YEW LOG CAMP NO. 363 EQUIPMENT MOVED TO MARION

Tuesday the property of the Yew Log Camp No. 363, whose charter was surrendered in the past spring, was taken to Marion where it becomes a part of that camp equipment. Many of the old members will read this with regret for around the yew stump which was a part of the equipment here for over 40 years, was woven memories of pleasant association of many who are resting in God's acre and others who are scattered. Besides the lovely old yew stump, which was brought from near the Red Star mill, another memory, by Clarence "Click" Robertson, there are six wedges, eight large axes and eight small ones, part of them hand carved and polished and with over 40 years of seasoning, it is indeed a rare collection and Marion Camp is fortunate in their inheritance. J. M. Bones, Hollis Bones and Art Robertson of the old camp have transferred their membership to Marion, where Archie Rankin is the council commander and M. A. Barber is clerk.

All Day Meeting Pomona Grange Macleay, Wed.

A number from here attended Pomona Grange at Macleay Wednesday when Macleay and North Howell were joint hosts to over 200 Grangers, among them, all Pomona officers; L. S. Lambert, Master; F. L. Mathews, Overseer; Frank Bowers, Lecturer; C. H. Taylor, Steward; Arthur Edwards, Asst. Steward; Anna Farris, Chaplain; Helen Weiser, Ceres; Nellie Sundner, Pomona; Flora Taylor, Flora; Ellen Lambert, Instrillation officer; Eva Jones, Secretary; S. H. Van Trump, Treasurer; Ethel Fletcher, musician.

The Marion County Granges have made wonderful progress during the year, having placed 200 new members on the roll, with Ankeny Grange leading, with the largest number of new members.

J. Tackenburg and G. Carter were appointed as a committee to procure new members for Pomona Grange.

Reports were made by the following Masters: A. Edwards, Surprise of Turner; J. Edwards, Stayton; H. E. Martin, Macleay; G. O. Farr, Ankeny; Daisy Blump, North Howell; O. L. Larsen, Woodburn; J. A. Van Cleave, Monitor and C. Carter, Butteville.

Granges reporting one hundred per cent economic committees were, Union Hill, Silvertown Hills, Manitor, Fairfield, Woodburn, Turner, Stayton, North Howell and Macleay.

A bounteous dinner was served at the noon hour by North Howell and Macleay Granges.

Frank Bowers presided at the lecture hour at which time Geo. Palmatier, past state master; Edith Tozer Wethered, lecturer Oswego Grange and Mr. Lundy of California were interesting speakers. C. H. Edwards, district deputy of district number one, gave a summary of the agricultural situation.

Included on the social program were quartett numbers by Mrs. Silke, Mrs. O. Baker, W. E. Branch, H. E. Martin with Mrs. Jessie Koomler as accompanist; readings by Mrs. Leroy Elson.

Four resolutions were presented by a committee composed of S. H. Van Trump, A. D. McCully and W. A. Jones and are as follows: Opposing cream

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

At the close of the Sunday morning sermon Rae Westfall made the good confession of his faith and was baptized at the close of the evening service.

The Christian Endeavor young people enjoyed a most interesting and helpful prayer meeting Sunday evening. The topic was "What I Admire Most in Girls." The meeting was led by Jim McGowan. The girls were not allowed to speak. There was a large crowd present.

Immediately following this fine C. E. meeting the young people took charge of the full evening service. They led the songs, read the scripture, led in prayer, took the offering and preached the sermon. It was fine and the young folks did themselves proud.

The church is looking forward to the four days of fellowship and revival with the Kellem Brothers, February 3, 4, 5. No one will profit more in this than the members of the church, though it is planned to invite the churches from neighboring towns. All are invited to come.

Twenty-two fine young people assembled for choir practice Tuesday evening. Dr. Epley is a splendid big brother to the kids and the older ones. He is planning some new music for the near future.

All the services Sunday will be worth while. Not least will be the great address by Prof. Mountain at the evening hour. He is a specialist. Everyone in Turner will want to hear him.

Floyd Brower and a friend from Portland visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Brower, here Tuesday. In the evening they motored to Butteville where they were the dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Parrot.

The Tribune received a letter this week from John Girardin of Beaverton, Oregon, in which he inclosed a check for renewal of The Tribune for another year. His letter reads in part: "I like The Tribune because I get news about friends and acquaintances that I would not otherwise get. I lived about two miles from Turner for 42 years. I have seen many changes in and around Turner since 1881.

grading law; land settlement bill; $75000 state money for Pacific International Exposition; the use of oleomargarine and commending the grocers who do not offer it for sale; all measures were adopted.

The next Pomona meeting will be at Butteville with Woodburn as assistant host.

ANNUAL MEETING FARMERS FIRE RELIEF ASSOCIATION, SATURDAY

The 34th annual meeting of the Farmers Fire Relief association of Sublimity, Oregon, met at Sublimity on January 17, 1931, with the largest membership in attendance that it ever had since its organization. There were members present from Salem, Woodburn, Mt. Angel, Jefferson, Scio and Dallas.

The secretary's report showed insurance written during 1930 was $98,000. On January 1, 1931, there were in force 853 policies, insuring 1870 buildings and contents for the amount of $926,300.

The treasurer's report showed receipts for the year, as premiums from new members, $316.50; assessment No. 9, $1885.72; interest on seven

4H CLUB IS ORGANIZED IN TURNER--SUPERVISOR FOX HERE THURSDAY

Thursday William Fox, county club leader, came from Salem and talked to the girls in the grade school who were interested in a 4H club and on Friday the girls met and organized. Margaret Gilstrap was elected president; Marjory Fowler, vice-president; Ruth Gilstrap, secretary, and Mrs. John Cox was chosen club leader. There are 16 girls in the club which in all probability will be divided into two groups. They will meet in the domestic science room at the school house on Friday afternoons. There will be ten lessons and one demonstration during the club year. The girls are all looking forward to a 100 per cent club. The club members are Alice and Marjorie Fowler, Geneva Barber, La Verna Whitehead, Margaret Schifferer, Mildred and Aleta Boneg, Kathleen Sparks, Eleanor Parkes, Stella Barnett, Clarissa and Frances Clark, Marjory McKay, Margaret and Ruth Gilstrap and Evelyn Jensen.

CRAWFORD

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. White and daughters, Bernadine and Rosalie, were supper guests at the Raymond Titus home Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tim T. Palmer and daughter, Peggy, spent Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Little.

Thieves visited the hen house of Charles Barber, Friday night, and stole about eighty chickens, nearly all being Rhode Island Reds. They left ten chickens, probably running out of sacks to carry them away.

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Thomason motored to Portland, Saturday, visiting their son, Owen, and daughter, Mrs. Paul Walker, and family. They returned Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mayro McKinney motored to Halsey to attend the funeral of Mr. McKinney's cousin.

Frank Carlson of Stayton visited his brother-in-law, Charles Barber, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Page were overnight visitors at P. E. Thomason's home last Thursday.

Mrs. R. D. Witzel attended the W. C. T. U. institute in Turner last Wednesday.

Dean Rice went to Portland, Saturday, to enter the veterans hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Titus spent Thursday afternoon at the H. C. Porter home at Aumsville.

real estate loans at 6 per cent, $499.99; total received, $2652.21.

Disbursements: Four fire losses, $1,576.50; other running expenses, $712.29; total disbursements, $2288.79. Premium assessment No. 19 was 25c per $100 of insurance in force. Net gain for the year was $363.42. Total fire losses paid in 34 years, $12,691.47. Average cost for 34 years was $1.80 per $1000 of insurance in force per year. Resources and investments include: Bank deposits, $476.77; seven real estate loans totalling $8400; total resources, $8916.77.

Clare A. Lee, insurance commissioner for the state of Oregon, favored the occasion by his presence and

METHODIST CHURCH

Your reporter forgot last week to tell you of the wonderful time we had at the Aid Society silver tea held at the home of Mrs. C. A. Bear, January 8th. The house was full of guests, even Mrs. John Duncan from Salem was there and many new ladies who have moved into our midst. The two Mrs. Bears and Mrs. Hazel Stewart had arranged for the delightful entertainment for the event and a sumptuous lunch. We always have an unusually good time when we go to Mrs. Bear's country home.

We also failed to mention three new members who came into our church Sunday, January 11, on confession of faith. And two more joined last Sunday by letter.

After the opening service last Sunday morning in which the choir favored us with an anthem and the men's quartet with a selection, Rev. Burgoyne brought an interesting discourse on the text, "To whom shall we go," to a goodly audience. He said in part: "Men have always asked after a God. Jesus can meet every test. No blemish on his character. He stands out as one who changed the stream of life.

Life is a mystery! Christ is the only one who can solve it. Salvation is a sudden experience, a gradual growth and a glorious future.

"If you turn from Christ, to whom will you go? 'Only thou hast the words of eternal life!' Peter told Christ and it is very, very true."

The evening service was called off that all might have the privilege of attending the pageant at the American Lutheran church, "The Light of the World." The house was packed and people turned away from the fifth presentation of it at 6:30 and enough people were standing on the outside to fill it again for the second time at 8:15. It was certainly fine and made the Christmas story very real.

Much interest is being worked up in the Sunday school over the memorizing of scripture verses. The Young People's class has challenged the Young Married People's class to learn more scripture verses than they can and at the same time the latter class were challenging the Bible class to a memorizing contest. It was decided that any member of the Sunday school who for any reason could not be present if they would send word as to how many new verses they had learned during the week, they could be counted by their class. So everyone please take notice and be sure and have a report for us next Sunday in person if possible, but where impossible then by messenger. This is a contest well worth while, let's do our best.

Henry Barnett returned Monday from a four days' visit with his sister, Mrs. Guy Chapman, and husband at St. Helens.

gave a very interesting and instructive discussion on insurance which was greatly enjoyed and appreciated by all members present.

Officers and directors for the ensuing year are: R. A. Bell, Sublimity, president; Henry Steinkamp, vice president, Aumsville; Chas. Hottinger, secretary-treasurer, Stayton; directors, G. A. Sandner, Scio; Andrew Fery, Aumsville; Frank Saalfend, Salem, and M. Weinacht, Woodburn. Other solicitors are P. C. Freres, Stayton; John Silbernagle, Scio; L. E. Hennies, Turner; John T. Russell, Sweet Home; W. H. Scott, Jefferson; A. G. Rempel, Rickreall; John T. Plas, Scotts Mills, and W. A. Heater, Sublimity.

TURNER WINS OVER MILL CITY IN CASCADE LEAGUE GAME

In the fifth game of the Cascade league series, Turner captured high honors against the pine tree boys by a score of 28 to 17.

The game was fairly fast throughout and some nice passing and team work exhibited by both teams added many thrills to the game. Mill City failed to connect many long shots while the locals were fairly accurate in their shots. M. Pearson and E. Gath were high point men with 11 and 10 tallies to their credit, respectively, while W. Pearson was third in line with 6 to his marker.

The home boys are coming along fine and with a little stiff practice will make one of the strongest teams in the league. Stayton leads the league with no defeats and Turner is second with one. The next game is at Turner with Aumsville next Wednesday night. Come and help us win.

The lineup:

Turner	Mill City
E. Gath.....R.F.....	Catherwood
M. Pearson.....R.F.....	M. Pearson.....C.....
W. Pearson.....C.....	Gooch
C. Martin.....R.G.....	Gregory
C. Ensley.....L.G.....	Baltimore

Dr. Jesse Kellems To Lead 4 Day Rally In Turner

Rev. Gilstrap, pastor of the Turner Christian church, announced Sunday that arrangements had been made to have Dr. Jesse Kellems and his brother, Homer, at the church on the evenings of February 3, 4, 5, and 6. Mrs. Kellems, wife of Dr. Kellems, will also be with them. She is an accomplished violinist.

Dr. Kellems is well known as an international evangelist, having held large meetings in Australia, South Africa, England and the Americas. He has done advanced work at the University of Edinburgh and the University of Berlin. He is an Oregon boy having taken his first college work in University of Oregon. The pastor plans to invite the members of all the churches in the nearby towns to attend and have a part in the fellowship. Following this short meeting the Kellems brothers will conduct a union meeting of all the Christian churches in Portland, Ore.

Homer Kellems is an able and pleasing song leader. Dr. Epley is asking his choir to help Mr. Kellems in the music.

Growers Meeting

The West Stayton Growers club met in the school house last Wednesday evening. Quite a little discussion arose over the cucumber question and other things pertaining to crops of various kinds. Mr. Stafford, the Aurora pickle company agent, will meet with them January 28 to discuss plans on putting down pickles.
