J. W. Scholes is home from a three weeks trip to Ontario, Canada, and other eastern points where he studied the railroad equipment used. He found the middle west badly scorched and the people there discouraged. He attended a fair at St. Thomas and saw much to please. The development in electric railways in the east is revolutionizing conditions there.

Mr. McBratney of McBratney & McNulty Hardware company, of Ontario, Oregon, was in New Plymouth purchasing goods, stating he could do much better in New Plymouth than elsewhere.—New Plymouth Sentinel. The above is one side of the story. The other side has a moral. Two merchants of our neighboring town got to cutting prices on a certain article and had reached a point that was about half the wholesale cost. Mr. McBratney took in the situation and bought all one of the stores had in stock and when the proprietor found he had one slipped over on him it started him to thinking what kind of a fool he was. He went to his competitor, explained matters and now he is getting a profit on what he sells.

LOCAL NEWS
