BRIEF NEWS OF OREGON

William T. Andrew has been appointed logging engineer in the forest service at Portland at $2500 a year.

The Oregon supreme court has decided that the Day bill, calling a special referendum election for next November, is constitutional.

According to a La Grande ordinance recently passed every citizen has a right to kill a dog found running at large without a muzzle.

The farmers of McCoy have organized a Farmers' Society of Equity with a large membership. Its object is the systematic marketing of farm products, and J. P. Sears is president.

In Oregon approximately 75,000 acres have been restored as non-oil-bearing lands and about 12,000 acres were withdrawn for waterpower or reservoir sites.

No dogs from Oregon will be permitted to be brought into the state of Washington until the quarantine established by the Washington state veterinarian is raised.

Probably $1500 will be added to the annual budget of the University of Oregon because of the new eight-hour law in Oregon, which forbids laborers for the state working more than the specified maximum.

The desert land board has approved the plans of Project Engineer O. Lauergaard for the main feed canal of the Tumalo project, which will be about seven miles long. Construction can be commenced immediately.

Scarlet coats will be worn by all Oregon hunters in future as a precaution against accidental shooting, if the recommendations of William L. Finley, state game warden, are carried out.

Medford business men are planning with Rev. H. W. McCullough of the Baptist church to establish a university in that city, with courses in horticulture, law, medicine, and liberal arts.

The following nominations of Oregon postmasters have been made by the president: Marshall W. Malone, Linnton; J. W. Boone, Prineville; Iva E. Dodd, St. Helens. He has also nominated L. E. Pinkham of Hawaii to be governor of Hawaii.

Mrs. G. H. Eddy and Mrs. August Kauek, residing in the northern part of Josephine county, were struck by a bolt of lightning and instantly killed while removing clothes from a clothes line. The women were recent arrivals from Ohio, and their husbands are officers of the Ohio-Oregon Land & Power company.

It is announced from Salem that several Oregon counties are preparing to take advantage of the good roads legislation passed by the last Oregon legislature, and that the services of H. L. Bowlby, state highway engineer, are in demand.

Charles Jamieson of Bandon, who owned a placer gold mine on the Sixes river in Curry county, has sold the property for $30,000. The purchasers were men from Minnesota who have put 50 men at work developing the mine.

Salmon fishing on the lower Rogue river has been more extensive this season than ever before. This is the first season the river has been open to commercial fishing for several years and there are several firms buying and packing the fish.

Senator Lane has introduced a bill in the senate providing that farmers or fruitgrowers may manufacture denatured alcohol from their surplus farm products without the payment of a tax, by making monthly reports to internal revenue officials.

Petitions have been filed at Oregon City asking for a recall election against County Judge Beattie and County Commissioner Blair, who are accused of negligence and of failing to account for county funds. Over 1700 voters signed both petitions.

The Oregon supreme court has confirmed the lower court for Jackson county in sentencing Mike Spanos and Frank Seymour to death for murder in the first degree. Efforts were made to show that the confessions had been extorted from the men by "third degree" methods.

Mrs. Louise Hollenbeck was killed by a live wire in the basement of the Hotel Enterprise at Enterprise, which her father conducts. It is presumed that in taking down an electric lamp in order to change a globe her hand came in contact with a wire from which the insulation had worn, and that death resulted instantly. Her body was found by her father an hour after she had entered the basement.

Indians on the Klamath reservation have petitioned the secretary of the interior to take steps to amend the Indian appropriation bill authorizing the construction of the Modoc project so the cost shall be reimbursed only by persons whose lands lie under the project.

Spoiling a Compliment.
Jason—I tried to pay the new woman a compliment last night in my speech, but it didn't seem to be appreciated. Ragson—What did you say? Jason—I said that the new woman would leave large footprints on the sands of time—London Answers.
