Warner Bros. New Entertainment Policy

OPEN LETTER TO THE PEOPLE OF SALEM AND VICINITY:
Warner Bros. Theatres, which has recently acquired the Elsinore and Capitol Theatres in Salem, makes its bow to the people of the community with an expression of its desire to serve the community and to build for its theatres a place among the city's institutions deserving of the public's faith and confidence.

We hope and expect to make the Warner Bros. Elsinore and the Warner Bros. Capitol your theatres, with the single purpose of serving your entertainment needs and desires and those of your neighbors.

Nothing will be left undone by Warner Bros. to carry out this policy. Our present plans call for the expenditure in the immediate future of more than $20,000 in improvements to place Warner Bros. Salem theatres in the class of the most modern and best equipped on the Pacific Coast for sound production, screen projection and the comfort and convenience of our patrons.

Salem's Warner Bros. Theatres will show only the best of film entertainment and the sequence of programs now being arranged will embrace all of the best pictures of all of the nationally recognized producing companies. Salem will be given the best in pictures when they are new.

With the same sincerity of purpose and with the same determination to lead the way which has kept them in the front rank of the motion picture industry since its pioneer days Warner Bros. has been an active leader among the industrial and commercial factors of the nation in readjustments to conform with shifting economic conditions. Believing prosperity to be a question of relativity and the price of amusements to bear a direct relation to the price of other commodities Warner Bros. in the present trend of declining costs adapts itself to the natural readjustments.

We are announcing a reduction in the price of admission at Warner Bros. Salem theatres to a level which we believe to be justified by the trend of prices in other lines, but with the assurance that quality of the performances offered is to be in no manner curtailed.

People patronize those industries where the relative value of their dollars return the most, and to those persons, institutions and communities recognizing this principle prosperity is a continuing and ever increasing blessing. With this in mind Warner Bros. Salem Theatres are sponsoring a "Greater Prosperity Month," with an invitation to all to cooperate and share in its dividends.

Very truly yours,
M. L. SILVER,
General Manager Warner Bros. Pacific Coast Theatres.
JOHN STILLE,
Salem Manager.
