Some Corroboration.

Of all fish yarns brought to San Francisco the one brought in by the coasting schooner James H. Bruce is a prize winner. Moreover, it is true, and there is further evidence than the mere word of the jolly sea dogs that their ship ran into and killed a huge whale. Portions of the carcass of the unfortunate mammal were still visible on the fore-castle and headgear of the schooner when she came in the other day. Huge pieces of blubber dangled from the stays and parts of the fore-rigging. A prize story and golden grain belt are the prize beers, adv.
