NAVY'S BAN ON PETS OFF

Animals to Return to Ships—Admiral Denies Goat Story

Norfolk, Va.—The goats, monkeys, cats, dogs, parrots and other pets aboard Uncle Sam's fighting ships at the Norfolk Navy-Yard, which were banished a few days ago, when report said, Rear-Admiral Doyle was butted by a goat on the quarter-deck of the battleship New Hampshire, will be restored to the jacks. There is joy in the fleet again.

Assistant Secretary Winthrop, of the navy department, let it be known the department did not approve their summary removal.

Admiral Doyle indignantly denied that the goat had butted him. He announced he had ordered the removal of the pets because medical officers thought they might have something to do with cerebro-spinal meningitis and messes at the marine barracks.
