Change Of Ownership Stock Disposal Sale

Having purchased the Oregon Shoe Store from the Price Shoe Company we find many accumulations of short lines and broken sizes on hand which we wish to dispose of in the shortest time possible and to make room for an entire new stock. In order to do this we have decided to close out these lines at sacrifice prices and make this a real shoe event. These shoes mean nothing to us—we don't want them, but it will be a great help to us to have them out of the store at prices that will appeal to very shoe wearer. We shall at all times endeavor to give you our personal attention and a fitting service that we hope will assure entire satisfaction to everyone.
