SOUP FOR SOUP STRAINERS

By Max McKay

By gosh, we wish some one would do something around this burg to give us a little excitement, so we could have something to write about.

You know we have an awyful time trying to make the old top piece do its stuff, when really there's nothing in it.

What we need to make a big boom is some "pink bloomers" or some "pumpkins," or even a "Gervais girl" or two, then we'd have something to write about. But we haven't, so we'll try and get along.

By heck, speakin' of girls, we think those "Monmouth" girls have got it over on any other girls in the country, even "Gervais" girls.

Boy, they got pep and plenty of it. You see, they keep them shut in all week, then on Saturday nite when they get out they are sure hard to hold. Um! Um! Just asked us, we know.

Wanted — A good Russian rat hound, by a man thoroughly experienced in rat hunting.—H. R. Peetz.

You know Peetz will get his heavy artillery and go over to the old mill site and hunt rats by the hour. Some pastime, eh, boys?

Leave some for seed H. R. for the next mill.

We see Mr. and Mrs. George Crume have purchased a new car. We don't see why some one don't invent an automatic jack so when the car is in the garage it is raised off its wheels by a touch of a button, thereby saving the tires.

Well, "Happy," it'd be a darn site easier than doing it by hand, and what's more you want to get you a fly swatter and cleaning rag, by gosh. Yes sir, nothin' like keepin' 'er up in A1 shape.

By thunder'n lightnin' you'd better drive her around once in awhile or we'll begin thinking things.

Anybody know anything about the high cost of bananas at $2 per day.

We've thought up a little poem that the farmers ought to take heed to.

You steal our milk,
You steal our eggs;
We'll quite the farm,
And join the "yeggs."

THINGS WE'D LIKE TO SEE—

Some guy do something what pleased everybody.

Geo. Brower with one of those darn little lizzard in the back of his shirt. Holy jumpin' G. W.!

Helen Peetz reduce.

Hub Briggs' pet rooster get his neck wrung.

We're all unwound now, so we'll see you next week.

SOUSA Chooses Conn Instruments

AMERICA'S famous March King and Bandmaster, John Philip Sousa, says:

"Conn instruments have been used in my band for thirty years and more, simply because we have considered them best. I consider that complete equipment of Conn instruments enhances the musical value of any band at least 50 percent."
