NEWS OF GENERAL INTEREST IN IDAHO

Important Occurrences Of The Past Week From Cities In Our State

Asks That Marriage Be Called Off.

Wallace.—William F. Dunlap has just filed an application in the district court seeking to have his marriage with Laura Dunlap, wife number two, declared null and void. The petition states that at the time of the marriage Dunlap had a former wife living.

Dunlap's double blessedness arose from the fact that he took the word of a friend and failed to investigate for himself. Wife number one resided in Spokane and made application for a divorce. Dunlap made inquiries of a friend who told him that the divorce proceedings were scheduled to be tried the next day. Not desiring to make any defense, Dunlap presumed that he had been made a single man and soon after married again. Later he learned that the divorce proceedings in Spokane had been postponed. His second wife learned of this and she packed up her belongings and left for parts unknown. In the meantime the divorce has been granted to the first wife.

BARNEY O'NEIL IS LOSER

New Trial Denied Idaho Banker, Recently Convicted.

Coeur d'Alene.—Barney O'Neil, who recently was found guilty of having rendered a false report of the condition of the State Bank of Wallace, was denied a new trial by Judge Dunn. O'Neil's attorney gave notice of appeal.

O'Neil was president of the bank. He has been prominent in the affairs of Idaho. He opposed unsuccessfully the present United States Senator Brady for the Republican gubernatorial nomination in 1910.

Giant Sturgeon at Bonners Ferry.

Bonners Ferry.—The largest sturgeon ever seen in the Kootenai valley was captured by Clarence Fry. Mr. Fry has a set line in the river at this time of the year and frequently catches large fish. The last time he went to pull in his line he found a sturgeon nine feet long on the line and with the help of two men he landed the fish and had it weighed. The monster balanced the scales at 329 pounds.

Retailers Only Are Affected.

Lewiston.—The new liquor law passed by the recent legislature and affecting all druggists has gone into effect. Under this law retail druggists can only carry 50 gallons of liquor in stock. C. F. Osmer, proprietor of the Idaho Drug company, which does a wholesale and retail business, is in receipt of an opinion from the attorney general of the state of Idaho which explains that the law only affects retail stores, wholesalers not being affected.

GOVERNORS WILL ATTEND

Executives of 14 States to Join Boise Good Roads Convention.

Boise.—The governors in attendance at the Western Governors' Association conference to be held in Salt Lake the first week in June will, following the close of their conference, speed to Boise on a special train to attend the Inter-Mountain Good Roads convention which opens in this city on June 10.

Because the chief executives of 14 states expressed a desire to be in attendance at the convention of the Inter-Mountain Good Roads Association a change was made in the date for the meeting of the Western Governors' Association from the second to the first week in June.

While the greater part of the week of the good roads convention will be devoted to the discussion of good road matters, entertainment of the visitors will not be forgotten. They will be given a special trip to the site of the great Arrow Rock dam, the highest in the world, shown the orchards of the Boise valley, taken on a trip around the electric loop that now connects Boise, Nampa and Caldwell as well as intermediate smaller towns, plunged in the big natural hot water dip at the Natatorium, Idaho's famous resort, dined and maybe wined.

High Water Now at Kellogg.

Kellogg.—The Coeur d'Alene river has broken the record for this year and it is now above the flood stage of a month ago. The warm wind is cutting into the snow in the hills and a further rise is expected. A careful watch is being kept to prevent the Sunnyside bridge from going out. No deliveries of fuel or other bulky articles can now be made in Sunnyside, packages which can be carried in the hand being all that can be taken across the river.

George A. Bush, age 45, a rancher near Caldwell, was found dead in bed. He lived alone. Excessive drinking of hard cider is given as the cause, as he took to the ranch five gallons of it and less than a pint was left.

NEWS FROM OUR NATIONAL CAPITAL

Tariff Fight Has Shifted to Senate, but Final Vote Unlikely Before August.

Washington.—The tariff fight has shifted from the house, with its overwhelming Democratic majority, to the senate, where the party's slim majority of six already has been reduced, as far as the bill is concerned, to four. Unless senators familiar with the progress of such legislation are mistaken, there is now little prospect of a final vote on the bill before August 1.

The bill's passage through the senate will be fought at every step by Republicans. Leaders of the Democrats on the senate finance committee, which will handle the bill, expressed the belief that it would go through in practically the same form as it passed the house, and that their small majority would stand firm to the last. Democratic leaders acknowledge that the two senators from Louisiana will not accept the sugar schedule, and that they might be willing to combine with others to defeat the whole bill.

Five Democrats Vote Against Bill.

The Underwood tariff bill was passed in the house by a vote of 281 to 139. Five Democrats voted against the bill and two Republicans for it. Representative Bryan, of Washington, Progressive, was the only representative in congress from the Pacific northwest to vote for the bill. The solid delegation from Oregon and Idaho voted against the bill, as did the four other members from Washington.

The Republicans who voted for the bill were Cary and Stafford, of Wisconsin. Democrats who opposed it were Broussard, Dupre, Lazare and Morgan, of Louisiana, and C. B. Smith, of New York. Progressives who voted for the bill were Kelly and Rupley, of Pennsylvania; Nolan, of California, Kent, of California, formerly a Republican, but now an Independent Progressive, also voted for the bill. Progressive Leader Murdock and 13 of his Progressive followers voted with the minority in the final consideration of the measure.

Competition Open in 50,000 Offices.

All fourth class postmasterships except those paying less than $1800 a year were thrown open to competition by an executive order issued by President Wilson. These positions are retained in the classified section, but about 50,000 incumbents who were "covered in" into the classified service by executive orders of previous administrations, will have to meet all comers in competitive examinations in order to hold their positions with civil service protection.

Postmaster Limit Is Set.

Fourth-class postmasters must be able to read, to count accurately the money they receive, to measure the oil cloth on the floors of their offices and to write at least a decipherable letter once in a while, in order to be taken under the wing of the civil service. In effect, they must have a reasonable understanding of "readin', writin' and 'rithmetic," according to instructions by post-office department.

Persons to take the examination must be citizens of the United States, over 21 years old, and must reside in the community they aspire to serve. No one must be crazy, intemperate, dishonest or have been dishonorably discharged from the army or navy.

Farm and Labor Unions Not Exempt.

By a vote of 41 to 32, the senate refused to accept an amendment to the sundry civil service bill by Senator Gallinger striking out a clause exempting labor and farmers' organizations from prosecution under the anti-trust law with funds appropriated by the bill. Three Republican senators, Jones, La Follette and Norris, voted with the Democrats against the Gallinger amendment and two Democrats, Pomerehne and Thomas, joined the Republicans in supporting it. The bill itself, carrying about $117,000,000, finally was passed by a viva voce vote with only one minor committee amendment.

National Capital Brevities

In a message received at the state department at Washington from the American legation at Peking, the gratitude of the Chinese people over the recognition of their republic by the United States was described.

The democratic congressional committee has consented to President Wilson's proposal for postponement of permanent reorganization, pending conferences to consider an increase of the representation of senators on the committee.

Charles C. Glover, the Washington banker who recently attacked Representative Sims, of Tennessee, for a speech delivered in the house at Washington, was brought before the house and reprimanded by Speaker Clark for violation of its privileges.

John Purroy Mitchell, independent democrat and president of the board of aldermen of New York city, was nominated by President Wilson to be collector of the Port of New York to succeed William Loeb, Jr.
