Listen to the poem written by a young man who was converted the first week of the meetings and read Sunday night as his testimony:

Yes, I was a sinner once,
But Jesus came to me,
Now the glory of the heavenly home
So clearly I can see.

Tonight I am so thankful

That I trust the God above,
I know He's my Redeemer
And Him I'll always love.

Oh, is there is a sinner
Within this church tonight,
Won't you come and speak to Jesus
And with Him make it right?

He'll forgive you, He'll receive you,
Rejoicing in your love,
He'll put within your lonely heart
Golden treasures from above.

You'll never, no you'll never
Regret that Jesus came within,
But you'll praise Him in the highest
That He cleansed you from all sin.

The awards will be made Monday evening at the Community Club for the three best "World Peace" essays written by Turner high school students. The musical program will be by the high school chorus. The speaker for the evening has been chosen from the Willamette university faculty. The public is invited to attend.

"Light Of The World Pageant"

The pageant, "The Light of the World," which has been given three times at the American Lutheran church, on Church street, Salem, will be given again for the last time Sunday evening. The church has been crowded at all performances and the presentation Sunday evening will be by request, as there are a number of people in and around Turner who could not attend the other performances. The pageant is said to be of the best, and is well worth one's time to see it. Ahrens of Turner is cast in the leading role.

NEW MARKET ROAD PE- TITION RECEIVES LARGE NUMBER OF SIGNERS

Two petitions, one for property owners and one for property owners and legal voters have been in circulation here for the past week calling for a market road along the Battle creek route, or market road No. 25, which ends at Battle creek from the Pringle district.

The petition has been signed by about 90 per cent of the property owners along the route.

It is expected the route will be carried out along the foothills through Parrish Gap to connect up with the Jefferson road.

The farmers along this route are in need of a good road as the present one is rough and narrow and is no condition for heavy traffic. If this road is established it will mean two good roads leading west from Turner to the Pacific highway. The proposed road connecting with the Pringle market road will make a short cut to South Salem. Judging from the number signing the petition the proposition is making a favorable impression on the citizens of this community.

James E. Owenby, who died at Auburn, east of Salem January 2, at the age of 66 years, will be remembered by the older residents of this place, he having been in business here about twenty years ago under the firm name of Owenby and Galbrath where the Gower building now is. Funeral services were held in Salem January 4 and interment was made in City View cemetery.

By all means read The Turner Tribune if you have to beg, borrow or steal your neighbor's copy.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cook sang a beautiful duet "More Like the Master," Sunday morning. We are glad to have them back.

There was a fine Sunday school Sunday morning. Dr. Epley, newly elected assistant superintendent, took charge in the absence of Superintendent Bates.

The pastor's morning sermon was an earnest appeal to care for the old disabled ministers.

At the board meeting last Friday a committee composed of Mrs. Webb, Mrs. Jay Cook, Mrs. Earl Cook and Dr. Epley was appointed to arrange for new choir music.

Visits Grange

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. White, Mr. and Mrs. U. E. Denyer, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gulvin, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Titus, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Steiner, Mr. and Mrs. Musgrave, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Edwards, Mrs. J. M. Bones and son, Harland, attended the joint installation held at the Ankeny Grange hall at Wintle, west of Jefferson, Saturday. Mrs. Ellan Lambert was the installing officer, assisted by a team from Stayton Grange. This team is doing the installation work throughout the county and Saturday's work completed eight of the thirteen granges. Arthur Edwards is master of Surprise Grange, Mr. Farr of Ankeny, and J. Richards of Stayton. Ankeny Grange served a chicken dinner at noon to all visitors and members.

ROUSING MEETING HELD BY SANTIAM DISTRICT S. S. AT STAYTON

The Santiam District Sunday school held their convention at the Christian church at Stayton last Sunday.

A large number from Turner attended and all pronounced it one of the best gatherings held in a long time. The convention opened at 9:45 in the morning with a song service, which was followed by a study of the Sunday school lesson. The Stayton Christian Sunday school gave special music and Rev. C. Lyman preached a forceable morning sermon.

At 1:30 the convention opened with a song service led by Dr. H. C. Epley of Salem. Special numbers given during the afternoon were: Mehama boys' chorus, Mrs. Ivan Hadley of Turner M. E. Sunday school gave accordion numbers; also Mrs. W. S. Burgoyne of the same Sunday school gave a solo; duet by Misses Edna and Anna Johnson of the Turner Christian Sunday school. The address of the afternoon was given by Rev. W. S. Burgoyne of Turner, subject, "Hidden Promise."

Much interest was shown when time came for the awarding of the three banners, awarded at each convention. Mehama won all three, one for memorized verses, with second place going to Turner M. E. Sunday school. The banner for best attendance at the convention and for best average attendance each week during the quarter went to Mehama.

It was suggested that some time during the convention programs be devoted to children's work.

The county president, Fred DeVries was present. The convention closed with song.

Five Hundred

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hain were hosts to a number of their friends at a five hundred party New Year's eve. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Creech and daughters, Ina Belle and Ila May, Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Clearwater and son, Billie, Mr. and Mrs. John Hain and daughter, Gena, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lauderbeck, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hain and son Floyd, and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Bolis. Refreshments were served by the hostess and a very pleasant evening was spent. The ladies' high score went to Mrs. John Hain while O. R. Clearwater won high score for the men.

ROBERT TRACY GIVEN

Robert Tracy Given was born September 7, 1905, in the Waldo Hills, the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Tracy Given.

When a small boy he moved with his parents to a farm east of Turner where he had since made his home and by his industry and upright living had made a host of friends who with his relatives mourn his death, which occurred December 31, 1930.

He is survived by his father, William Tracy Givens, two sisters, Mrs. Stevenson, Oregon City, and Miss May, and a half brother, Gerald Given, who are at home with the father.

Funeral services were held from the Weddle funeral parlors in Stayton, Friday, January 2, 1931, with Rev. Wm. S. Burgoyne of the Turner M. E. church officiating. He was laid to rest in the Warren cemetery in the Waldo Hills by the side of his mother and a sister.

New Year's Prayer

By C. W. ROBISON in Portland Telegram

Oh, Thou Master of all the worlds,
Ruler of Earth and of Heaven,
To Thee we raise a fervent prayer,
"OUR FATHER WHO ART IN HEAVEN."

Before us lies the coming year,
Our paths are faint and strange;
In Thy own hands we place our fate,
"HALLOWED BE THY NAME."

The toil of years seem naught to us,
The work our hands have done
Are to the end that we may see,
"THY KINGDOM DONE."

For in Thy sight—what are our works,
Thou who didst all in seven?
And this our prayer, "THY WILL BE DONE
ON EARTH AS IT IS IN HEAVEN."

The gold we've heaped—the fame we've piled
Like mountains o'er our head,
But for Thy love—we seek, Oh, Lord,
"GIVE US—OUR DAILY BREAD."

Gifts we have brought and prayers we've prayer,
Each by his conscience fettered;
"AND FORGIVE US OUR DEBTS, we pray thee, Lord,
"AS WE FORGIVE OUR DEBTORS."

And thus we pray this coming year
That we may do Thy will,
"AND LEAD US NOT INTO TEMPTATION,
BUT DELIVER US FROM EVIL."

And thus we pray deep in our hearts
The way of humble men,
"FOR THINE IS THE KINGDOM,
AND POWER, AND GLORY,
FOREVER," Lord,
"AMEN."
