

Supplement The Turner Tribune

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harris were here from Portland on Wednesday for a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harris and other relatives.

CRAWFORD

Mr. and Mrs. Bramer have moved from their home here to a farm in the Waldo Hills.

Mrs. Thomas Little and Mrs. Raymond Titus attended a meeting of the Grange Work Club at the home of Mrs. George Crume Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Beckley have moved to their new home in Polk county. Mr. Beckley still drives the cream truck through the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Little spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Mary Walker of West Stayton.

Richard Walker, Thomas Little and Raymond Titus spent Tuesday in Salem attending legislature with a group of representatives from a number of Granges.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Little and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Little and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Titus attended the Pomona Grange at Macleay.

AUMSVILLE

Local Happenings

Mrs. Margaret Tucker is spending several days in Salem.

Mrs. E. J. Harrison assisted with inventory at the store the first of the week.

Geo. Stoddart and his father, D. A. were here from Scio Sunday.

McClellan Thornton was a Salem visitor Tuesday.

Elmer Colvin is home from Garabaldi for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Colvin and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Martin of Aumsville were guests of Mrs. Donald Riches Sunday evening.

The Wm. Howard family contemplate moving to Turner to be near their work, cutting wood for R. Lee Theissen.

Arlen Brock, Elsie and Elinore Bolling were guests at the C. L. Hartley home Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Christy Johnson are moving to Scio to make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Martin, Mrs. I. O. Aleman and daughter Imogean, Mr. and Mrs. Mountain and son Robert attended Endeavor meeting Sunday evening.

The Misses Helen Zuber, Eileen

Brauer, Mildred Rauscher, Vergie and Leota Bradley attended the Young Peoples Club at Mt. Angel Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Stella Seely, who has been at the home of her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Kirckpatrick, for the past ten days, will leave Saturday for her home at Aisen. Mrs. Kirckpatrick will go to Portland for an indefinite stay with her daughter, Mrs. Amend and family. Mrs. Margaret Strayer, who has been making her home with Mrs. Kirckpatrick, has moved to the Arthur Mix home.

Frances Gildow of Salem spent Saturday and Sunday with Charlotte Martin and after the basketball game at the gym Saturday evening she talked to a group, who are interested in organizing The Girl Reserves here. She told of the benefit and the pleasure to be derived, also the expense in belonging to the organization. Frances was born and lived here until a few years ago. She has been a member of the Girl Reserve for the past three years.

Mrs. J. M. Lindley, who has been ill for the past three months, died at the home of her daughter Mrs. Elsie Lewis Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock. Mrs. Lindley has made her home in Aumsville for a number of years and leaves a large circle of friends to mourn her passing. She is survived by her husband, J. M. Lindley and two daughters, Mrs. Elsie Lewis and Mrs. Beasie Colvin all of Aumville; two sons, who lives at Albany. Funeral services were held at Lebanon today at 1 o'clock with W. A. Weddle in charge. She was laid to rest in the Lebanon cemetery.

A splendid program is being prepared for the Community Club meeting Tuesday evening, February 3rd. Oley Fuller of the State Forestry Department will furnish the entertainment for the evening, showing reels and lecturing on that department. There will be the usual 6:30 pot luck dinner. At the business meeting the new by law and constitution will come up for adoption and the final arrangements will be made in organizing The Girl Reserves. Come and spend a pleasant evening.

Friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Kirckpatrick, Saturday, with well filled baskets and spent a social afternoon. The occasion was her eighty-eighth birthday. Mrs. Mrs. Kirckpatrick is one of Aumsville's oldest and best loved citizens. Mrs. M. McCollough brought the lovely birthday cake with candles and her Sunday school class presented Mrs. Kirckpatrick with a beautiful potted plant.

Present were Mesdames Edith Mix, Jennie Wallace, Lulu Prunk, Ida Collins and small son, Mary Hein, Millie Martin, Minnie Porter, Stella Seely, Martha Fuson, Margaret Strayer, Neva Bowers, Luta Fuson, Carrie McCollough, Bertha Powell, Laberria Winslow, Maude Boone, J. L. Sacre, P. T. Mountain, R. W. Landers and the honor guest, Mrs. Kirckpatrick.

The High School voted to send Rose Darley, Geo. Towle and Mable Hall as representatives to the Student Conference at Oregon State College at Corvallis on February 13 and 14.