There has been quite a large demand for horses by the outside buyers and they paid good prices for anything that came within their size and age. This market will enable the horse owners to clean out all their off stock and place them in shape to raise only good horses. Just how long the market will last is what is puzzling all of them. If it should collapse there will be some buyers badly stung.

REX MARQUIS, Prop.

Salem, Oregon,
November 17, 1914.

Thanksgiving greetings to all my friends in Ontario.

I don't have time to write to all of you, so I am going to write this letter and send it to the Argus.

I like Salem fine. I go to school and my teachers name is Miss Hays, she is a good teacher and I like her. We pick hazel nuts in the school yard.

Mary and I have got two bantam chickens. They are dandy. We had two white rabbits but they got away. We ride on the street cars and go to the movies sometimes.

In don't snow here, but it rains a lot. We can't sleigh ride here, but I can ride on my coaster.

I missed you all on my birthday but I had a pretty good time though.

I hope you have a good time Thanksgiving. I am going to eat Thanksgiving dinner at my grandpas.
Good bye, ELLIS WHRRING.
