New Cannery Practically Assured

GROWERS' MEETING HELD AT WEST STAYTON LAST NIGHT FAVORS COOPERATIVE CANNERY AT TURNER

At the West Stayton meeting held Wednesday evening for the purpose of deciding whether the growers would favor the building of a cannery at Turner, the project was discussed and the growers were so enthusiastic that fifty-three shares were spoken for.

J. H. Tull, from the marketing department of O. A. C., spoke on cooperative marketing, bringing out the many good points and explained thoroughly the advantages of this means of the farmer and grower getting together to dispose of their crops.

R. Lee Thiessen, who has been one of the boosters of the new cannery, spoke on organization. And Wm. Spiers told of his interviews with various cannery companies and people along such lines.

After the speakers had finished a recess was taken to find how many West Stayton growers wanted shares, and practically every one present made application. The committee that has been functioning for the past month will still look after the matter of signing growers who were not at the meeting and this will be done this week, with a call for a special meeting soon to be held at Turner.

As soon as the West Stayton territory is covered, the list will be turned over to Mr. Thiessen, who will canvass the Turner district, and it is hoped that every citizen who possibly can will get behind the cannery project and help make it a reality.

Time is short and those in charge of the organization are anxious to start building so as to have the plant ready to take care of this year's crop.

Thirty to forty thousand shares of $100 each will be disposed of and as soon as enough are sold to assure the new industry, the market department of O. A. C. will lend a helping hand in drawing bylaws and other necessary papers for a cooperative cannery.

Stayton cannery officers are enthusiastic about the new cannery as the Stayton plant is now working to full capacity and cannot accommodate a very great amount of increase and they have assured the promoters of the Turner cannery that they will give them all the help they can. This is indeed encouraging and Turner citizens thank Stayton for their support.

As previously stated Turner is generally located among the growers of this section, on the main line of the Southern Pacific, with short hauls, cheap water power and every accommodation to both grower and shipper.

It is now up to the Turner citizens to come to the front and help put our little town on the map.

98 Years Of Prosperity

If you believe that 12 is an unlucky number then note:

In 1903 business was bad.

1+9+0+3=13

In 1921 business was bad.

1+9+2+1=13

In 1930 business was bad.

1+9+3+0=13

Those who believe in numerology may take comfort in the fact that the next year to add to 13 is the year 29, 98 years from now. So, we are not going further to worry about.—North-ern Lights.

Deputy State Fire Marshall Talks On Rural Protection

As usual Turner and surrounding communities turned out en masse for the Community club meeting Monday evening when Mr. Davis, fire marshal, spoke on "Rural Fire Protection," and Captain Stokes on "Protecting Homes and Property." C. A. Bear was in charge of the business meeting, assisted by Miss Mable Tucker, while Mrs. Stanley Riches had charge of the social program which was as follows: Reading, "Little Ophan Anna," Rashel Riches; solo, Lester Bones; songs by Salem quartet; duet, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cook.

The presentation of living valentines for prizes were placed as follows: First, Turner high school; second, Crawford, third, Turner Community; fourth, Cloverdale; fifth, Pleasant View. The prizes, boxed candies, were donated by the Turner merchants.

The distribution of valentines closed the evening's entertainment.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The Friday night rally was a great success. There was a full house and all enjoyed the gospel message of the Kelless party.

The Sunday morning anthem was a treat.

Mrs. Parks proved herself an able leader at Christian Endeavor, Sunday evening.

The senior C. E. will need to watch out or the intermediate society will beat it in number of members.

Many comments of approval were spoken about Rev. Gilstrap's Sunday evening sermon.

Mrs. Epley and Mrs. Gilstrap were the hostesses entertaining the choir, following the practice on Tuesday evening. There were 32 present and all joined heartily into some lively games after which lovely refreshments were served.

Sunday evening the special music was fine—one male quartet and one duet.

The orchestra appeared in full force again Sunday evening and was greatly enjoyed by all.

All are expecting to make the next month a month to be remembered in spiritual fellowship.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. J. Lester Sande in Alameda, California, February 7, an 8-pound daughter. Mrs. Sande will be remembered as Miss Ruth Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Edwards. Mr. and Mrs. Sande moved to Alameda about two years ago. Mr. Sande is employed as commercial teller in the Bank of

Dinner Guests

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bear entertained with a dinner Sunday, complimenting their daughter, Mrs. R. E. Stewart, who soon leaves with her young son for her home in Minnesota. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Stroud and children, Eleanor, Ronald and Donna Fry, Miss Adelaide Winslow of Rosedale, Miss Helen Winslow of Monmouth Normal, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wagers and sons, Robert and Glenn, of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Bear and daughter, Eunice, Willard Bear of Albany College, Kenneth Bear, Mrs. R. E. Stewart and son, Quentin, and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bear.

Turner Wins From Gates at Gates Last Night

The Turner town team boys were victorious again in Wed. night's game with Gates. The boys fought hard throughout most of the game and held a good lead, but in the last quarter got a little over confident and Gates gradually climbed to within two points of winning when the final whistle blew.

Next Wednesday we have the hardest game of all with Stayton at Stayton. All that can go please do so and give us your support.

The score was 27 to 25. Referee Flescher of Salem.

Former Turnerite Dies At Brooks Monday

Mrs. Tolia Osborn, who was well known here, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. O. L. Allison of Brooks, on February 9th., at the age of 63 years.

She is survived by her husband, J. H. Osborn; three daughters, Mrs. Clifford White, Turner; Mrs. Allison, Brooks; Mrs. Harvey King, Salem.

Funeral services were held from the Terwilliger Funeral Parlors in Salem Wednesday at 1 o'clock with Rev. Micky officiating. Interment was made in Belcrest Memorial Park.

Mrs. R. E. Stewart and son, Quentin, will leave Saturday morning for Portland, where they will spend the night with Mr. and Mrs. Mollett, who are old friends. An early Sunday morning train will be taken to Cheyenne, where a side trip will be made to Ft. Collins, Colo., to make a two days' visit at the home of an uncle and family, also two days will be spent at Omaha with relatives. Mrs. Stewart hopes to reach her home near Spring Valley, Minn., by the last of the week.

HIDDEN THINGS SHALL BE REVEALED

Not understood, we move along, asunder,
Our paths grow wider as the seasons creep
Along the years; we marvel and we wonder
Why life is life, and then we fall asleep,
Not understood.

Not understanding, we gain false impressions,
And hug them closer as the years go by,
Till virtues often seem to us transgressions
And thus men rise and fall and live and die
Not understood.

Not understanding, souls with stunted vision
Oft measure giants by their narrow gauge;
The poisoned shafts of falsehood and derision
Are oft impelled against those who mould the age,
Not understood.

Not understood, the secret springs of action
Which lie beneath the surface and the show
Are disregarded; with self-satisfaction
We judge our neighbors, and they often go
Not understood.

Not understood, how trifles often change us;
The thoughtless sentence or the fancied slight
Destroys long years of friendship and estrange us,
And on our souls there falls a freezing blight
Not understood.

Not understood, how many hearts are aching
For lack of sympathy! Ah! day by day
How many cheerless, lonely hearts are breaking
How many noble spirits pass away
Not understood.

Oh, God! that men would see a little clearer,
Or judge less hardly when they cannot see;
Oh, God! that men would draw a little nearer
To one another! They'd be nearer Thee
And understood.

Salem Brotherhood M. E. Church At Albany Meet

Salem Brotherhood men of the First Methodist church, Salem, were present at a "Sub-district Evangelism Stewardship Retreat," which was held at the First Methodist church in Albany Wednesday evening, February 4. They furnished the preliminary program. Judge O. W. Emmons gave a selected reading, "Varnish"; Bruce Spaulding, whose father and grandfather were pioneer ministers and circuit riders of the Willamette valley, gave two solos. The meeting was attended by over one hundred delegates from ten nearby charges. The Lebanon charge was present with the largest delegation, numbering twenty. Dr. Luther E. Lovejoy of Chicago was the guest speaker of the evening. The district pre-Easter program on "Evangelism and Stewardship Education," was adopted. A banquet dinner was served by the ladies of the Albany Methodist church. A similar meeting will be held at the Jason Lee Methodist church of Salem, Friday evening March 6, the McMinnville delegation furnishing the preliminary program.

METHODIST CHURCH

The Ladies Aid committee, Mrs. Prather, Mrs. Cox and Mrs. Palmer, gave a most delightful tea at the home of Mrs. John Cox last Thursday afternoon. After devotions, papers with a jumble of letters upon them were passed about with the request that we assemble three intelligent words. After much exercise of our gray matter we finally got "Methodist Aid Society" out of the wreckage. Among the readings and other forms of entertainment we were given a contest on schools. This was very interesting but quite difficult. For instance, could you tell us right quick, "At what school do we advance in learning letter by letter?" Give up? "Why correspondence school, of course. Most

Birthday Club At West Stayton Has New Officers

The West Stayton Birthday club met at Mrs. Verna Asche's. It had completed its first year as a club. Mrs. Mabel Royle was elected president; Mrs. Peggy Comstock, vice-president; Mrs. Minnie Dickman, secretary and treasurer. The club presented Mrs. Forrette with an orangeade set in appreciation of her faithful work as president. There were thirty-four present. Those visiting the club Wednesday were Mesdames Masters, Lacy, Haines, Frost, Speis, Shellenberger, Tegen, Meskimmons, Wise, Edrie McClellan, Sprinkel, Nellie Woosley, Alice Van Osdol, Jennie McClellan, Nipple and Einfeldt. After the business meeting was over and a delicious lunch of mystery pudding, graham crackers and tea were served by the hostess, Verna Asche. The crowd enjoyed the old time wholesome fun of pinning on the old mule's tail. Poor mule, he certainly wasn't a Missouri mule.

Mrs. Elmer Asche motored to Lebanon, Sunday, to bring her husband home, who had been there during the past week. Mr. Asche papered a room before they came home Sunday.

Frank Van Nuys and wife of Dallas were visiting at the Van Nuys home Sunday.

John Miller and Alma Tyler of North Santiam, Lyle Sacre and family of Salem and Duke Dively, Mabel and Alice Brown, Orpha and Hazel Shellenberger and Naomi Chamberlin visited at the Henry Crane home Sunday.

A. Seitzinger of Mill City was a week-end guest at the B. H. Chamberlin home.

B. H. Chamberlin and family spent Saturday evening at the Harry Phillips home at Macleay.

Excursion Rates Washington's Birthday

Special round trip excursions, providing for travel between seven western states, have been authorized over Washington's birthday by Southern Pacific, Santa Fe, Western Pacific and Sacramento Northern railroads, according to joint announcement today.

Featured by unusually low fares, the holiday offering of transportation "bargains" will be available from February 20 to 23, with return limit of February 25, it was stated.

The territory covered by the special order includes all points west of Ogden and Salt Lake City, from Portland in the north to Albuquerque and El Paso in the south.

delightful refreshments were served. Everything was heart shape and so dainty!

Friday evening a load of us drove into Salem to our district evangelism and steward's retreat. Rev. Lovejoy from the main office, Chicago, was the principle speaker. Our district superintendent, Rev. Marcy, was chairman for the evening. He took for his subject "Why Some Churches Fail." He showed it was because they had lost the spirit of love and fellowship, and also the spirit of adventure. They had gotten into a rut and were afraid to try new things for God. His address was very inspiring and uplifting. This was followed by an appeal from
