W. D. Billingsley, who was a resident of this section for a few years, was here this week from Pocatello, where he is now located. He speaks well of the growth of his new home town, but when it comes to climate and the things that go to make a home town, his heart is still with the Snake river valley.

Chas. Thebaud, who now resides on his ranch near Bliss, Idaho, was here Friday on his way to Vale, where he has business interests.

The Payette papers announce that the Empire Lumber company's yards at that place are first class in every respect and ready for business.

ORGANIZATION IS FAVORED

Co-operation to be Urged During Farmers' Week.

Corvallis.—Farmers' week at the agricultural college this year is December 8 to 13. While it is designed to make the regular courses in farm production as strong and practical as possible within the five days of instruction and demonstration, the keynote of the course will be rural organization and co-operation. This subject will be presented in lectures and lantern courses by Dr. Hector Macpherson, who returned this fall from a tour of 11 European countries as a member of the American commission. Dr. Macpherson procured an instructive collection of photographs while in Europe, and these will be used to illustrate industrial and economic methods among the rural people of the old world.

Economical production, co-operative marketing, close systems of accounting and cheaper credit are the cardinal points in his doctrine of rural economics.

Pender Found Guilty of Murder.

"SIS PERKINS" TO BE AT DREAMLAND TUESDAY NIGHT

There is so much that is good in the rural comedy drama, "Sis Perkins" that no one wonders at the unusual success that has been accorded to the play. Its realistic pictures of country life appeals to all classes, for in it is found comedy and pathos, laughter and tears. It is clean and wholesome, its humor is crisp and quaint and its bits of homely philosophy are remembered and laughed at over and over again.

The presentation of this famous play at Dreamland on Tuesday, December 2, will introduce a carefully selected company and the engagement promises to be a record breaker.

HIS TROUBLE NOT OF HEART

Real Facts in Regard To F. R. Huffman's Illness. Relief Obtained By Curing His Stomach Ailments.

Waynesville, N. C.—Mr. F. R. Huffman, of this city, says: "I suffered dreadfully with what I thought was heart trouble, and tried various medicines in vain.

After other remedies had failed, Thedford's Black-Draught restored me to health. I would not feel safe without Black-Draught in the house. I consider it worth its weight in gold.

It cured my indigestion, and by this means I was restored to health. I can not express my gratitude for its benefits."

Good health depends on the condition of your digestion. Poor digestion and good health do not go together.

Thedford's Black-Draught will thoroughly cleanse and set in order your digestive system.

It has done this for others, during the past 70 years, and is today the most popular vegetable liver remedy on the market. Try it. Insist on Thedford's. Price 25c.
