AUSTRIANS WINNING
ALONG EAST LINE

(Special to The Argus.)

London.—Sweeping claims of military successes along virtually the entire eastern front, except in the extreme north, are made in an official report from the Austrian war office. It is asserted that in Poland, on the Warsaw front; in Galicia, Bukovina and northern Hungary the Austro-German allies are battering down the Russian resistance.

The rearward communications of the Russians in Galicia are threatened the report says, by the Austrians, while the Russian forces which invaded Bukovina and northern Hungary have been unsuccessful, and in Poland the trenches of the Austro-German armies are approaching the Warsaw forts. No mention is made of east Prussia, which, according to Petrograd reports, now is menaced by a new offensive movement on the part of the Russian army of invasion. Reports from the Russian war office recently have indicated that the Austrians have gained some advantage in the fighting in the Carpathians, but neither the Petrograd nor Berlin statement has shown important changes on the Warsaw front.

BRIEF WAR NEWS

The end of six months of Europe's great war finds the armies of the nations completing arrangements for a new series of operations or actually engaged in campaigns the extent of which hardly was anticipated when the declarations of hostilities were made. In Flanders, France and Central Poland a deadlock still exists, but largely because of Russia's tremendous resources and the action of Turkey, the sphere of operations has been widely extended.

Russia alone is engaged in fighting hostile armies from Tilsit, far in the north of east Prussia, to Tabriz, in Persia, a distance of more than 1500 miles. Only that portion of her territory bordering on Roumania is free from menace, but according to her reports all is going well with her immense armies. The Russian outflanking movement in northern east Prussia is said to be gaining momentum. The armies on each side of Tilsit have cut the German railway between that city and Memel on the Baltic.

On the southern front in east Prussia another army is advancing toward the German fortress of Thorn, while still another is holding a line of entrenchments which protect Warsaw and which General Von Hindenburg has been trying to batter through for three months. Other armies are again preparing to meet a big Austro-German force which is attempting to regain Galicia and Bukovina, thereby turning Grand Duke Nicholas' left wing.

Battles in the west still consist of local engagements, although the Germans, who apparently are preparing for an extensive offensive before the allies get their full strength into the field, occasionally deliver rather more serious attacks. These are scattered all along the front from the sea to the Swiss frontier, but always come back to that portion of the allies' line which lies between the Germans and the French coast towns.

The Argonne, too, has been the scene of another attack, and in this case, according to a German report, success fell to Emperor William's forces, who say they have taken over 700 prisoners and counted between 400 and 500 dead.

To the eastward the Muscovite troops are battling against the Turks in the Caucasus and Persia. They apparently have inflicted another defeat on the Turkish forces, for the Russian official report says that the Russians have reoccupied that city.

There has been more outpost fighting in the vicinity of the Suez Canal, but the latest reports say the Turks are withdrawing their advance posts. There still is some doubt whether they have definitely committed themselves to the march they must make across the desert to invade Egypt.

BATTLE RESUMED ON SHIP PURCHASE BILL

(Special to The Argus.)

Washington.—Armistice in the senate legislative struggle over the ship purchase bill, which seems destined to take historic place in the annals of the United States congress, ended at 10 o'clock Monday, when the senate reconvened after a recess since Saturday midnight.

When democratic leaders consented Saturday to recess at midnight republican opponents of the bill insisted that it was a sign of weakness, but the generals of the administration forces insisted that they would carry the fight to the republicans with more vigor than ever throughout the week.

They are confident that three or four days of continuous session will force a roll on the Fletcher substitute, which is the ship bill as amended in caucus, and that thereafter the measure will move quickly through remaining parliamentary stages without much difficulty.

Republican leaders are just as determined and confident that they can keep up the fight until March 4, if necessary, and that the bill will not be permitted to pass at this session of congress.

House May Sustain Veto.

What will be the fate of President Wilson's veto of the immigration bill because of the restrictive literacy test is another subject of supreme interest in the congress for the week.

That some democratic members who voted for the bill do not propose to vote to override the president's rejection already is known and house leaders are not certain that the required two-thirds vote can be procured. Should the bill fail to receive a two-thirds vote it will die. If it passes, few doubt that the senate would give it considerably more than the necessary two-thirds majority, it having passed there originally by 50 to 7.

OLEO TAX DODGERS
JAILED AND FINED

(Special to The Argus.)

St. Louis.—Joseph May was sentenced to three years in the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kansas, and fined $5000, and Raymond A. Martens was given a two year sentence to Leavenworth and fined $5000 by Federal Judge John C. Pollock in the St. Louis oleomargarine cases. Three other men were fined and sentenced to jail.

PEACE PARTY IS MOBBED IN ROME

(Special to The Argus.)

Rome.—Troops with fixed bayonets had to be called out to re-establish order at a meeting which had been organized by senators, members of the chamber of deputies and other prominent persons, with the purpose of forwarding the movement in favor of Italy's maintaining neutrality in the war.

A large number of persons, mostly republicans, who are against the maintenance of neutrality, gathered at the entrance to the hall and attacked the neutrals.

The police being insufficient, troops were called out and restored order.

After this incident the anti-neutralityists attempted to approach the Austrian embassy, crying: "Down with Austria!" "Down with Germany!" "Long live France!" and "Long live the war!" The troops again had to be called on to disperse the crowds.

ARTILLERY COMBATS
HOLDING SWAY

(Special to The Argus.)

Paris.—The French war office issued the following statement of the progress of the war:

"The struggle is confined on almost every front to artillery combats. The cannonading was intense at numerous points. Our artillery has everywhere secured the advantage."

Villa Wounded Denied.

Washington.—Denial of reports that General Villa had been seriously wounded was received at the state department from American Agent Carothers at El Paso.

Sea Damage is $300,000.

Los Angeles.—Three hundred thousand dollars was the estimate of damage done by the heavy seas at Venice, Long Beach and other coast towns.
