LIVE SOCIETY NEWS

The Argus is always pleased to receive advance notices of society events that have not been printed; also news of those that have taken place. The latter should be in the office not later than Wednesday noon.

The regular business meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held Tuesday evening at the Congregational church.

The Silver Bridge club met at the home of Mrs. J. D. Billingsley Wednesday afternoon.

A very pleasant meeting of the "Clover club" was held at the home of Mrs. Minster last Thursday afternoon. Six members were present and two invited guests, Mrs. Spencer and Mrs. Irvin Minster. A dainty luncheon was served.

One of the important social events being looked forward to by the people of Ontario is the "May Day" tea to be given at the home of Mrs. G. L. King by the ladies of the Episcopal guild Saturday afternoon, May first. May Day drills will be given on the lawn by a number of little girls and dainty refreshments will be served.

One of the most enjoyable events of the season occurred Monday evening, a week ago, when about eighty young people of the Baptist church, accompanied by Rev. and Mrs. Baker, drove out to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Stewart to spend the evening.

The party was in the nature of a farewell to Mrs. Tom Seaward, who soon leaves for Cord, Ore., and Mrs. William Buckner, who intends joining her husband at Juntura. The evening was spent with new and interesting games.

At a late hour refreshments, consisting of cake and ice cream were served.

Several members of the United Artisan lodge formed a jolly party who met after lodge Tuesday night.

Mrs. Ora Campbell and Mrs. Morgan were the honor guests. Souvenir spoons were presented to them as a token of the high esteem in which they are held by their fellow members. Mrs. Morgan leaves for Portland and Mrs. Campbell leaves in a few weeks for a long visit with relatives in Pennsylvania.

The party adjourned at a late hour to Hill's Pharmacy where refreshments of cake and ice cream were served to them.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Mansker was the scene of a merry gathering Friday evening, the occasion being a surprise handkerchief shower in honor of Mrs. Mansker, who leaves soon for a long visit in Kansas and Oklahoma.

Music and recitations by the Ontario Union Bible class was the principal diversion of the evening, after which dainty refreshments were served. The guests were: Mrs. Maddux, Mrs. Haggar, Mrs. Doan, Mrs. Sheets, Mrs. Sanford, Miss Loveland, Miss Mildred Sanford, Misses Lela and Manda Stuart, Mrs. Durbin, Mrs. Stevens, Misses Edna and Norma Doty and Mrs. Bertha Mansker.

Prices Are Dropping

If the mercury in the thermometer was to fall at the rate our prices have been going, there wouldn't be any peaches in the next ten years.
