

AUMSVILLE

Local Happenings

E. M. Keith and wife shopped in Salem, Thursday.

A. B. Lucas is employed this week at Stayton.

Austin Stoddard was here from Salem greeting friends Sunday.

Now is the time to get that long needed heater or cook stove. Specially priced at H. P. Jensen's, Turner.

Mrs. Margaret Strayer was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mix on Sunday.

The P. T. A. Sewing club met at the school house Monday and planned the year's work.

Justin Ransom came from Shelburn and spent Thursday and Friday at his aunt's, Mrs. Susie Ransom, home.

Mr. and Mrs. Christy Johnson and Wade Mills have gone to Chehalis, Wash., in quest of work.

Don't forget the special prices we are making on stoves and heaters. We have many other good bargains in our store. H. P. Jensen, Turner, Oregon.

Miss Leota Bradley motored to Salem, Saturday, with the Misses Jessie and Grace Richards, and their brother, Eugene.

Frank Simpson and his housekeeper, Mrs. Carleton, spent Monday in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen E. Brown, who live on the C. B. McCully place, are the parents of a boy, born January 10.

The attendance was very good at the play given by the Stayton high school Monday evening, many coming from Turner, Stayton, Shaw and West Stayton.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Powell and small daughter are here from Sweet Home for a visit at the W. B. Powell home.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Hartley and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hartley, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Palmer, near Sidney Sunday.

John Crum, wife and sons of West Salem and Mr. and Mrs. Riley Miller of South Salem spent Sunday with Mrs. Johanna Brown. Holly Crum remained for a longer visit and Dariel Brown went home with the Millers for a visit.

Mrs. Millie Martin, Arbie Martin and family, Charles Martin and family and Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Fuson all spent a pleasant evening at the Irving Plummer home in Salem, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rhea Rowland, Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Cupp and daughters, Tessie and Madge, and Miss Mildred Cupp spent a pleasant evening with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Peterson, Sunday.

Mrs. Lee Highberger and daughter, six weeks' visit in Oklahoma. Little Virgean, returned Saturday from a Virgean has been quite ill since their return.

William Howard and stepson, McCellan Howard, who are cutting wood this winter for the Oregon Grain Co., of Turner, were looking after business interests at Turner, Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. M. McCollough and daughter, Miss Helen, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin were among those attending the pageant "Light of the World," in Salem recently.

Okie Mills suffered a severe laceration of the leg, just below the knee, when he fell on a drag saw Tuesday while cutting wood at the Walker place. He was taken to Dr. Brewer at Stayton for medical attention.

Rev. William Cone spoke to a good crowd at the Christian church Sunday. Mrs. Cone played a guitar solo which was greatly appreciated. Rev. and Mrs. Cone, Imogene Alsmann and Doris Goodpasture were dinner guests of the Charles Martin family following church services.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Clark and Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Winslow were among the Salem visitors this week.

Mrs. Pearl Stewart and baby of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Gains Fuson and small son of Crawfordville came for a short visit Thursday at the J. L. Sacre home here.

Aumsville high school basketball teams both went down to defeat Saturday when they went up against the Stayton teams. At the first half the score was 0 to 0 in the boys' game and the final whistle Stayton was ahead three points. It was a close game all through. The girls' game resulted in a score of 16 to 2. A return game will be played in the near future.

Mrs. Etta Burns entertained the I-I-K-E-M club at her home in Salem, Sunday, with a birthday dinner for Mrs. Ivy Johns. Other club members present were Mrs. Luta Fuson of Aumsville, Mrs. Katie Sturgess of Brooks, and Mrs. Minerva Holcomb of Salem. There were also several visitors present, Mr. and Mrs. Brown, Mrs. E. M. Pound, Glen and Neoma Burns and Mr. Burk, who gave the lovely birthday cake. Mrs. Holcomb assisted the hostess in serving.

Mrs. Stella Seeley came from Alsea to care for her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Kirkpatrick, who has been ill with the flu but who is much improved in health at the present time.

At the regular meeting of the P. T. A. Friday evening it was decided to give a benefit February 19 to buy athletic supplies for the grade boys. It is reported that the William Howard family have sold their acreage.

The Merrill Garage has been sold to Messrs. Dorman and White of Klamath Falls, Oregon. Mr. Merrill has operated the garage for the past two years and in making the sale he took some farm property in exchange. The new owners say they will run an up-to-date garage where repair work will be done in the best possible way. They invite a share of your business. They also handle gas and oils, and can supply the autoist with any and all kinds of accessories, including tires. It will pay the car owners to give Messrs. Dorman and White a trial.

Mrs. Margaret Martin entertained with a family dinner on January 14, honoring her mother, Mrs. T. Y. McClellan of West Stayton. Covers were placed for the honor guest and husband, Mr. and Mrs. T. Y. McClellan, Mrs. Millie Martin, Mrs. Margaret Strayer, Mrs. Elizabeth Kirkpatrick, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Fuson and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Martin, and daughters, Gwen and Charlotte.

CLOVERDALE

Ivan Hadley, Arthur Kunke and I. Garner and Miss Garner went to Salem, Sunday, to see the play put on there at the American Lutheran church.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schifferer were dinner guests at George Sherman's near Salem, Sunday.

Saturday while working about her home Mrs. Nettie Morris fell and broke her leg. She was taken to Salem to the hospital where last reports were that she was resting easily.

William Anderson and family were sick with bad colds Sunday.

TURNER SOUTHERN PACIFIC TRAIN SERVICE

North Bound
No. 14, 4:26 A.M. (Stops when flagged.)
No. 32, 3:07 P.M. Regular stop.)
South Bound
No. 5, 11:10 A.M. (Stops when flagged to pick up passengers for points at which this train stops.)
No. 15, 9:23 P.M. (Stops on flag only, to pick up passengers for points south of Eugene via Cascad. Linc.)
No. 31, 8:45 P.M. (Regular stop.)
Following north bound trains stop to detain passengers coming from points south of Eugene: No. 16, due 5:36 A. M.; No. 6, due 6:06 P.M.
Office hours at Turner week days are 8 A.M. to 12 o'clock noon, and from 1:00 P.M. to 5:00 P.M.
Station is closed on Sunday and holidays. On these days passengers can pay fare and have baggage checked on trains.

SCHOOL NOTES

Semester examinations are being finished this week.

The social problems class is preparing a debate, "Resolved, That Chain Stores Are Detrimental," to be given Thursday afternoon.

Helen Zuber was the guest of Leota Bradley, Sunday.

The contest for selling the magazines has closed, the red side winning by four subscriptions.

Captains for the red side were Edward Hankel and Leota Bradley, with Prof. Mountain and Mrs. Ella England, faculty advisors; and for the blue side were Doris Walling and Walter Getchell, E. Warne Empey and Mrs. Ruth Riches faculty advisors.

Leonard Zuber was general advisor. Rose Darley was absent from school Monday.

Vesta Carter of Stayton visited school Monday.

"The Clays the Thing" given by the Stayton student body in the Aumsville high school auditorium Monday evening was well attended.

Imogene Alsmann was the dinner guest of Gwen Martin, Sunday.

Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock the Aumsville basketball teams will meet the Stayton teams in a double header on the local floor.

TYPEWRITERS

Adding Machines
ALL MAKES
THOMAS ROEN
421 Court Salem

Warner Bros. EL SINOR E
Today Saturday
Thrills and Chills Chase
Each Other over the Scene

on the spot!
SEE AMERICA THIRST

Starts Sunday

CONSTANCE BENNETT
She Takes a Holiday

Why wish for Summer? vacation
NOW in

California

You don't really have to wait the turn of the calendar for your vacation. Take it now, when you need it most. Board a Southern Pacific train to California. To San Francisco, Los Angeles, Hollywood . . . perhaps to Agua Caliente or Palm Springs. Somewhere down South you'll find the carefree fun you need to fit you for the year ahead.

Any Southern Pacific agent will help you plan the trip.

Southern Pacific

E. M. Keith, Agent
Aumsville, Oregon.

WARNER BROS. Present

CAPTAIN THUNDER

HOT TAMALES HEARTBREAKER!

Glorious Adventures of Amorous Adventurer!

A red hot hombre who wrote the book of love a new chapter every night — one for every boudoir in Mexico!

He loved to fight and fought to love!!

STARTS FRIDAY

Warner Bros. CAPITOL

Last Time Today
'Night Work'

