primitive life requires food, clothing and shelter... MODERN LIFE DEMANDS COMPLETE ELECTRIC SERVICE

Once a Saturday Night Custom: Now - An Every-day Necessity

There is always a laugh when some comic fellow refers to the old custom of taking a bath on Saturday night. It was no joke in the long ago when water had to be heated a kettleful at a time.

Modern hygiene says a bath a day—or oftener—is a necessity. And what a joy it is to have plenty of hot water for this daily necessity!

It's easy, with an electric water heater. This modern way stores up hot water at exactly the right temperature, for use whenever you need it—for the bath, the laundry dishwashing, housecleaning, or whatever task is at hand.

Your dealer will tell you all about the convenience of electric water heating. Our low rates for electric service make it the economical way to provide plenty of hot water for any household purposes.
