

FRUIT GROWERS ATTENTION

Food River, Oregon,
We used "Corona Dry" exclusively in our orchards, comprising some three hundred acres. It gave the best satisfaction of any lead we have ever used.
North Pacific Fruit Distributors

We have Corona Dry in 1, 5, 10, 25, 50 and 100 lb. kegs

The Ontario Pharmacy

The Rexall Store

Live News From Surrounding Towns And Country. Happenings of a Week

KINGMAN COLONY NEWS.

Work on the new pumping plant is progressing finely. The power line has been completed and the machinery has arrived and will be installed this week.

The boys of the school met on Saturday afternoon and organized a manual training club, with A. E. Wade as adviser. They are planning to build a boat this summer.

School closed last Friday with a picnic in the grove on Mr. Cantrall's ranch. A bountiful dinner was spread under the trees at noon and the afternoon was devoted to various sports, the results of which lead us to believe we have some promising track material.

Lyle Wood of Payette and Messrs. Johnson and Brown, meter experts from Boise, were here last Monday making some repairs on the meters in our pumping stations.

A. E. Wade and A. G. Kingman were in Vale Tuesday and Wednesday attending court.

C. M. Beaumont, Claud Sweeting and Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Blodgett visited Vale last Tuesday.

H. H. Waggoner of Ontario made a flying trip to the Colony Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Schuppel and son motored out from Ontario Sunday and dined with Mr. and Mrs. Wade.

Prospects are bright for a full house at the concert next Friday night.

C. Molenaar and a friend had an exciting runaway while out driving Sunday afternoon. Both men were thrown from the buggy, but luckily escaped injury.

F. D. Hall came out from Nyssa Sunday. He has a twenty-acre prune orchard here which looks better to him every time he comes out.

John Evans has moved out from Nyssa to his ranch here.

DEAD OX FLAT.

We came near having a rain yesterday evening. Oh! how our hearts beat with hope! But a cold wind and some dust was our portion.

The neighbors say, "If we can't get water from the sky we must dig it out of the ground."

A. S. Whitbeck completed his well yesterday at a depth of 250 feet, and the water rises to within 140 feet of the surface.

Mr. Stone of Ontario, who drilled the well for A. S. Whitbeck, moved his outfit to the homestead of Mr. Muehll where he will drill another well.

Mr. J. H. Wilson is drilling well No. 2 on his desert claim. He struck water at 20 feet, but as he is endeavoring to get a flowing well he kept on drilling.

A. T. McDonald did some plowing for Mrs. Howland this week.

Aug. Sinkbile, his brother-in-law, and Chas. Warren were out hunting coyotes Friday. Did not learn of their success.

Jerry Rice and brother Chas. are through raling brush and will now clean up and plow for fall seeding what they have raled.

Aug. Sinkbile is plowing a lot of new land for fall seeding.

Mr. Rainey is assisting Mr. Wilson in drilling his well.

Mrs. McDonald made a trip to Payette Tuesday, bringing home some setting hens and eggs, preparatory to raising chickens on their homestead.

On Monday J. R. Langley received a telegram announcing the death of a son who had been in Montana for his health for some months.

Mr. and Mrs. Langley have the sympathy of the entire community.

Chas. Rice had the misfortune to have a valuable horse cut on the barbed wire fence Friday night.

FRUITLAND ITEMS.

The large number of friends of Mrs. H. E. Robinson will be glad to know that she has been appointed post mistress at Fruitland. She received her appointment Wednesday and will take charge of the office as soon as her bond is filed and approved.

Miss Velva Grimes went over on Monday evening to Dead Ox Flat and visited a few days with her sister, Mrs. Marvin Channer. She returned home Saturday.

T. D. Shubert returned home the first of last week after a successful business 'rip in the middle west selling apples.

The three churches will hold a union meeting next Sunday evening in the Methodist church for the purpose of listening to Mr. Phelps of Boise, the state secretary of the Prohibition party.

Miss Mary Giesler of Payette visited last week with her sister, Mrs. Cary Tussing.

The members of the Senior class will give a play next Friday night at Johnson's hall. It is called "Mr. Bob." Admission 25 cents.

Mrs. J. O. Scritchfield underwent an operation for appendicitis last Wednesday morning at the Holy Rosary hospital. She is getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Boomer's little daughter, Jean, who has been dangerously sick, is reported better.

Mrs. Branham of Spokane, Wash., arrived Monday for an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. C. M. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Tussing and family and Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Channer visited Monday at the A. Grimes home.

Rev. C. E. Deal left Monday for Sweet, Idaho, to attend the district conference at that place. The sessions close April 29.

W. H. Bowler of Boise, missionary worker of Utah and Idaho, spoke in the Baptist church last Sunday morning and evening. A large crowd was present. The Methodist congregation was invited to attend the evening services.

The W. C. T. U. met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. J. H. Spainhower. The meeting was led by Mrs. H. G. Gardner, subject, "Women as Citizens."

The Baptist Ladies' Aid will meet Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. M. Williams.

Miss Gertrude Melcher and little niece, Gladys, returned home Saturday evening from Priest River, where she has been for several months.

J. C. Harris, who has been staying with E. E. Hunter for several months, left Saturday evening for Hot Springs, Colo.

J. S. Thurston of Payette visited Saturday afternoon with E. E. Hunter.

A league game between Weiser and Fruitland high school teams was played on the home grounds last Friday afternoon. The score resulted 6 to 3 in favor of Fruitland.

Miss Elsie Schmidt entertained Velva Grimes Sunday afternoon at her home east of town.

Lacey Griep was badly hurt Friday afternoon in a runaway. As he was climbing on the load of hay after getting it weighed in Fruitland the Jacob staff broke with him, causing him to fall against the team onto the double-trees. The team became frightened, running quite a distance before they could be stopped. Lacey was indeed lucky not to have any bones broken.

Mrs. Van Aken was taken to the hospital Tuesday and underwent a successful operation. She returned home Friday.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rich has the whooping cough, and in the care of a nurse.

The Kensington club, which was to have met at the Ira Dalzell home was postponed two weeks on account of the throat trouble that Paul Dalzell

NYSSA NEWS.

Mr. Harry Groshert has purchased a Ford and is quickly mastering the art of driving it.

Miss MacLean of Hailey, who has been visiting her friend Miss G. Eva Boydell, returned home this week.

Harry Casho made a business trip to Boise last Saturday, returning Monday morning.

Mrs. F. D. Hall of Nyssa is visiting in Boise.

Mrs. Marsh of the Argus, visited in Nyssa and vicinity last Thursday.

Mr. J. W. Courtney of Moscow, spoke to the high school pupils last Thursday.

Mr. E. Blodgett and sons, of Kingman Colony, visited in Nyssa Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Quinn and Misses Maude and Mary Largent accompanied Supt. Hutten to Arcadia, where he held afternoon service last Sunday.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church gave a farewell party in honor of Mrs. Carrick, at the home of Mrs. H. T. Francis, on Monday, and on this occasion presented her with some very fine silverware. Mr. and Mrs. Carrick expect to leave this week for Gooding, Idaho, where they will visit relatives. Misses Edith Iredale and Della Clarke visited in Vale last week.

Rev. Ward McHenry of Baker City made a short visit to Nyssa Monday.

Messrs. Thomas Canham, John Evans and C. C. Wilson were business visitors in Vale Tuesday.

C. Peck of the Kingman Colony was a Nyssa visitor last Thursday.

An outdoor program will be given by the Associated Student Body on April 30th. This program will consist of a baseball game between the high school and seventh and eighth grade girls, and a track meet in which the boys of the high school will compete with the boys of the seventh and eighth grades. Prof. Voegeli has been chosen to umpire the girls base ball game, while Mr. Nedry will be field manager in the track meet.

The play "Aunt Dinah's Quilting Party," given by the ladies of the Civic Club last Friday night was attended by a large and appreciative audience and was a great success.

A delightful party was given at the home of little Miss Lillie May Hunt, on Saturday, in honor of her eleventh birthday.

Mr. W. L. Gibson left Monday night for Pendleton.

Swimming season is again at hand and every evening sees a gay party of young enthusiasts gathered on the banks of the Owyhee.

Mayor and Mrs. H. T. Francis were Ontario visitors Saturday.

Miss Annie McDonald, who has been teaching school at Senneca, Oregon, returned home Monday.

A union meeting was held last Sunday morning at the Methodist church when Mr. R. P. Hutton of Portland, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, addressed the congregation.

The High Line Ditch, which will mean so much to the people of Nyssa and surrounding country when completed, seems much more than a mythical possibility. When this ditch has been suffering with.

Mrs. A. A. Branthover died suddenly Wednesday afternoon about 1 o'clock at her home two miles east of Fruitland, after a long illness. She leaves a husband and four sons, Fred, man, Lester, Victor and Earl; a mother, Mrs. Folsom; two sisters and two brothers. The funeral services were held Friday morning at 10 o'clock at the home. Rev. C. E. Deal of the Methodist church officiated. The pall bearers were Messrs. Carpenter, H. J. Puchert, B. Whealdon, Charles Winter, L. B. Makinson and H. R. Ficken.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hunter and daughter, Olive, and Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Russell were entertained at the Miller home north of Payette Sunday.

is built forty thousand acres of arid land tributary to Nyssa will be developed. This land will be immediately colonized on a basis of a family to every forty acres, thus bringing twenty thousand people into the community. The surplus power developed will be sold at cost to the people, who will be able to convert it to a multitude of useful purposes, such as heating the homes, and running churns, separators, washing machines, etc. The pessimistic crank who has grown old waiting for the building of the High Line may turn up his nose and groan, but its development is a certainty at some time, and why not at the present?

The Pomona grange was held in Nyssa on Saturday, April 17. The program which was held during the lecture hour was as follows: Piano solo by Mrs. Johnson, reading by Professor Conklin, a story by Mildred Conklin, piano solo by Emmon Felton.

Little Misses Alice Spier and Edna Sargent gave the readings which they delivered in the contest. A delicious cafeteria luncheon was served at noon. The business meeting of the Pomona consisted of a discussion as to the advisability of retaining the county auditor. The members were undivided upon this question and it is as yet undecided. The necessity of calling the attention of the State grange to Eastern Oregon and its needs was also discussed.

A meeting was held by the Nyssa base ball enthusiasts on Monday night for the purpose of organizing a team for the following season.

Mr. Frank Lynch was in from the shearing camp at Hoodoo last week. Dr. J. J. Sarazin made a business trip to Boise last week.

Mrs. J. Lackey, who underwent an operation at Boise last week, is reported to be recovering rapidly.

HOTEL ARRIVALS

Moore Hotel.

Tuesday, April 20—
S. C. Ogsbury, Boise; G. L. Petrashek, Boise; C. F. Billard, Boise; R. N. Hill, Boise; V. H. Bunnell, Boise; B. L. Pearson, Boise; William West, Westfall; Mrs. S. A. Lofton, Ironside; Mabel Horton, Ironside; Orville Nichols, Ironside; W. S. Levens, Baker, Ore.; D. C. Waymire, Boise; E. W. Hurdle, Pendleton; J. A. Gosser, Pendleton; John L. Burke, Portland.

Wednesday, April 21.
Mrs. M. Hordwick, Vale; C. E. Carter, Griswell, Ida.; D. E. Monahan, Portland; Paul G. Savic, Boise; R. L. Smith, Boise; W. J. Shapper, Ontario; J. E. La Fontaine, Boise.

Thursday, April 22—
Chester Yerex, Cord, Ore.; W. E. Sevett, Pocatello; E. A. Stravies, La Grande; M. O. Hoswell, Portland; E. I. Brogan, Vale, Ore.

Friday, April 23—
Frank Brown, Boise; S. T. D. Forrer, Caldwell; Cordelia V. Forrer, Caldwell; Earl Brooks, Caldwell; Dean Adams, Weiser; Clyde Hubbard, Weiser; H. Wilson, city; W. W. Brookins, Boise.

Saturday, April 24—
Prof. Howard, Corvallis; Chas. H. Powell, La Grande; E. C. Eggleston, Burns, B. J. McCorm. Boise; Bert Mason, Nampa; Bill Owens, Nampa; Henry L. Bullard, Nampa; D. H. Beers, Nampa; Mrs. F. H. Gardner, Pendleton.

Sunday, April 25—
W. E. Perkins, Payette, Idaho; M. A. Bates, Parma; Caldwell Baseball team, Caldwell; B. H. Harris, Rexbury, Ida.; John T. Brower, Burley; A. B. Anderson, Weiser, Idaho; C. A. Snyder, Boise; Marie Burrough, Nyssa.

Carter House.

Tuesday, April 20—
Frank Sels, Baker, Ore.; D. H. Hunter, Baker, Ore.; J. A. Haley, Caldwell, Ida.; R. A. Kelsey, Moorville; C. R. Ames, Vale; Fred M. Johnson, Baker; W. A. Johns and wife, Nampa; Miss Davis, Nampa; A. G. Kingman, Nyssa.

Wednesday, April 21—
A. A. Roberts, Juntura; Ben J. Brown, Vale; D. H. Hunter, Baker, Ore.; Con Lechan, Placerville; Oscar Utley, Weiser, Idaho; W. I. Shepard, Burns, Ore.

Thursday, April 22—
D. H. Hunter, Baker, Ore.; A. J. Emes, Burns, Ore.; Fred Dahrew, Juntura.

Friday, April 23—
F. H. Kiddle, La Grande, Ore.; C. W. Taylor, Cord, Ore.; A. F. Hill, Westfall; G. H. Eriston, Opportunity; Rupert Winters, Featherville, Idaho.

Friday, April 23—
F. T. Mittaner, Baker, Ore.; F. S. Johnston, Boise; Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Lewis and daughter, Ontario.

Friday, April 23—
Mrs. Auton Larson, Baker, Ore.; M. A. Gould, Boise.

Saturday, April 24—
D. H. Hunter, Baker, Ore.; I. E. Lingren, Emmett; Fred M. Johnson, Baker; P. J. Gallagher, Juntura; John L. Rand, Baker, Ore.; Dr. Lewis C. Milton, Drewsen; Fred Robertson, Drewson.

Saturday, April 24—
R. A. Kelsey, Moorville, Ore.; Capt. Martin, Baker, Ore.; J. V. Dawson, Pocatello; Ben Brown, Vale; Lee Noe, Vale; L. A. Green, Nyssa; L. Roberts, Vale.

Sunday, April 25—
Geo. McKnight and wife, Vale; Mr. and Mrs. W. Letson, city; Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Crandall, Vale; R. N. Stanfield, Stanfield, Ore.; Mrs. D. A. Mills, Baker, Ore.; Frank Sels, Vale; E. D. Mowrey, Portland; M. H. Taylor, Cheney, Wash.

A PICK-UP

Fifty Suits, our share of a purchase by our buyer, now in New York, at an exceptionally low price.

Every suit is of pure woolen worsted cloth and guaranteed all hand tailoring. English models in the new checks and plaids. See them in our north show window. They were made to retail at $15.00 and $16.00, and are priced as they were bought—under their value.

Special Price $11.50

A splendid chance for any man to save $3.50 or $4.00

Summer Underwear

Large assortment of the famous B. V. D. Poros-knit and Balbrigan underwear for the warm weather. Two-piece and union suits in natural and white colors, all sizes 34 to 52 for men at $1.00 the Suit.

Straw Hats and Panamas. Our stock affords the largest choice. Prices

$1.00 to $7.50

ALEXANDER'S

ONE PRICE CLOTHIER | ONTARIO, ORE. | ONE PRICE CLOTHIER
SEVEN STORES IN IDAHO AND OREGON