When a band of Blackfoot Indians from Glacier National Park established their tepee village upon the roof of the McAlpin hotel, 34th St. and Broadway, New York City, Manager Boomer of course had to have them register. The braves were unable to write their names only in the picture language of the redman. This they did after James Shoemaker, who had the Indians in charge, explained to them that they could not pitch their tepees upon the roof top until they signed their names. This unique village of tepees was the first ever pitched upon the roof tops of New York City. They were in fact the first tepees pitched on Manhattan Island in 140 years, according to the records of the American Historical society. The Indians spent two weeks in New York as the guests of Louis W. Hill, chairman of the board of directors of the Great Northern Ry. who took them to New York to attend the Travel and Vacation show, as representatives of Glacier National Park, which was presented in this show with a miniature reproduction of Uncle Sam's newest playground.

SUFFRAGE PARADE IN NEW YORK CITY

New York.—Thirty thousand women participated here Saturday afternoon in the biggest suffrage parade in New York's history. Incidentally they applied the "You don't count" treatment to mere man in real frapped form.

Just before the parade started at 3 o'clock this order was issued: "Now," the marchers were told, "forget for a couple of hours that such a creature as man ever existed. He don't matter today. Keep your eyes to the front and shoulders erect and don't even nod to your mother." The marchers obeyed instructions.

This order was given, the leaders said, to impress spectators with the marchers' determination. Twenty-four handsome girls on horseback, headed by Miss Inez Millholland, headed the marchers. They kept the step to the music of 35 bands. Behind the horsewomen followed the members of the National American Woman's Suffrage association, representatives from suffrage states and from the territory of Alaska, the Women's Political union, "General" Rosalie Jones' "Army of the Hudson" and numerous other women's organizations.

CHARTER WINS IN PORTLAND

Light Vote Is Cast, 35,000 of 73,000 Registered Voting

Portland.—With the women of Portland casting their first ballots in this city, a commission form of government was adopted by a close vote. With the count complete, the charter carried by 17,064 to 16,842, a majority of 222 votes. A. G. Rushlight was overwhelmingly renominated for mayor on the republican ticket and H. R. Albee was nominated by the progressive party.

One of the big surprises of the day was the light vote, not to exceed 47 per cent of those registered being found at the polls within the day. It had been thought that a large vote would be cast, but there were about 35,000 out of a total registered vote of 73,000.

Hindu Is Eligible as Citizen.

Spokane.—An interesting sidelight on the anti-alien land legislation in California came here when Akhay Kumar Mozundar, a philosopher and native of Calcutta, India, attained the distinction of being the first Hindu ever to become an American citizen. Although courts heretofore have held Hindus ineligible to citizenship, United States District Judge Frank H. Rudkin granted the application of the Hindu for naturalization papers.
