

Ironside Oregon.
(Continued From Page 3)

over Sunday at John Smith's. Herman and Ed. Rose went to Malheur the first of the week on business. F. W. Smith is visiting his family in Ontario.

Mrs. S. D. Duncan and J. H. Rose who have been on the sick list for some time, are slowly recovering.

Tarver Lawrence of Unity, Ore., is visiting friends of this community.

Ernest Anthony went to Brogan on Thursday after some thoroughbred hogs, which they purchased of late. He returned on Friday reporting the roads in a very critical condition.

Walter Lawrence, while riding a broncho last week was unfortunate in letting the horse fall twice on him receiving a severe injury on his right foot, being unable to bear any weight on it.

Jap Woodcock who has been visiting his family at Baker, returned the first of the week. He was accompanied by Guy Woodcock of Malheur, who returned to his home on Thursday.

Ted Wisdom returned from a week's visit with his parents at Weiser on Thursday.

Mrs. Alvin Busby of Unity, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Elms, returned home the first of the week.

C. Smith returned from Brogan on Thursday, where he had been visiting friends for several days.

Mrs. Wm. Allen who has been in Payette for some time at the bedside of her mother, who is very low, was called to her home here on Saturday to her son Roscoe, who was kicked by a horse the first of the week and received severe injuries besides having several ribs broken. He is much improved at this writing.

Those to attend the dance given at Malheur on Friday the 26th, from here were Conor Young and family, Cecil Smith and Elmer Moithan. They report a very enjoyable time.

Arthur Hill made a trip to Malheur on business the last of the week.

Conor Young and wife and daughter Ester, went to Ontario on Saturday, on business, expecting to return the first of the week.

Coy Wise, who has been breaking a team for Joe Allison, is intending to make several trips on the stage to initiate the new team for our Uncle Sam man. Mr. Allison is hoping to make better time as his teams are getting leg weary on account of the bad roads.

Spring Opening

You are invited to our First Spring Showing of New Spring Millinery, Ladies and Misses New Spring Coats, New Spring Suits, and New Spring Dresses.

All the Newest Spring Creations are here this week for your inspection.

New Wash Silks $1.00

20 pieces of beautiful, durable tub silks; the best you have seen for $1.00, are on sale in the silk department. All the new color combinations are shown. Yard wide.

New shipment of Messalines and Foulards in all colors and shades at $1.00. 26 inches to yard wide.

New Shoes

The New Things are Here. The Good Looking and Fitting Kind That Wear Right; Shoes That We Know What They are Made of and How They Wear

Dress Fashion and Your New Corset

Skirts this season should be full at the bottom, but fit snugly around the hips and waist. Above the waist the bodice should set more closely than in the past.

You must select your Corset to gain these lines. You can do so with a "Gossard" Horsehoe pitching has been the treat to the men of this place the last week, since it is getting dry in spots. Lanterns have been seen at 10:30 for the benefit of the boys pitching shoes.

Don Locey of Weiser, Idaho, who has been at the C. T. Locey home the past two months, took his departure on Tuesday, where he will resume his work again. He made the journey by horse back, taking some young stock with him.

IRONSIDE, OREGON.
March 8, 1915.
Farmers have begun to believe spring has appeared in full force. The snow has mostly disappeared, the meadow larks are singing and ground squirrels are seen frolicking everywhere. The farmers are preparing to begin their spring work soon.

Edd and Herman Rose, who went to Malheur on Monday, returned home Thursday accompanied by Vern Gardner of that place, who is visiting them at the present time.

Scott Davis and family of Happy Hollow were visitors of John Smiths over Friday.

Stan Van Buren and family took their departure for an extended visit with relatives at Weiser, Idaho, on Friday. They expect to move to their homestead after their return.

Mrs. Sam Faust went to Brogan on Thursday enroute to Oregon City, where her mother, Mrs. Freeman, is very ill. She was accompanied by her son, Lee.

Grandpa Gardner of Malheur City was a week end visitor of Francis Rose.

Miss Clara Howard finished a successful term of school and moved to her home the first of the week from Malheur. She was accompanied by her mother and sister.

W. R. Lofton and daughters, Lillie and Veve Lawrence, drove into Baker on Tuesday and returned on Saturday. The Misses Lawrence having dentistry work done while there, also did their spring shopping.

Miss Mabel Horton of Bonita was a visitor of Nellie Smith the first of the week, later going to the home of Mrs. John Broderick where she is now visiting.

Frank Reed and son, Russ, of Cow Valley were business visitors at Chas. Howards on Saturday.

Ray Duncan went to the county seat and Ontario on Saturday. He conducted business matters in Vale before going to Ontario.

Will Beam and family were visitors over Sunday at W. R. Loftons.

Cecil Smith made a trip to Cow Valley on Monday after grain.

Chas. Seton went to the west camp sawmill after lumber to complete the hotel which he is erecting. Conor Young has been helping on the building for several days.

Elmer and Tarver Lawrence who have been in the Little Malheur river locality the past week returned on Saturday. They report lots of snow in that country.

Rutherford Bros. returned from Caldwell, Idaho on Friday.

O'Connor Young and family returned from a brief visit to Ontario on Thursday.

Walter Weaver of Bonita was in on business on Saturday, having the notary fill out some legal documents.

Clarence and Floyd Howard of Malheur were visitors over Sunday of Chas. Howard.

The telephone line between Unity and Ironside, which has been down for some time, was put in good condition again on Wednesday by Will Quinn and Houston Asher.

Fruitland Items.
It was decided Monday that the principal place of business of the Noble Ditch irrigation company be moved from Payette to Fruitland, which will save the company considerable expense for office room and secretary's fees, and will be a great deal more convenient for the members of the board and also the stockholders. It will be about a month before the move will be completed.

Mr. George Coons and family moved Monday to the Prestel place, south of town, and Chas. Rich and wife will move onto the Maxfield ranch this week.

Mrs. Hostetler and Miss Beakley, who have spent the winter in Pennsylvania with their mother, who has been ill for some time and is very feeble, being more than 80 years of age, arrived home last Saturday morning. Their mother was not improving but they must return to their homes.

Mr. Grant Fisher is still very sick on account of a recent attack of measles. His lungs are affected.

The many friends of Mrs. Brandon will be glad to know she is improving so she is able to sit up a little while each day.

Carl Magnuson, who has spent the winter in California, has written friends here that he has attended the exposition at San Diego and it was grand. He also intends to visit the San Francisco fair this spring.

Mrs. S. C. Dean who has been very sick with pneumonia, is getting better. Her three little children have the measles at present.

The Kensington Club will meet next Wednesday p. m. at the A. Hansel home. Mrs. L. B. Campbell will entertain. They met at the home of Mrs. Pete Johnson last Wednesday afternoon. On account of the rain not many ventured out but those who attended had a very enjoyable time together.

This Friday afternoon is the regular time for the Mother's Circle meeting at the school house. These meetings are very helpful and interesting.

Mr. E. E. Hunter, who has been confined to his home all winter on account of paralysis, is enjoying a visit with his brother and wife of Brookville, Penn., who arrived Saturday. They expect to stay three weeks. He reports plenty of wild turkeys and deer and all kinds of game in the hills near Brookville, where he, with eleven of his friends, go for a hunting and camping trip each year.

Several of our young people attended the sacred concert Sunday afternoon at the Methodist church in Payette, given by the boys' and girls' glee clubs under the direction of Prof. T. R. Neilson. The church was crowded and all enjoyed a rare treat.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Russell entertained at dinner Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Kennedy.

A jolly party of neighbors and friends of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Puchert met at their home Monday evening to help celebrate their birthdays. They brought plenty of good things to eat and all enjoyed a very pleasant evening.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. McIntosh moved Monday into the house owned by Mr. H. R. Flack, which was vacated by Prof. G. W. Cotton last week when he and his family moved into the house owned by Mr. A. H. McConnell, on Penn. Ave.

The M. E. Ladies' Aid meets this Thursday at the home of Mrs. H. E. Robinson, and the Baptist ladies aid meets the same day with Mrs. Wm. Homan.

Part of the merchandise for the new store has arrived and will be put in place as soon as the house is in readiness. The rooms are being painted inside and everything will look bright and clean. Mr. Ben Bohannan, who will have charge of the store, has moved his family here and they occupy the rooms upstairs above the store.

Last week Jesse Riffle got his thumb and first finger mashed in his new gasoline engine. It was necessary to have his finger amputated at the first joint, but it is thought his thumb will get well.

The Men's Bible Class Association met Tuesday evening in the Epworth Hall for a social time. Toasts and music and an oyster supper were features of entertainment. Mr. B. Wheelton, president of the class, was toastmaster. It was a very enjoyable affair and those present hope for a similar meeting in the near future.

Waldo Richardson has the mumps. Mr. and Mrs. Richardson expect to be the next victims.

Mr. E. L. Davis shipped a carload of wheat last week to the Caldwell Milling Co., for $2.25 per cwt., f. o. b. Fruitland.

Mr. W. E. Dorthy will erect a new house on his 160 acre ranch south of town. He and his family will live in the small house already on the place while the new one is being built.

A number of the Pythian Sisters met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Murray Morton, for the purpose of organizing a social club for the Pythian Sisters and also the other wives of the Knights.

The club was named the C. M. D. Club and will meet every two weeks. Fancy work will be taken and refreshments will be served.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. J. M. Connors, March the 23rd.

"What a Beautiful Dining Room"

Your pride in that comment from a valued friend is worth all it cost to select dining room furniture carefully. Style counts greatly. Quality goes deeper and counts even more.

It is easy to have lifetime quality and artistic lines in dining room furniture at low cost if you want it. We have some beautiful examples now. We are proud of them and know they will make you proud. Please come in and let us show them tomorrow.

We have just received a large assortment of high grade pillows. Down and choice goose. We are going to sell these at special prices for a few days. Come in and see them.

Ontario Furniture Co.

DINING-ROOM FURNITURE OF WORTH & CHARACTER THAT WILL ADD TO THE DISTINCTIVENESS & CHARM OF YOUR HOME.