

Supplement To The Turner Tribune

F. P. Rowley has a new chicken house nearly completed. It is 12X16 and is being constructed along modern lines in the way of roost, feed trays etc.

Miss Helen Peetz entertained with two tables of 500 Wednesday evening, with Mrs. Stella Miller holding high score. In the group were Mrs. Stella Miller, the Misses Gertrude Anderson and Mable Tucker, Herbert Briggs, Max McKay, Kenneth Hickey, Louie Hennies, the hostess Miss Helen Peetz and her parents Mr and Mrs. Herman Peetz and little Betty Peetz.

WANTED—Garden plowing. Tim Palmer, Turner, Route 2.

AUMSVILLE

The four one act plays given by the the Student Body of the Amos M. Davis Memorial High School, drew a very good crowd Friday evening.

It has been customary in the past to give but one play but owing to the number who wished to take part it was thought best to give the four one act plays and give all a chance to do their bit. The Thomas orchestra of Shaw played between acts which added much to the evenings entertainment.

A matinee was given Friday afternoon for the school children and a few of the mothers, thereby assuring more room for the evening crowd.

Mrs. Ella England directed the plays and thirty dollars was realized from the evenings entertainment.

Frank Simpson was in Turner on business Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldon have sold their farm (the old Pound place) and will move to the old Swank place next to the C. B. McCully place.

Mrs. Margaret Martin entertained with an all day quilting on Wednesday. Quilting a beautiful butterfly quilt for Miss Gwen. Miss Eva Corser assisted Miss Gwen in serving the 12 o'clock dinner. Present were Mesdames Ruby McClellan, T. Y. McClellan, Luta Fuson, Millie Martin, M. McCollough, Mary Hein, Virgie Bradley, Ralph Waldon and small son, P. T. Mountain, Landers, Mr. T. Y. McClellan, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin, Miss Eva Corser and Miss Gwen Martin.

W. B. Powell is spending several days in Oregon City.

Fred Garbe was looking after business in Salem Monday.

Coach E. Warne Empey, was brought home from the McMinnville hospital Monday and is recovering from a recent operation for appendicitis.

CARD of THANKS

We wish to thank the many friends and neighbors for the sympathy shown us at the death of our little son, and also for the beautiful flowers.

Mr and Mrs. R. D. Pomeroy and family

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin and Mr. and Mrs. T. Y. McClelland of West Stayton motored to Stayton, Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Susie Ransom and nephew, Justin Ransom of Shelburn, John Sacre Jr., and Troy Nance of Albany motored to Portland, Wednesday, for a several days stay.

Miss Merle Martin was home from Monmouth for the week-end.

Mrs. Brower, Mrs. Whitehead and Mrs. Pearsons shopped in Salem, Tuesday.

The members of the Merry Mixers Cooking Club entertained their mothers and other invited guests at the home of their leader, Mrs. A. E. Bradley. The club has forty-four members and from reports the little folks are royal entertainers.

The reception committee consisted of Violet Perkins, Jane Pomeroy and Mary Lucas. The decorating committee, Ralph Alzman, Orval Prunk and Viola Bradley; the refreshment committee, Lois Turner, Lucile England and Doris Nicolson; the serving committee, Charlotte Martin, Vilis Howard, Alice Titus; the program committee, Alice Brown, Cleo Barry, Mildred McNeil, Ralph Alzman, Virginia Swanson, Mary Lucas and Virginia Garbe.

The invited guests were Mrs. I. O. Alzman, Mrs. J. H. Prunk, Mrs. C. B. Bemis, Mrs. Maude Howard, Mrs. Charles Martin, Mrs. T. Y. McClellan and Mrs. A. A. Nicolson. Special guests were Misses Grace Richards and Mabel Brown, and Mrs. William Gray. There were 44 club members and the leader, Mrs. Bradley present.

WEST STAYTON

Mesdames Clyde Comstock and Fred Comstock entertained the Birthday

Club jointly last Wednesday and owing to the nice afternoon a large crowd was out. Mrs. Laura Rand and small daughter, and Mrs. Shields, who has spent the past three months in Idaho, were present and enjoyed visiting with old friends and club members. Mrs. Edith Stewart and Mrs. Elsie Bone were guests, with Mrs. Bone joining the club at the close of the meeting. Delicious sandwiches, salad, cocoa and coffee was served by the hostesses. Those present were Mesdames Goss, Asche, Stewart, Forrette, Gilbert, White, Bone, Johnson Chamberlin, Rand, Shields, Dickman, Royse and the hostesses.

Mr. Helgerson, field manager of the Lilly Seed Co. was here Tuesday making contracts for squash and pumpkins to be raised for seed. Quite a bit of interest is being taken in the project.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gilbert and son Johnnie spent Sunday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hankle.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stewart were Sunday evening visitors at the W. O. Royse home.

A Health Clinic was held at the school house Friday. In the morning. School children were examined in the morning and pre-school children in the afternoon.

Friday afternoon the West Stayton Jolly Girls Club and their leader, Mrs. Elsie Bone entertained a group of mothers and the teachers. A short business session, in which they all seemed very much interested, preceded the serving of refreshment consisting of cake, salad and cocoa. Guests were Mrs. Irish, Mrs. Firschel, Mrs. Fred Comstock, Mrs. Spies and Mrs. Royse. The Boy's Handicraft Club met at the home of Mr. Elmer Asche, who is a most efficient leader.

The grade girls played their first basket ball game this afternoon with the Stayton grade girls and as a result are walking in the clouds as they won with a score of 21 to 18.

TELEPHONE 3441

Globe Body & Fender Works

Bill Durkee
Bear System of Wheel Alignment
Frame and Axle Straightening
444 Ferry St., Salem, Oregon

Could she live down he rpast? See March 26, 27, or 28.