

Eastman Kodaks

Ontario Pharmacy

Rexall Remedies

LOCAL NEWS

Judge G. E. Davis, the mayor of Vale, attended the meeting of the irrigation committee here on Saturday.

Mrs. Fox is having a nice cottage erected on the east side by Contractor McLean.

Andy McGregor is hauling lumber for a large addition to his home.

If you will subscribe to the Argus for one year we will send you four monthly magazines for only 18 cents extra.

Charley Carter has been exhibiting a very fine black Percheron here, that he recently picked up in the Boise valley. The animal is as near perfect as you can find.

Bruce Kester, of the Vale land office, was a visitor here on Saturday. He was a delegate from the Vale commercial club.

Go to the city hall today and register while the registering is good.

George Chambers returned home last Saturday from an extended visit with his son in Portland.

Now is the time to lay plans for the silo you are going to build by planting the right kind of crops to fill the silo. It will prove a big money maker for you.

George Thiel has moved from his ranch on Dead Ox Flat to New Plymouth, where he has rented a ranch.

Suits made strictly to order for you as cheap or cheaper than ordinary ready made.—Cope & Dunnuck.

Miss Reid, one of the Payette teachers, was the guest of Miss Stoetzel last Sunday. They were friends at the Nebraska Normal.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Cockrum were visitors to Boise on Saturday.

Dr. and Mrs. Britt were visiting friends at Parma over Sunday.

Have you registered at the city hall?

LOCAL NEWS

The supper given by the high school girls on Saturday evening netted them nearly a hundred dollars and pleased 200 people who patronized it. The rooms were tastefully decorated and the service excellent.

J. H. McDermott, of Portland, who is the general manager for Oregon and Washington of the Standard Oil company, was here last week looking over their local business.

Louis Hurtle is prepared to sharpen your shears for ten cents and guarantees satisfaction.

Tom Drost, who has been living in this section for several years, has gone to Holland to visit with his relatives and later will return to this country.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lawrence were visitors from Vale on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Landis were visitors to Weiser last Sunday.

You can get four splendid magazines one year for 18 cents extra by renewing your subscription to the Argus.

For January 62000 pounds of milk was delivered at the Nyssa cheese factory which was made into 10,776 pounds of cheese. February receipts were a trifle less.

Sam Creem was a Sunday visitor to Vale.

E. L. Phelps, the contractor, returned from Ogden a few days ago and went to Council Monday.

The Hotel Moore will continue to serve Table de Hote dinners Sunday evenings from 5:30 to 8. Dinner 75 cents.

M. Alexander has established a store at Juntura, with Ed Hamilton in charge for the present and Ad Simon is in charge of the Vale store.

Juntura is figuring on a ten thousand dollar school building.

Berr Wood announces the arrival of a boy at his home on the 9th.

Nice line of hair switches at Grove & Riley.

LOCAL NEWS

A. B. Moss, who was the founder of Payette and identified with many of the industries there, died in Boise on Friday after a short illness and was buried on Tuesday.

Elmer Orcutt was up from Weiser Sunday visiting with the family.

T. H. Moore, who has been in Portland for several months, is in the city.

Ladies and gents clothing cleaned in a thorough and workmanlike manner at reasonable price by Cope & Dunnuck.

Ruby Morehead won in the tryout at Nyssa for the county declamatory contest to be held here on the 27th.

The dances at the Moore Hotel every Saturday night, given by the six piece Ontario Orchestra, with E. M. Brown leader, continue to fill the hall with dancers who enjoy the music.

Rev. Johns will be here Sunday and preach from the subjects advertised for last Sunday. He was called away last week by the death of Joseph Hicks, at Mackey, Idaho, a very dear friend of days gone by.

Order your Easter suit today from Cope & Dunnuck.

Born, on Sunday, at the hospital, a son to Mrs W P Bean of Homedale.

E. M. Brown, leader of the Ontario orchestra, furnished the music for the St. Patrick day dance in Weiser, given by the Weiser base ball club, at Hotel Washington. It was a big success.

The registration books are open Saturday evenings.

W. W. Payne and Mrs Carl Payne, of Boise, were guests of Mr and Mrs C E Emison this week.

If you are the owner of land in the Owyhee district, get one of those petitions and send it in.

Pumps, well casing and gasoline engines can be bought of McBratney-McNulty Co. and money saved on them.

The Baptist chapel car was taken to Huntington today.

A few incubators left at McBratney's store.

E. E. Purington and wife, of Burns, were guests of Mr and Mrs. C. E. Kenyon, on Wednesday. They were returning from a trip to the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wood and family and Miss Pauline Billingsley will leave tomorrow for Mr. Wood's ranch at Riverside.

Mrs. Chas. Peterson fell down some steps last Friday and has been using a crutch and cane to get around.

There was another car load of hogs shipped to the Portland market Tuesday.

There is some talk of a million dollar cement plant being established at Durkee.

Tell your neighbors about our big club offer. They surely would like to get the Argus and four magazines, all one year, for only $1.18.

The S. and C. club will meet with Mrs. Irvin Troxall on next Thursday, March 26.

LOCAL NEWS

Ed Durbin was driving on Tuesday near the Empire Lumber yard when the horse started to kick and run, throwing the wife and baby out, the wheels going over the baby's head and shaking up Mrs. Durbin. He held onto the reins and finally stopped the horse after it had kicked clear of the buggy. Dude Rutherford helped him to get straightened out.

Linoleum, all kinds at McBratney Furniture Store. The place that saves you money.

Apricot trees are in bloom in the yards about town. The first noticed were in the yard of Dr. Payne.

New line of hair goods. Grove & Riley.

R. W. Gardner, the telephone man, made a trip to Vale on Wednesday.

For first class painting, paper hanging and tinting see B. Benson. All work guaranteed. Phone 75-J.

A. E. Brown and daughter are here this week from their ranch near Cord. The sheep and other stock wintered well in the Barren valley section, but the buyers are not offering very encouraging prices for their wool.

No Particular

Woman Ought to be without an astistic and servicable Toilet Set. Besides being useful it adds Daintiness to the Dressing Table and if you wish to present her with a Set, the Kind she will be proud to own, look over our stock.

We have an endless variety of patterns of sterling and plated silver sets. If you simply desire a Button hook, a Brush, a Comb or a Mirror, we'll gladly break up a Set to satisfy you. Please investigate the Goods behind this ad.

W. W. LETSON

Your Jeweler

ONTARIO,

OREGON

Blue Stem Seed Wheat

The best in the country.

Also

White Dent Seed Corn

Raised on dry land..

For Sale by

H. J. Russell

Phone 81

Weiser, Idaho

New Gowns, Suits and Coats

arriving nearly every day and the large showing is growing from day to day.

Beautiful Waists and Blouses

If you are interested in smart waists and blouses for spring, you will be enthusiastic over our chic models.

In the Corset Section

We have given our corsets a great deal more room and are now showing all the new spring styles in all grades and Dame Fashion declares they fit beautifully.

Boyers' Shoe Department

This week presents styles that compel the admiration of fashionable dressers by their direct lines and quality.

We invite your attention to our extensive showing of Baby Dolls, Mary Janes, Colonials, Pumps and Oxfords.

Boyer's
Department Store

ROYAL
Baking Powder
Saves Health
and
Saves Money
and
Makes Better Food