Told by London's Bishop.

The bishop of London told the following story to illustrate the difficulty sometimes met with by missionaries among the working class. "A curate goes to a house," he said, "and knocks timidly at the door. He hears a voice shout, 'Who's there, Sally?' and Sally replies, 'Please, mother, it is 'religion.'"

W. T. LAMPKIN HAS SUCCESSFUL SALE

Enterprising Merchant Reports Recent Sale the "Best Ever"

"The most successful sale we ever held" is the way Lampkin describes his present mid summer offering. When a merchant has been in business a few years and the people flock to his store in greater numbers each year, there is a reason. He must be treating those people right, has gained their confidence and his methods of doing business are such that he holds them.

Lampkin has a story for the readers of the Argus almost every week in the year and these stories are full of store news. When he has something special to offer and makes the announcement, the people know that they will find special bargains, because he has always made good with what he advertised. This sale includes everything in the store and is for the purpose of greatly reducing the entire stock, some lines are being closed out and the prices are so low that the people are buying for future needs. The stock is clean, no out of date stuff, as all goods are cleaned up each season at the annual sales.

The time to buy is when the other fellow is anxious to sell.—adv.

FURNITURE STOCK IS TO BE GREATLY SLAUGHTERED

Wm. McBratney, who has a stock of furniture in the old Rader location is going to close it out at cost and less. There are real bargains for somebody. All the stock is good and in first class condition. If you will investigate these prices being given by him you will find you can save 50 to 75 per cent of what you will pay other furniture dealers. These goods are moving fast so you will have to call at once to get the choice of things. He has just one $40 high grade sewing machine left which goes for $20 cash. Good dining chairs for 95c each, common kitchen chairs for 60c each. A few Ostermoor mattresses that sell as high as $22.50 go at $12.00 each while they last. This stock must all be sold at once.—adv.

HARDWARE DISCOUNTED

McBratney-McNulty Company's Stock Goes at a Discount until Aug. 2
