Brief News of the Week

The Ohio female labor law was declared constitutional by the federal supreme court.

The interstate commerce commission denied the application of railroads for permission to increase freight rates on flour from Kansas, Nebraska and Oklahoma to California from 65 cents to 75 cents.

The United States circuit court of appeals at San Francisco upheld the act of March 4, 1907, prohibiting the railroads from keeping their employees on duty more than 16 hours.

The sum of $26,875,000 was realized from the viticulture products of California last year, $15,000,000 being obtained from wineries and $7,000,000 from table grapes.

The question of whether or not an auto is a common carrier in interstate trade, when not operating over a regular line, was raised in a white slave case at San Francisco.

Germany and France will submit to each other lists of persons who have been convicted of violating the automobile laws in the respective countries.

Requesting that all attempts to extradite Harry Thaw be dropped in order to save the state unnecessary expense, Assemblyman Golden of New York has introduced a resolution in the state legislature.

A special assistant has been named by the district attorney of New York, to prosecute loan sharks and protect persons who get into their clutches. Usurers will be sent to jail instead of fined, if possible.

A dray horse led federal sleuths to the seizure of a large quantity of colored oleomargarine and the arrest of a produce dealer at St. Louis. The dealer's animal, allowed free rein, pulled the wagon two miles and backed it up in front of the suspected man's place of business.

People in the News

The Earl of Minto, ex-governor-general of Canada, and ex-viceroy of India, is dead.

Miss Margaret Wilson, daughter of the president, was the center of attraction at an entertainment and dance at the Commonwealth reception in New York.

Miss Carrie Wells Niles, a telephone operator at Corning, Cal., receiving no answer to calls at the Wells-Fargo station, notified the police. The officers found that the night clerk had been murdered. David Dunn, aged 19, was arrested on suspicion.

Matthew J. McIntyre, who made nearly $1,000,000 raising hogs, left the bulk of his estate to St. Patrick's church in Long Island, signing the document with his mark, as he had never learned to write. The will was admitted to probate over the contest of nine nephews and nieces, in the trial at New York.

Notice of "Clean-Up Day."

To the citizens and property owners of the city of Ontario.
The city council of the city of Ontario, has set Monday, the 9th day of March, 1914, as "Clean-up Day".
You are hereby directed and requested, on or before that date to clean up the premises owned or occupied by you and collect all rubbish such as brush, tin cans, papers, etc., into convenient piles and place the same in the street or alley, where the city wagons can collect the rubbish and remove it.
Your attention is also called to the fact that the health ordinance of the city of Ontario provides that all manure piles and other noxious substances must be removed from the city limits by the property owners at least once a week.
By order of the city council.
Attest: Harry B. Grauel, City Recorder.
A. W. Trow, Mayor.

HERE IS THE CHANCE OF YOUR FELL

if you want to locate near a town that has a very bright future I have 70 acres of the very choicest land, has a nice slope to the east, a first-class water right; 30 acres in alfalfa, rest has been in grain. Not having it all paid for it leaves me unable to take care of that much land. I will sell anywhere from 5 to 70 acres. My price ranges from $150 per acre up. About half cash; good terms on rest at 8 per cent interest. Land exactly the same adjoining has been selling at $200 to $300 per acre, so here is your chance if you want a good tract of land; 2 miles from Ontario, Ore. near Malheur Junction, where car shops and round house will no doubt be built in the near future.

What Cures Eczema?

We have had so many inquiries lately regarding Eczema and other skin diseases, that we are glad to make out answer public. After careful investigation we have found that a simple wash of Oil of Wintergreen, as compounded in D. D. D. Prescription, can be relied upon. We would not make this statement to our patrons, friends and neighbors unless we were sure of it—and although there are many so-called Eczema remedies sold, we ourselves unhesitatingly recommend D. D. D. Prescription. Drop into our store today, just to talk over the merits of this wonderful Prescription.
