Lee Fiser was married at Weiser today to Miss Grace Miller, at the Baptist parsonage. They are in Portland for a few days and will return Monday morning on 18. They will receive a warm reception as Lee is very popular.

D. R. Ehrgood died at Nyssa on Monday. He was a pioneer of that section.

Miss Ida Bell Stoner, known as Jack Stoner, died in Weiser, last Friday, while being operated on for an abscess.

Miss Stoner was born in Dallas county, Iowa, nearly 28 years ago and she has been a resident of Ontario for the past five years. Miss Stoner was in the telephone office most of the time since moving here and recognized as among the best operators ever employed here, making many friends by her pleasant manners and general courtesy.

Rev. Koenig conducted the funeral, and J. H. Farley had charge of the burial.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Stoner, parents of the deceased, wish to express their appreciation of the kindnesses extended by the neighbors and friends and for the many floral offerings.

Resolutions.

Resolved: That Beatrice Rebekah Lodge number 82, I. O. O. F., draft resolutions expressing our sorrow over the loss of our dear sister Charlotta Hall.

Sister Hall has by long association endeared herself to many of us, and while we know we can trust our dear sister in the loving arms of her saviour, still we feel that her place in our lodge room and in the hearts of those who knew her best will always be vacant.

Her old friends will miss her sunny, hopeful encouragement, for she always saw the silver lining of every cloud.

Resolved: That a copy be sent to the family, a copy sent to the press, one placed on our minutes and our charter draped for thirty days.

The social occasion of Friday evening will long be remembered by those for whom the reception was given. The members and friends of the United Presbyterian Church met in the home of their pastor at the corner of Moffit St., and Tenth ave. With the games and music together with dainty refreshments, the evening passed all too soon. When the parties had gone we found that they had left many reminders of their call. These gifts are appreciated by us for their intrinsic worth, but even more highly because of the interest and spirit that prompted the donors. We want to heartily thank you in this public way, since your plan was executed so silently that we do not know "who is who"
