NEWS OF GENERAL INTEREST IN IDAHO

Important Occurrences Of The Past Week From Cities In Our State

Football Material at Moscow Good.
Moscow.—The new athletic field will not be completed by the opening of the University of Idaho September 15, but one corner of it will be leveled off and made ready for the first practice according to Coach "Pink" Griffith. The grading will be completed in time for the Idaho-Washington state college game on October 17.

There will be only two conference games on the home field this fall, one with Washington state college on October 17 and the other with Whitman on November 11. Thus far but one practice game has been arranged that being with Gonzaga University at Spokane October 11. Graduate Manager Larson is, however, endeavoring to arrange a practice game with the Lewiston normal to be played October 5.

This year will be the first time that Idaho has ever met the Oregon agricultural college team. The Oregon agricultural college game being the first one ever arranged between these institutions and the last game of the season promises to stir up the dopesters all over the country.

Road Commission Meets.
Shoshone.—The Boise-Yellowstone road commission held its first formal meeting here and organized by electing ex-Senator Fred W. Gooding chairman, and John Thomas of Gooding, secretary. The members present were Fred W. Gooding of Shoshone, John Thomas of Gooding, J. W. Briggs of Mountainhome, Dr. Walter E. Patrie of Blackfoot, DeWitt C. Olsen, Idaho Falls. It was decided by resolution that D. C. Olsen of Idaho Falls should act with the commission as a committee to fix the exact route of the highway through districts in which the commissioners reside.

INDIANS SWEAR ALLEGIANCE

Council of Braves Held at Lapwai Agency Preceding Official Ceremony
Lewiston.—The Rodman Wanamaker expedition of citizenship to North American Indians, under the leadership of Dr. Joseph Kosuth Dixon, of Philadelphia, reached Lapwai and the interesting ceremonies of the expedition took place in the presence of a large company of Indians and whites on the grounds adjoining the office of Superintendent Theodore Sharpe.

Preceding Dr. Nixon's programme a council of the Nez Percés took place under the spreading shade of the agency trees, in the course of which a full explanation of the plans of Dr. Dixon was given and the matter discussed by leading Indians. The result of this council was an unanimous decision to take part in the programme of the expedition and accept the proposition for allegiance to the United States government as set forth by the leader of the party.

New St. Maries Attractions.
St. Maries.—Several new attractions have been added to the program of the St. Maries fair. A carnival company has been engaged. A round-up will also be an attraction. A ball game between the single and married men, and one between the St. Maries business men and farmers will be played.

Sommers and Thessis have been engaged to conduct the roundup. The fair building is nearing completion, and the fair has prospects of being one of the largest ever held in the county.

Shoshone Heads Name Officers.
Wallace.—On petition of the residents of Mullan No. 1 precinct, F. H. Northrup was appointed constable by the county commissioners, Fred W. Kuhlman was appointed a justice of the peace at Avery on petition of the residents of that district. A petition of the residents of Avery for the construction of a jail was considered and plans and estimates were ordered drawn, to be passed on by the board.

Struck by Log, Breaks Back.
St. Maries.—Chester Yoe was struck by a log at Bransen's camp near here and sustained a broken back. He is here in the emergency hospital, crippled for life. He is nearly completely paralyzed, and is unable to move hand or foot.

Caldwell Potatoes Bring Big Price.
Caldwell.—Thirty-five carloads of new potatoes were shipped from Caldwell during the month of August. They were consigned at prices ranging from 80 cents to $1 per hundred, subject to market changes at their destinations.

K. of P. Lodge to Build.
Sandpoint.—At a meeting of Helmet lodge No. 32, Knights of Pythias, it was decided to proceed at once with the erection of the long-contemplated lodge building.

St. Louis hotels now employ only negro waiters.
Rents in Hongkong have advanced 25 per cent since the Chinese revolution.
New Orleans refuses to employ married women as public school teachers.
Duluth has put into service a combination automobile patrol and emergency ambulance.
Chicago health board offers free typhoid fever serum inoculation to 1,000 citizens to popularize the idea.

"Treaty tree," twenty feet in circumference, near Tarrytown, N. Y., famous in history, has just died.
Draining the Zuider Zee of Holland will be undertaken in parts. The first dam will reclaim 500,000 acres.
According to the Canadian Forestry association, 50 per cent of Canada is capable of growing nothing but timber crops.
The old cathedral of St. Louis, New Orleans, has been closed as unsafe, owing to the sinking of the east wall. It was built in 1721.

Known as the kleptograph, a burglar alarm invented by an Italian ignites a flashlight and photographs the intruder who invades the room in which it is set.
Dogwood, the principal source of shuffles for use in cotton mills, is growing scarcer year by year, and various substitutes are being tried, but with no great success.
One of the German navy's dirigible balloons is being fitted with a 40,000 candle power searchlight, capable of illuminating the surface of the sea from a height of 5,000 feet.

Missing his mistress when she came out, a Boston dog waited forty-eight hours at a church door for her appearance and could only be induced to leave when she came after him.
For testing the germinating qualities of seeds quickly an Iowa man has patented a cabinet something like an incubator, warm moisture rising through the walls and dropping on the seed trays.
An ultra modern German institution, the purpose of which is to counteract the evil of haste in the modern business world, is the "slumber saloon," where sixty bunks for noonday naps are provided.

The chief industries of northern Rhodesia are cattle ranching, general farming, tobacco and cotton raising. Citrus fruits also do well. Up to the present there has been but little mineral development.
The integrity of afternoon tea in England has been threatened by some macropulous members of the house of commons, who have ordered steaks and heavy food at the hour when the coma of tea should hold its own.
A machine has been perfected which pours any dry powder into a paper bag, folds the bag, makes a paper box and places bag and a folded circular within it, pastes on a label and seals the box at a rate of 1,500 boxes an hour.

To aid a policeman in controlling a prisoner a Philadelphian has patented wires with electrodes in the palms which send a powerful current through an unruly man from a storage battery forming a part of the policeman's equipment.
An automatic fire alarm and extinguisher invented in Germany employs a thermostat to ring a bell and liberate large quantities of carbonic acid gas in a room in which it is stored when the temperature rises above the danger point.
A bride's dressing room is to be provided at a church in Madison avenue, New York. The organ loft over the church entrance will be removed, and in its place a beautifully equipped room will be built. Here the bride will be able to put the finishing touches to her attire after the drive to the church.

The coke industry in the United States has now reached in good years the $100,000,000 mark, and, moreover, there is a steadily growing increase in the proportion of coke made in by-products retort ovens whereby the valuable byproducts of gas, tar, ammonia, etc., are saved to the value of tens of millions of dollars annually.
A life buoy for aerial navigation has been invented by a Nova Scotia man. The parachute is folded in a horizontal position on the tail of the flying machine and attached to the aviator's harness. It is folded by straps connected to electromagnetic releases and on the pressure of a button will open and lift the aviator out of his seat.

The new Chinese dictionary published recently at Shanghai represents five years' labor of many of China's greatest scholars and supercedes as the standard the famous dictionary published in 1716 by the authority of the emperor Kianghsi. Many scientific words are included in the new dictionary, and many obsolete characters have been dropped.
Alfred Austin, the late poet laureate, is lucky in his work as a journalist. In many years he did his daily task home with the assistance of a telephone wire run into his study sixty miles from the London Standard office. His instructions came over the wire, and his editorial article went to the printer by train. Sometimes he would telegraph the whole article.
Venice is confronted by a serious problem. The city is rapidly gaining in population, and so far no place has been found to accommodate the increase. There are now 30,000 inhabitants in Venice in excess of suitable quarters. Among the many plans discussed is the building of new quarters on the Lido island. Another plan contemplates an additional town at the mouth of the Brenta river.
