WOMAN'S CLUB HOLD LAST REGULAR MEETING OF YEAR

The Ontario Woman's club held its last regular meeting for the year on Thursday, May 15, at the home of Mrs. Pogue. It was Pioneer day and after the business meeting the club members listened to interesting reminiscences of early days in eastern Oregon, before Ontario existed. Mrs. C. W. Mallett told in her charming manner of her trip in covered wagon and four horses from Nebraska, a distance of 500 miles, of their first Thanksgiving dinner in Oregon and of the beginnings of the Nevada ditch.

Mrs. Jacob Stroup told of her experiences in Idaho, just across the river, with Indians and made one feel that the loneliness and isolation of living in these sagebrush lands were as nothing compared with the terror of the Indians and the dread of an uprising. These stories of actual experiences were supplemented by Mrs. Fraser and Mrs. Kerfoot with tales their fathers and mothers had told them and Mrs. Pogue added some of the doctor's thrilling experiences in driving over the country. The afternoon was much enjoyed by all.
