

TURNER

Easter Cards, 1c and 10c at Prather's Drug Store.

Husky Higrade Baby Chicks, catalogue and prices now ready. Salem's Petland, Salem, Oregon. Phone 656.

Blac Tulip Powder, special with puff and black glass powder jar, $1, at the Drug Store.

Mrs. W. S. Borgoyne is able to be out again after a seige af flu.

Mrs. Reynolds of Salem visited with Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Hale today.

Mrs. Whitehead Jr. is entertaining the missionary society of the Christain Church this afternoon.

The play "Madam DePortment" was presented at Marion Tuesday evening before a large and appreciative audience.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Harris, accompanied by Mr. Harris' brother, J. L. Harris, and father, W. H. Harris, were in Salem on business Friday.

George T. Burnett of Salem visited with his brother-in-law and niece, S. H. Baker and Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Talbott, Sunday.

Dr. B. F. Pound practice limited to removal of teeth, gas or local, and dental X-ray. New location 303 First National Bank Bldg., Salem, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Newman and daughter, Helen Jean, of Salem spent Sunday evening at the home of Mrs. Newman's aunt, Mrs. L. J. Rowley.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott of Salem spent Sunday afternoon and evening with Mrs. Scott's mother, Mrs. China Bones.

We draft patterns for each individual. Let us end your corset trouble. Arehart & Aldrich, corset makers, 420 Court Street, Salem. Phone 1639.

The Delzell family will go to Corvallis next Sunday for dinner. Thelma will return home for a visit as her school work is over at O. S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Moon and family are spending several days visiting his mother, Mrs. Emma Moon, and his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Owsley.

Keith Bones, who has been laid up for the past ten days with a severe burned back and chicken pox, is able to be up and about the house again.

Mr. and Mrs. George Moon and family and his father, G. A. G. Moore of Salem visited Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Moore's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Gunning.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Martin enjoyed a visit from their daughter, Miss Mildred, who came Sunday from Salem, where she is employed in the real estate office of Leo N. Childs.

Word was recieved here this afternoon that the nine year old son of Robert Hunsaker snffered severe injuries during the noon hour, when he was run over by a car in Salem. He is in the hospital.

R. Lee Thiessen and family have been enjoying a visit from his father the past week. The senior comes from Newberg and left Wednesday for his home.

Geo. McNeal came in from North Santim Tuesday and with his mother in-law, Mrs. Ludwig transacted business in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Harris of Portland visited Sunday afternoon with Mr. Harris' parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harris, who accompanied them back to Portland for a few days' visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Lotus Osburn, dancing with their small daughter in Mr. Osburn's arms, won the prize for originality, a can of Vienna sausage. George Brower and George Crume acted as the judges.

Maurice Sparks, the four year old son of Mrs. Ada Sparks, who has been a patient in the Willamette Sanatorium for the past two weeks suffering from a eonjested lung and ethicken pox, is slowly recovering but it will be some time before he can be moved home.

Mrs. F. C. Delzell received the sad news of her brother's death by drowning at Newport, Ark. He was a painter and was fond of fishing and spent lots of time on the Arkansas river in his boat. The body has not been found so far as Mrs. Delzell knows.

What! Trade out of Turner? No! Never! Then why not bring your shoes to be repaired to E. Robinson, located in Mrs. Brigg's house, in Turner, Oregon. Also furniture repairing.

The hard time masquarade dance in the Ball Bros. hall Saturday evening drew a good crowd. There were some ununsally clever costumes worn Miss Matle Tucker and Tom Webb won first prize, a box of candy and a box of cigars, for the best couple; Mrs. Carl Wipper received a box of candy for the best ladies costum and Carl Wipper, the -ox of cigars for the best mau's costum.

SCHOOL NOTES

The operetta "Paul Revere" will be presented in the Turner high school auditorium, March 27, 1931. The operetta is directed by Mrs. Jean Pearcy, the parts are now very well learned and with more chorus practice week the cast will be well able to present the operetta.

The ticket sales is now going on and many tickets have been sold. The price of the itekets are 25c, buy your tickets now if you want a good seat. They are selling fast; less seats are to be bought every day. Buy now—and come early.

The interschool typing contest for the first and second year typists will be held at Jefferson, Thursday afternoon, March 19. Those entering from Turner are: first year class representatives are Leone Cook and Kenneth Fowler; second year entries are Sheila Delzell and Nellie Barber.

The senior class have ordered announcements and calling cards from the Hartel Engraving Company, Cincinnati, Ohio.

The Turner girls grade team and the second high school team felt quite proud of themselves after winning two victories over Stayton grade teams. Both the Turner grade team and the Stayton grade second team put up a hard fight at the Turner gym last Thursday. The Stayton school was in the lead until the half, when the score was 16-9. Then the Turner girls rallied the last half and brought the score up to 21-18. The teams were pretty well matched, neither one having played before.

Following this game the Turner high school second team and Stayton grade first team played. Stayton held Turner pretty, close the score being 11-9. Both teams put up a good fight. Mrs. Pearcy refereed this game. Mrs. Eggeston is the Stayton girls coach.

AUMSVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Okie Mills are the parents of a boy born Sunday night.

Hear Kellems at Turner Christian church Sunday morning.

Mrs. Margaret Strayer of Silverton spent Sunday at Lyons.

Theo Highberger and J. M. Lindley were Salem visitors Wednesday.

Mrs. W. B. Powell returned this week from a visit with relatives near Oregon City.

Sam Wess underwent an operation at the Willamette Sanatorium Monday. He is recovering nicely.

Mrs. Nellie Martin, Mrs. Luta Fuson and Mrs. Landers spent the day with Mrs. Warner Lee, Wednesday, and helped her quilt.

Mrs. J. L. Sacre is at Crawfordsville, where she is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Gains Fuson, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Louden spent the week-end in Aumaville visiting old friends of his.

It is rumored that the Southern Pacific Co. will close the depot here in the very near future.

Lloyd Van Nuys and Lester Ellis are expected home Saturday from a vacation spent in Salem.

Mrs. Susie Ransom, Leota Bradley and Mrs. Rhea Rowland are on the sick list.

Word has been received here that Marden Nance, a former Aumsville boy who has been in the navy for some time, is home again in Albany.

Mrs. C. L. Hartley and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Rex Hartley, spent Sunday with Mrs. George Palmer near Sidney.

Mrs. Corser and Miss Eva went to Monmouth, Wednesday, to make arrangements for Miss Eva to enter school there on March 30.

Lee Sutton, who lost his home a couple of weeks ago by fire, is building a fine new home. The place will be plastered and modern in every way. Arbie Martin is doing the electric work.

Two groups of Girl Reserves were organized Wednesday with Mrs. Riehes as leader of the high school group and Miss Richards the grades.

Continued on supplement

Nut Tree Sale

GRAFTED FRANQUETTE WALNUT TREES—

3 to 4 ft Trees, each	50c
4 to 6 ft Trees, each	75c

Special Prices on Quantity Orders

FILBERTS

Select tip-layered trees, 3 1/2 to 5 ft. grade, each	35c	Tip-layered Filberts, 3 to 4 ft. per 100	$25 00
	$32.50 per 100	Transplanted Filberts	$20.00 to $35.00 per 100
Seedling Chest-nuts, each	50c

YOU CAN'T AFFORD NOT TO PLANT AT THESE PRICES

Pearcy Bros. Nursery

240 N. LIBERTY ST. — JUST NORTH OF COURT

The Story of The Strangest Passion The World Has Ever Known

A Smash As A Play!
A Smash As A Book!
—and Now A SMASH As A Motion Picture!

It Thrills! It Chills—It Will make Your Blo-o-od Run Co-o-ld!

STARTS SATURDAY

DRACULA

WARNER BROS. ELSINORE

SPECIAL PLATE OFFER

First Fifty People

I have been practicing dentistry in Salem for years and am opening a new office in the Bligh Building at State and High Streets. To the first 50 people —my

$12.50

DOUBLE SUCTION PLATE

Made of alumnium dust with gold pin teeth. Regular $20.00 plate for

PAINLESS EXTRACTION GUARANTEED OF TEETH

Crown as low as $5.00
Bridges as low as $5.00
Fillings as low as $1.00

The finest dentistry at most reasonable prices — all work guaranteed

I make plates that you can chew your food as nature intended you should. My double suction plates allow proper mastication and digestion. No matter how you manipulate your jaws this plate will remain firmly in position.

Come and see my samples and let me prove to you that I can make you a plate that you will be pleased with and recommend me to your friends.

CONSULTATION FREE

WHEN YOU THINK OF TEETH THINK OF

DR. J. G. NASH

PHONE 3569 124 New Bligh Bldg, State and High