There's Nothing Mysterious About It.

Some people have wondered why I do the bulk of the Harness business. Not only here in town but for miles around. Surely, there is nothing mysterious about it, nothing to wonder at. The quality and assortment of my stock is reason enough for that. If you are not a customer of mine just give me a trial next time you want anything in the Harness and Saddlery line, no matter what. See my stock and get my prices.

NEWS OF OREGON STATED IN BRIEF

TELEGRAPHIC CHRONICLE OF STATE HAPPENINGS.

MURDERER MEYERS CAUGHT

Rev. Larden Meets Slayer of Patrolman Eckhart in Road and Takes Fugitive Home.

Salem—Rev. I. P. Larden, a Free Methodist preacher, of Pratum, eight miles east of here, effected the capture of George Meyers, who shot Patrolman Thomas Eckhart, in this city, Friday, October 1.

Larden met Meyers wandering along the road. He immediately recognized the fugitive, stopped his horse and asked him a few questions. Meyers said he was hungry and Larden took him home. At the supper-table Meyers said if he could secure a bicycle, so he could reach Portland, he would be able to make his escape.

The pastor advised Meyers strongly against such an attempt, saying it would be folly, and told him he would be captured eventually and the best method would be to submit to arrest peacefully. Meyers acquiesced and the two drove to Salem together and entered the sheriff's office, where Meyers told his story.

Rev. Mr. Larden will receive the entire $1100 reward offered for the capture of Meyers.

Governor Names Delegates.

Salem—Governor Benson has appointed the following additional delegates to the annual convention of the Mississippi to Atlantic Inland Waterways Association, to be held at Jacksonville, Fla., November 15-17: J. L. Henderson, Hood River; W. F. Woodward, Portland. Also the following additional delegates to the Dry Farming Congress to be held at Billings, Mont., October 26-28, have been named: C. Springer, Culver; Wallis W. Brown, Hiler; A. M. Drake, Bend.

Negro Must Respect School Board

Marshfield—The school for colored and Oriental children, maintained by the Marshfield school board, has again opened. On the first day there was only one pupil, a little Chinese boy. The negro children had refused to come, so the school was closed. The school board has given notice that the negroes must attend school where they are told, and the trustee officer has been instructed to prosecute the negro parents.

Railroad Tax Increased.

Roseburg—County Assessor Callison has finished the assessment for Douglas county for this year. In accordance with the plan agreed upon by the assessors of the western Oregon, the valuation per mile of the Southern Pacific roadbed and the rolling stock has been raised this year, that company being assessed $38,000 per mile in this county, as against $30,000 in 1908.

Many Settlers Arrive.

Burns—The class of settlers coming to Burns and obtaining lands throughout the county is the best that has been attracted to the interior. Those who are coming are men and women of means who are prepared to begin improvements on a permanent scale. The new arrivals are largely from the middle west.

To Hear Klamath's Complaint.

Portland—According to the revised schedule, the senate irrigation committee, which will reassemble at Denver November 1, will spend November 10 inspecting the Klamath irrigation project and listening to settlers who have suggestions or complaints to offer. This will be the only stop in Oregon.

Paper Money Supplied.

Rugene—The First National Bank of Rugene will soon put into circulation $35,000 worth of its bank notes in $5 denomination. On account of the influx of Eastern people here, who have been in the habit of handling paper money and who prefer it to gold, the bank has planned to meet the demand.

Both to Hang on Friday, Nov. 12.

Portland—Friday, November 12, is the date fixed for hanging James A. Fiech, for the murder of Ralph B. Fisher. Unless a reprieve is granted there will be a double hanging of Multnomah county murderers that day, for Harry Daly is sentenced to die on the same date.

Portland Woman Chosen.

Hood River—The state convention of the W. C. T. U. closed here after a successful meeting by electing Mrs. Ada Unruh, of Portland, as state president.

Marshfield—Inspector Mann, of the United States department of agriculture, has been in Coos county for some time past making an examination of the soil in different localities. His purpose is to determine for what crops the different kinds of soil are best adapted.

Sheridan—In a cache in a stubble field about a half mile from Sheridan were found the goods stolen on the night of August 2 from the store of Haas Brothers. No trace has been found of the men who committed the theft.

BRYAN STATES HIS POSITION CLEARLY

HOPES NEVER TO RUN FOR ANY OFFICE.

THINKS TARIFF MAIN ISSUE

Question Will Decide the Complexion of the Next Congress and Campaign Issues in 1912.

Portland, Or., Oct. 12.—With the quiet which becomes an orderly Sunday night welcoming crowd, interrupted only a few times by applause, Wm. J. Bryan, accompanied by Mrs. Bryan, arrived in Portland at 8:50 o'clock Sunday night. He was greeted at the depot by a delegation of prominent Oregon Democrats and an audience of over 1000 persons, with a majority of whom he shook hands.

"I have said and repeat that while I will not promise any one that I never, under any circumstances, will be a candidate for office again," said Mr. Bryan, "I do not desire to be a candidate for office again and do not expect to be a candidate for any office and hope that no conditions will arise which will make it necessary for me to consider the question again.

"People differ in opinion as to what question is of most importance," replied Mr. Bryan, when asked what he regarded the paramount issue before the American people. "I think the tariff question is the question which is being most discussed. No one can see very far into the future and it is never safe to make predictions very far ahead as to what issue will be paramount in a succeeding campaign. At the present time it looks as if the tariff question would have the most influence in deciding the complexion of the next congress and the action of the next congress will largely determine the issues in the campaign of 1912."

At 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon a public reception was held, to which the general public was invited. Mr. Bryan left last night for Seattle, where today he gave an address in connection with the "Bryan day" exercises at the A.-Y.-P. Exposition.

TALKING CAUSE OF RECALL

Crane Indiscreet in Telling Government Secrets.

Washington, Oct. 13.—Charles R. Crane, of Chicago, Minister to China, yesterday was practically deposed by a demand from Secretary Knox for his resignation.

Mr. Crane's unexpected and hitherto mysterious recall to Washington by Secretary of War Knox, when he was at the point of sailing from San Francisco to assume his duties in China, was occasioned by developments involving the question of Mr. Crane's fitness for the post.

The state department had in hand, it is said, what it regarded as more or less convincing evidence that Minister Crane, on the eve of his departure for the Far East, became responsible for the publication in a Chicago newspaper of what the department viewed as a most indiscreet discussion of the attitude of the United States toward two treaties recently negotiated between China and Japan.

Indians Studying Latin.

Spokane, Wash., Oct. 13.—Twenty-five Indian children from Kamiah came in a body to the township school at Fort Lapwai, Idaho, and were enrolled in a body. An Indian girl who entered school three weeks after school opened leads the class in Latin, and teachers say Indians show wonderful progress in the dead language. With five pianos in school a splendid music course is offered.

Hawaii May Open Lands.

Honolulu, Oct. 13.—Governor Walter Frear is considering the calling of a special session of the territorial legislature, to take up the question of amendments to the land laws to be urged upon congress at its next meeting. Governor Frear will start for Washington next month on this mission and desires that the legislature take action before he starts.

Active Bid for Mail Tonnage.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 14.—By reducing the running time between St. Paul and Pacific Coast points, the Great Northern is making a strong bid for all mail tonnage. By a new schedule the running time on fast mail and express trains has been reduced eight hours to all points in Washington on the Great Northern.

Canada Will Build Navy.

Ottawa, Oct. 11.—It is understood that the Canadian government's bill respecting naval defense to be brought before the coming session of parliament, will provide for a total expenditure of about $20,000,000 during the next six or seven years.

Salem—Governor Benson has received an invitation from the mayor and council of El Paso, Texas, to attend the reception to be given in El Paso on October 16 to President Diaz of Mexico, and President Taft.

The Dalles—The survey of the state Portage road from the big eddy to The Dalles has been completed by the state engineers and this city must issue $10,000 worth of bonds to insure the construction of the extension. The last legislature appropriated $75,000 to build the extension.
