Hunter Slays Game Warden.

Medford.-Game Warden A. S. Hubbard of Ashland, 30 years old, was shot and killed by Loris Martin, a professional deer hunter, near Trail, when attempting to make a search of Martin's cabin for evidence of poaching.

Sheriff Single and Deputy Sheriff Wilson walked to the cabin of Loris Martin, arrested him and brought him to the jail at Jacksonville, where he is held without bail. Much to the surprise of his friends, Martin made no attempt to get away and did not resist arrest. He met Sheriff Singler on the trail in front of his cabin, and with the remark, "Guess I am the man you are looking for" handed over his rifle, kissed his mother good-by and was brought at once to Medford. According to Martin's story he shot Hubbard in self-defense.
