FOR SALE or TRADE—Overland 4, ready to go with license. Price $50. Will take hay, grain or spuds. Chas. Parsons, Box 126, Aumsville, Oregon.

The Last Saturday Night Community Dance was declared a rousing success by all in attendance. Everyone had a real time dancing to the old tunes. Geo. Bower with his lunch counter and white uniform seemed to be the main attraction, especially to the ladies, as usual—we often wonder how he does it! Many new faces were noticeable at the dance, especially several of the old-timers of the community—who expressed themselves as having a good time. Over one hundred and fifty people attended Saturday night's dance and a much larger attendance is expected this coming Saturday. It was announced that membership tickets will be issued at the next dance which was met with a welcome cheer by all. It certainly looks like the Club Dance is a success.

Mr. and Mrs. U.S. Talbot and S.H. Baker were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Schifferer Saturday evening.

C. W. Small has been quite ill the past week with the flu and Earl Standley is acting as chore boy.

Jim Noah, who has been employed at the Bones garage for several months left with his family for Prineville.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Tousand, members of Surprise Grange, now living at Shebbs, attended the Grange at Wintle Saturday.

A splendid program of songs, readings, recitations and an interesting as well as amusing Calander stunt will be a portion of the Grange meeting Saturday.

Prof. and Mrs. John Watson came from Forest Grove and spent Saturday and Sunday with his mother, Mrs. R. J. Watson.

Mrs. Georgia McClean of Salem stopped here for a short visit, with an old friend, Mrs. W. J. Harris, while Mr. McClean transacted business in Aumsville Wednesday.

Mrs. Effie McGovern came from Dayton and has been spending the week with her father, Dr. J. W. Ransom and wife.

J. R. Davis, who lives on the Tom Miller place, fell from the hay mow Sunday. He is suffering from severe bruises but fortunately no bones were broken. He is confined to his bed and Hollis Bones is doing the chores.

SOUP FOR SOUPSTRAINERS
By Max McKay

Howdy folks, how's the old eye for literature today? Better get out the old monicle and prepare to read something never before read.

Behold! Behold! A new column is born, from which we are striving to give you a little amusement and laughter. And by yumpin yimney if we ever get wound up and then unwind we will make "Sips for Supper" and "Bits for Breakfast" ashamed of themselves. Yes, sir.

Yeh and by the way we had to study about four hours and one minute to come to a unanimous decision upon the sophisticated title of "Soup for Soupstrainers." And now that that is the name of our column we will love, protect and provide for it the rest of the days of its life.

But what the heck is a soupstrainer anyway? Ah, we know that they have often been thought of as mustaches. Maybe so, but we've always heard that mustaches we referred to as . . . something else.

Anyhow, Soup for Soupstrainers is the name and we're please ter make the acquaintance.

Well old 1930 is dead and gone, so let's forget him and turn our attention to the new born 1931. Only a baby of a week, and now what a whale of an old man he's gona turn out to be. That's if we all put our shoulders to the wheel and push. Let's go folks. What say?

When a bigger and better town is made we will make it—with your help.

Attention! It won't be long now until the museum and library will be completed, and we shall have to turn our attention to gathering specimens of various type for it. If we had been fortunate enough to have one of those animals called mother-in-laws, we would gladly offer her, but we haven't any so some one else will have to donate. C'on folks let's cooperate and get at least one of this species.

And then too we might get some of those rare specimens of "true husbands" and "bootleggers." My what a mixup we would have and too we might suggest one of those animals with "big bills," the "groceryman" for instance. Oh! Oh!

Check and double check, but ain't poor old Andy having a terrible time, and girls just think of how poor Madam Queen must feel. Aint dat sumpin? We suggest that they both unfurl their hearts and burst out with a big "heart" story in "True Story" or "True Confession" magazine. Ashes to ashes, dust to dust, If it wasn't for a broken engagement

It would have been Mrs. Andrew Brown. Now as my story is getting oer, Hood River has good apples, But we only get the core. I tried to hold her on my lap But she only left we flat. Poor boy. Goodby till next week.

We Got Over It
We Always Do

The year of 1893 was a "panic" year. Everybody said it was the fault of the Federal Administration. Bread lines were common, and real money was as scarce as the proverbial "hen's teeth"

In 1907 we went through another period of panic of business and industry. In 1921 we had another business slump that caused the old folks to recall the post-Civil War days.

This week marks the beginning of another year and croaking ravens are perched around on the highways and by-ways, warning that it will be a hard winter and things will be much worse before they are better. Maybe so and maybe not.

The light and power industry looks forward to the year 1931 with confidence in the future of the United States, as it has in the past. It will continue to improve and extend its service to the people, as it has in the past.

There is no place for pessimism in the conduct of our business.
