

Ontario Pharmacy

Special this Week
Floating Castile Soap
 2-lb. Bar 35c

Rexall Remedies
Eastman Kodaks

Local Items

Mr. and Mrs. John Boswell were here Saturday from their home in the Big Bend. They were on their way to Portland to attend the Masonic Grand Lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lawrence of Vale were here Friday calling on friends.

Miss Irene Gould of Weiser was a visitor here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Allen of Boise and Mr. and Mrs. Bowerman of St. Anthony were visitors here Friday. They had been to the bankers' convention at Weiser.

George W. Thomas was here Saturday from Long Beach, Cal. He reports quite a colony there of people who formerly resided here and they are making good.

Saturday was an especially busy day for the merchants, the farmers being in for supplies.

The rains the fore part of the week did more harm to the irrigated crops than they did good to the dry farmers. Many have their hay down, having cut early in preparation for a seed crop.

Hugh McDonald was a visitor from Nyssa Monday.

The Portland cattle market was off last week, but it is expected to soon be back at top prices there was an unusual run caused by the high water around Portland.

Improved plans for marketing the fruit crops of the principal northwestern districts have just been completed by the North Pacific Fruit Distributors association and are expected to be of benefit to the fruit growers throughout the northwestern group of states. Good arrangements for marketing have been lacking and it is thought the scheme just perfected will supply the need. Two car loads shipped from Payette recently brought good prices.

L. J. Chapman is now in charge of the Idaho Falls telephone office and his many friends will be glad to hear of his advancement.

Mrs. Fred Simons and children are visiting in Boise Valley this week.

Walter Martin and friends were here Saturday and arranged for the New Plymouth band and their friends to attend the celebration of the Fourth here.

M. E. Sharp was a visitor from Nyssa Friday.

LOCAL ITEMS

A. A. Wright made a run from Boise to Vale in one of his Fords in two hours and forty minutes, a distance of 76 miles. He was accompanied by Drs. Hoople and Bartlett. That is certainly going some, considering the roads.

The sheriff came down from Vale Saturday with three candidates for the sanitarium at Pendleton. Charles Fields of Malheur, who has been considered erratic for several years. William Derrick of Malheur, who tried to kill his wife some time ago and James Cameron, who has been a county charge for years and has recently lost his mind. There was another in the jail at Vale waiting to be examined.

Homer H. Shute, of Payette, is the only graduate from the Corvallis College this year from this section.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashford and son, of Seattle, were guests of Dr. Goldsberry this week. Mr. Ashford is the engineer in charge of the Bully Creek irrigation project. They were accompanied by Mrs. Boardman, of Nevada, Iowa.

Don Platt came down from Parma to see the folks and some other people over Sunday. Don says he likes the new location very much.

John Gordan was an interested spectator at the wool sale here on Monday. He has wool at Vale.

"The High Standard of Practical Morality." will be the subject from which Rev. Johns of the Methodist church, will take his sermon next Sunday morning. Mrs. Byrd Schultz Cotter will sing at this service.

O. Nicely made a trip to Shoshone in his car this week, making the two hundred miles in about eight hours.

There will be a series of temperance meetings held here and the official who was reeling around the streets on the evening of the fourth will, no doubt, be picked out as a shining example of what some persons try to do with booze. It is the abuse of liquor that causes the agitation for prohibition.

The time to advertise is when you want more business.

Mrs. Walter Glenn and son have gone to the ranch above Vale for an outing. Mr. Glenn came down for them.

Local News

H. J. Ward and son were here from Nyssa.

A. G. Morey, the Owyhee rancher was here Saturday and says there is going to be a big fruit crop in his section, and that many of the ranchers are going to raise alfalfa seed this year. Some of the grain might be better.

Judge Brown was down from the ranch to see how the Weiser fellows did it.

James Duncan attended the ditch meeting here Saturday. John Ray and John Ward were here also from Nyssa.

E. A. Goddard, the man who deals in wet goods, has the agency for Rainier beer for this section and is serving it over the bar. The beer is considered the nearest to Budweiser of any beer made and it is having quite a run here. Mr. Goddard is prepared to sell this in any quantity, cases of two dozen, large size, $3.50, with an allowance of 50 cents when case and bottles are returned, or three bottles for half a dollar. Have you tried it yet? (pd. adv.)

Miss Mae Estelle Sage, who taught in the schools here last year, was married in Boise at the Methodist church, June 6, to Harry Daizell. They will make their home in Chicago, where the groom is secretary of a church club.

Sprague Adams and Earl Thompson made a trip to Cambridge in the Adams car this week and then took the train to the lakes.

The Ford Auto Company received another car load of Ford touring cars this week. They have sold 28 cars this season and expect to sell many more.

Henry Grifflip is in Portland for the rose show.

Mrs. Hoffman of Juntura has returned home after a pleasant visit with Mrs. J. S. Jones.

A. Storkman has arranged to move to Lakeview, his old home.

Bill Bontrop has been here a few days from Walla Walla, visiting his family.

George Hardman is home from school for the summer.

Miss Effie Orcutt met with a very painful accident Tuesday evening by slipping and wrenching her ankle. The injury is very painful but it is thought there are no broken bones.

Harry Looney, who was a resident here a few years ago, stopped here over Sunday and helped the base ball boys out. He is now located at Jordan Valley.

Come and bring your husband and friends to the Silver Tea at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. McNulty on Wednesday evening, June 18 from 5 till 9 p. m. Everyone cordially invited.

Miss Agnes Carter, who has been attending school at Moscow, is here visiting her sister, Mrs. Gertrude Grove.

J. R. Blackaby made a business trip to Council, Idaho, this week.

There is a new law governing the running of cattle in the city. A poundmaster has been appointed and he will take up any stock found running at large.

SCHOOL ELECTION ON MONDAY

The annual school meeting will be held Monday at which time there will be one director and a clerk to elect. The retiring director is Mr. Magill and the present clerk is Mr. Platt.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS

Paid Advertisements:

Money to loan Improved irrigated farms. W. H. Doolittle Co.

Drayage orders taken at Mooge Hotel John Landingham, residence phone 424

Three lots for sale 2 blocks west of postoffice at a bargain. Inquire at Argus office.

Two furnished rooms for rent. Private family. E. Cope, tailor.

The ice cream served at the Ontario Bakery is always just right.

Barley for sale, $1.25 per hundred by C. E. Reese, Ontario.

If you appreciate a dish of rich, smooth ice cream try the Ontario Bakery.

The best of moving pictures at the Maze. Admission 10 cents.

Entire change of program every night at the Maze.

For Sale—Corn popper, cheap for cash or will trade. J. N. McManis, New Plymouth, Idaho.

Old papers at the Argus office—25 cents per hundred. Just what you need to line your cabins and place under the carpet.

$100 reward will be paid for the recovery of a sorrel gelding, six years old, branded YP S on left shoulder E M on left hip, two white hind feet, white front foot, stripe in forehead Ewen M. Lennan, Shaniko, Ore.

Always on the Job

If you have a job of hauling you want done, large or small, you can always depend on John Landingham being ready for you. Call him at the Moore Hotel.

For Trade

Two story brick building in good town, to trade for irrigated land. Also good stock of merchandise in building, will trade with building or separately.

Address Realty Exchange.

Proposal for Sealed Bids

Sealed bids will be received, addressed to Mrs. E. M. Greig, Ontario, Oregon, up to the hour of 2 o'clock, p. m. June 30, 1913, and then opened, for the furnishing of all materials for the construction of a library building in Ontario, Oregon.

Separate bids are required for the general contract and for the heating and plumbing of said building. Each bid must be accompanied by a certified check for 5 per cent of the amount of the bid and payable to E. M. Greig. All bids to be in accordance with plans and specifications on file with and obtainable of H. B. Grauel, Ontario, Oregon.

The House Comes Down

in raptures of genuine applause at every performance of our moving picture entertainment. We are putting on a constant change of that are amusing, instructive and highly interesting, and young and old derive delight from them.

Most Attractive Pictures

Dreamland Theatre

Silk Ratine Dress

Just Received in Blue, Tan and Nell
 Rose at Lampkin's

White Ratine and Linen Crash
 Dresses at $3.98 and $4.98

New Balkan Blouse at $1.50

Boy's Wash Suits at 65c, 85c, $1.25

Girls' Middy Suits, trimmed in red and blue $1.35

Long Kimonas 69c and $1.00

W. T. Lampkin

Butter Wrappers

Must Be Printed

We are printing more wrappers than any other two offices in this section. There is a reason. We have the machinery, type and workmen necessary and we take the same care with Butter wrappers that we do with wedding invitations.

Take your next order of Butter Wrappers to the Argus Office is the greatest of modern-time helps to perfect cake and biscuit making. Makes home baking pleasant and profitable. It renders the food more digestible and guarantees it safe from alum and all adulterants.

ROYAL Baking Powder

COLUMBIA

Graphophones
 Grafonolas

"No one thing will give so much pleasure, to so many people, for so long a time at so little cost."

DOUBLE DISC RECORDS

Bermele's Drug Store

The Argus and 5 Other High Class Publications for only $1.50