VOLUME XVI

AND CONTINUATION OF THE AUMSVILLE STAR

Prospects Are Bright For A Cannery Here

If plans now under way here materialize, Turner will have a cooperative cannery and pickling plant to be ready to take care of this year's crop. The plant will be cooperative and it is estimated that three hundred growers can be signed up on account of Turner being on the main line of the Southern Pacific railroad and practically in the center of a large area of cannery fruit and vegetables, which is grown in this section.

One of the big advantages of the location is the short distance from field to cannery and the fact that the plant will be on daily train service, and also cheap power, the project looks good from the start made.

A meeting was held here Monday afternoon at which growers from the West Stayton section and other places were present and while no definite plans were decided on a committee was appointed to look after a few details and report at an open meeting which will be held in the school house at West Stayton on Wednesday evening of next week when the final plans for organization will be made.

It is estimated that three hundred growers can be signed up. The location is centrally located, being on the main line of the Southern Pacific railroad, with ample water power which can develop 350 horsepower.

White Ribbon Tea

The W. C. T. U. will give their annual White Ribbon Tea, otherwise known as Frances Willard Memorial, Wednesday afternoon of next week, February 11, at the home of Mrs. John Cox. All the town and surrounding communities are very cordially invited to attend.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The fellowship dinner and board meeting held in the dining room of the church last Friday was a real success. There were more than fifty people present. The reports from the several departments were encouraging.

Sunday morning the services were uplifting. The music, sermons and the prayer and fellowship blended into perfect worship service.

The Intermediate C. E. society is growing under the leadership of Miss Lillian Peterson.

One of the most interesting and helpful addresses yet given by Bro. Gilstrap was delivered by him Sunday evening. His subject was "Adolescence and the Drama of Youth."

Do not forget the Kellems rally for next Friday evening. All are invited. We will have visitors. This company will be worth while.

Monday evening the members and friends of Bro. Gilstrap's Gleaners Sunday school class met at the home of Art Robertson's and enjoyed a real happy hour. It was a surprise and more than 30 people were present.

Next Sunday evening the pastor's subject will be "Christian Citizenship." It will be one of his strongest sermons.

Dr. Epley is preparing some beautiful anthems to be given by the choir soon. There will be special music Sunday.

Kellems rally Friday, 7:30 p. m.

Curfew Ordinance Passes Final Reading

The council of the city of Turner met in regular session Tuesday night. The curfew ordinance was read for the third and last time and passed by the council. This ordinance forbids any person under the age of 16 years roaming the streets or alleys of the town after 9 o'clock p. m., unless accompanied by parents, guardian, or a written consent. Violation of this ordinance is punishable by a fine or jail sentence.

Other matters coming before the council were reading of the report of the audit of the treasurer's books. They were found correct. D. B. Parkes, formerly at the head of the commercial department of the Turner high school, audited the books.

Those present were Mayor E. J. Harrison, Councilmen Martin, Crume and Prather, Night Marshal G. E. Given, Water Superintendent and Treasurer F. P. Rowley and Recorder H. R. Pectz.

At the next meeting of the Macleay Grange the ladies will have charge of the program and will present the "Old Fashioned School Room." In the cast are Mrs. Albert Mader, Mrs. Frink, Mrs. M. M. Magee, Mrs. Harry Martin, Mrs. Ed Tooker, Mrs. Oscar Baker, Mrs. W. Welch, Mrs. Paul Silke, Miss Margaret McGee, Miss Eva Ansell, Miss Viola Looker, Mrs. Dan Wilson and Miss Marie Hise.

Stayton.—Roadmaster Geo. Keech has been good samaritan the past month. He has had thirty men on road work and expects to find work for that many during the coming month. The work has been done on the cemetery hill which has been graded down at the district's expense. Mr. Keech has given the work to those who need it which has been a much needed help to those out of employment.

Sunday School Class Party

Mrs. E. J. Gilstrap entertained her Sunday school Loyal 6 - 8 Class, at her home Wednesday evening from 6:30 'til 9:30 o'clock. Games and valentines were the diversion for the evening, with everyone present joining in the fun. Doughnut and punch were served and all are anxiously looking forward to another one of these delightful gatherings. New officers were elected as follows: Clarissa Clark, president; Roe Westfall, vice president; Mildred Bones, secretary; Vern McGown, treasurer; Mrs. Gilstrap, teacher and Mrs. A. Dumbek, assistant teacher. Those present were Marjory Fowler, Leatta Catterson, Alice Titus, Mildred and Arleta Bones, Clarissa and Frances Clark, Genva Barber, Marjory and Phillip McKay, Vera McGowan, Lewis Peferly, Gene Freeman, Roe Westfall, Robert Hatfield, Albest Robertson, Rev. and Mrs. Gilstrap and daughters, Josephine, Ruth, Margaret and Feruel.

FIRE PROTECTION WILL BE DISCUSSED AT COMMUNITY CLUB--LIVING VALENTINES WILL BE PRESENT

All members and friends of the Community Club are urged to be present at the meeting Monday evening, February 9, when two speakers from the fire marshal's office will be present and discuss with the people plans for fire protection.

Come and bring your friends. There will also be a good program of special features. There will be living Valentines presented by the different districts of the community. The Turner merchants are giving prizes to those competing. The following merchants are donating the prizes: E. J. Harrison, J. McKinney, E. S. Prather and Lee Barber.

Minnesota Banquet Salem February Seventeenth

The mid-winter banquet of the Minnesota people of the Willamette valley will be held in the Presbyterian church in Salem on Tuesday, February 17, 1931.

Senator Staples, former Minnesotan, will be the speaker of the evening. A good time is promised. Tell your Minnesota friends to come and join in the evening's fun. Bring baskets, dishes and silver. Coffee will be served by the club. Mrs. W. J. Linfoot, secretary.

Stayton.—The basketball game played here last Friday night with Gates was one of the fastest and best games of the season. The score was a see-saw from start to finish, and it was only by a small margin that Stayton won, score 19-22. At half time the score was 9-10 in Stayton's favor. Huuku, for the Gates team, and Shelton for Stayton were the outstanding players of the evening.

Stayton.—Mrs. Louise Beauchamp was a Salem visitor Tuesday.

Coast Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Talbot and Mrs. Talbot's son Mr. Stevenson, wife and small son and Mrs. Stevenson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. White motored to Newport and other resorts Sunday. They report the ocean as a very beautiful sight at high tide. Mr. Baker suffered a severe heart attack when they arrived at Taft, which caused them to cut their trip short, however Mr. Baker was able to be over at town Monday and says he is feeling fine again.

Officers Elected Macleay S. S.

Fred DeVries of the Marion County Sunday School Council of Christian Education, was present last Sunday and helped the local workers organize the Macleay Sunday school. There were 19 in attendance and a larger number is looked for at the next meeting.

The following officers and teachers were elected: Mrs. R. L. Thomas, superintendent; Maxine Dalrymple, secretary-treasurer; Luellen Shaw, song leader; Mr. DeVries will teach the Bible class, and Mrs. James Shaw will instruct the young children. The primary teacher will be selected at a later date.

Win One Game

Escaped Cons Rob Jefferson Store Sunday Nite

The two escaped convicts, Dan Flynn and Lee Duncan, who made their getaway during the dense fog last Thursday night, were captured while taking a smoke under the wood pile in the basement of the Jefferson school.

J. T. Jones, constable of Jefferson, who was looking for the cons, went into the basement, and smelling tobacco smoke, made a search and discovered the men. He summoned other officers and after telling the men to come out, they did so without any resistance.

The store at Jefferson was robbed Saturday night and complete clothing outfits, a revolver, ammunition, food and cigarette were taken. The clothing, gun and other stuff were found on the cons when taken. Socks from the gym lockers in the Jefferson school were found in the store which indicates that the cons used the school house as headquarters before the store robbery.

Duncan was wearing the overcoat that he took from Otto Muelhaupt shortly after getting away from the pen and Muelhaupt identified both cons as the ones who held him up Thursday night. The cons will be confined in the bull pen for some time.

METHODIST CHURCH

Turner M. E. Aid was represented at the rally at Pratum last Wednesday by ten members. It was a very successful, happy time. We had all the thrills that go with a trip like that—even to having to change a tire on one of the cars. But, we did it, thank you, and no hard feelings toward the two men who went sailing by in spite of our signal, either. Having to put on the spare made us a little late, so we found a church full of people—mostly ladies, of course—singing. But we were there in time to hear the address of welcome by Miss Avery and the response was given by the Woodburn president of the Federated Women of the Methodist Church. After roll call and a sumptuous dinner each of the eight societies represented gave a report of their most successful ventures and also one number—either a reading or musical selection. Our pastor's wife sang a solo for us.

Silverton had the largest attendance, 35, which included their pastor and wife—Mr. and Mrs. Gordon, who used to be here years ago.

Rev. Burgoyne gave us two very interesting handicaps in the form of a huge bowl. Subject for the 11 o'clock hour was, "The Freedom of Christ," text, "If the Son make you free, ye shall be free, indeed." "History of humanity is one long struggle for liberty. But where not guided by God in this, man goes in circle like a wild beast in a cage. No human system can bring peace if the Prince of Peace is left out. The only remedy for the unrest of the world today is found in my text. I would rather have this freedom that Jesus gives when He comes into the heart than all the wealth and fame the world can give. There is such a peace and joy in following Jesus."

At 7:30 the subject was "The Face of Jesus." He spoke of the Bible as a photograph album. There's a word picture there of every one of us but the best of all is the face of Jesus.

Friday night, February 6, workers are invited to Jason Lee church to what is called District Evangelism and Stewards Retreat. This opens with a banquet at 6:30 p. m., but any one

In one of the most spectacular games ever played in Turner, the local boys won by a mere two points. Boy what a game!

Jefferson took the lead at the start and held it till the last quarter then it would go from Turner to Jefferson, then tie. Twice in the last two minutes the score was tied, then Jefferson took a four-point lead. In the last minute of play the home boys dropped in two field goals a long shot by M. Pearson and a short one by W. Pearson, this tying the score, then E. Gath had one in the air as the whistle blew ending the game, it went through the loop giving Turner two points more than Jefferson. The ruling is when the ball is in the air and the whistle blows, if it goes through the loop it counts, and that shot by Gath certainly won a hard fought old game.

The score at the first half was 10 to 12 in favor of Jefferson, at the third quarter the score was 25 to 20 still in favor of Jefferson, then that spectacular lot of playing by the locals was certainly a wow.

Although E. Gath was groggy and nearly laid up with a cold, he turned out some fine playing and was high point man with W. Pearson second and M. Pearson third.

The boys are playing wonderful basketball and should by all means have the hearty cooperation of the town people.

The score was 31 to 29 for Turner. Referee, Cox; timekeeper, Pectz; manager, Briggs.

The lineup:

Turner	Jefferson
E. Gath	R.F. Harper
M. Pearson	L.F. Boyer
W. Pearson	C. Goin
C. Martin	R.G. McClain
C. Enslay	L.G. Beach

Turner subs—Bones for Enslay.

The second team weren't so lucky and dropped their game to Jefferson seconds by a score of 16 to 12.

We go to Gates next Wednesday.

Stayton.—At the request of Rev. Lyman that members bring old Bibles to the church, two very ancient Bibles were exhibited. Mrs. A. W. Adams had an old Bible that came from Scotland and was 116 years old, being used by her grandmother, and the Christian Psalmist, which was used by the grandparents of Mrs. Nellie Jones in 1869. Bibles written in six different languages were shown.

Birthday Party At Ball Home

A merry group gathered at the L. C. Ball home Thursday evening and helped Keith to celebrate his tenth birthday. Elton Ball acted as postmaster and delivered valentines to the guests. Games and contest numbers were enjoyed until a late hour when Mrs. Ball served refreshments to the following guests: Laverne Whitehead, Eleanor Parks, Verne McGown, Delmer Barber, Lester Bones, Albert Robertson, Lewis Chaserly, Norman Whitenead, Bobby, Elton and Keth Ball, Mr. and Neal Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Coeman Tracy and Mrs. J. E. Whitehead Jr.

can go after that if they prefer, of course.

Interest is still running high in the Sunday school scripture memorizing contest. Remember if you are not able to be present some Sunday to send in words to how many verses you have learned during the week so they can be counted. But come, if you possible can, to all the services, it will pay you in heavenly coin.
