THE FOURTH TO BE GREAT DAY IN ONTARIO

Many Merchants to Have Floats

Committees Busy and Are Determined to Show Visitors a Good Time with a Well Arranged Program.

The several committees in charge of the arrangements for the Fourth of July are giving the best possible attention to their work in the belief that they are going to give the people of the province a great Fourth of July. The parades are to be a great success. The floats will be well arranged and the streets will be made up into a great festival atmosphere.

Wednesday is the last day that the floats can be erected. The committees are busy with their work and are determined to give the people of the province a great Fourth of July.

Wool Market Unusually Active and Prices Good

A Number of Sales Have Been Made This Week and Shipments Averaged About Two Thousand Pounds Daily—Ten Additional Clips Will Soon Be Completed and Ready for the Market.

The situation in the wool market is very different from what was anticipated, as usually after the first two days the market is very quiet for some time; but for the last six or eight days there has been a very active and a good many clips of wool have been sold at competitive prices. The market has been controlled with a great deal of steadiness and is now the most active it has been for several years. The prices are advancing very fast and the market is in a position to make a good start and to gain advantages to ship to this market.

Federal Attorney Sends Resignation

Charges United States Attorney General with Interfering in Julius Mandel Case

In San Francisco, Calif.—In sensational developments in the Strauss-Mandel affair, Attorney General A. A. Berle has sent a demand to President Wilson that the latter resign his post as Attorney General, alleging that his peremptory efforts to stop the trial of Julius Mandel are a violation of the law and a threat to national safety.

The demand was met by a formal protest from President Wilson, who said that the Attorney General's action was a violation of the law and a threat to national security.

The case of Julius Mandel, a German anarchist, has been of great interest to the United States and to the world. It is claimed that Mandel is a dangerous criminal and that he should be deported.

Railroads of Interest to This Section

Pin Road Being Remodeled and General Status of Other Lines.

The New Madison people have started to rebuild the Pin road and economic operation is being made.

The grade is being restored and improved for the betterment of the road. The work is being done by the Madison Road Construction Company, which is under the control of the Madison Road Company.

Over in Breckinridge there has been a great deal of work done on the road in the last few weeks. It is claimed that the road is now in better condition than ever before.

In the west of the state there are a number of small and neglected roads which need to be repaired. It is claimed that the road is now in better condition than ever before.

The New Madison people have started to rebuild the Pin road and economic operation is being made.

The grade is being restored and improved for the betterment of the road. The work is being done by the Madison Road Construction Company, which is under the control of the Madison Road Company.

Garvin has shipped a carload of hay to the city this week. The hay is in excellent condition and is being delivered at the rate of $1.50 per ton.

Cornellink plus Buys a Farm Near This City

Cornelliink plus has purchased a farm near this city. The farm is located on the outskirts of the city and is in excellent condition.

The farm is being used for raising corn and hay. The corn is in excellent condition and is being harvested at the rate of $1.50 per ton.

Cold Storage Plant Now in Operation

Malheur Co. Fair to Be Improved

Will Cover Every Part of County

A Big Variety of Amusements Also Being Planned By Fair Managers—Some Novel Features.

The managers of the Malheur county fair are determined that all departments of the fair will be operated with the best possible results. They have arranged for a large number of attractions and are determined to give the people of the county a great fair.

The managers will be in charge of the fair and will see that everything is done to make the fair a success.