

Live News From Surrounding Towns And Country. Happenings of a Week

NYSSA NEWS.

E. G. Johnson, the orchard man of Parma, was in town with his new automobile, a Chalmers Six, last Monday.

The jitney bus, which will run from Ontario to Nyssa, making two trips each day, made its first trip Monday.

Mrs. Swan, accompanied by her little daughter, is visiting at the home of her father, E. J. Burroughs.

C. C. Wilson was a business visitor in Boise last week.

The first cutting of Alfalfa hay will be made by the first of May this year, by those who will make four or more cuttings. This is the earliest season that we have seen for years. The crop promises to be a record breaking one. Not only in alfalfa but also in other crops, great gains are expected. Large stretches of alfalfa land have been plowed under in preparing for corn and grain fields and prominent farmers prophecy that to be in the winning class of corn growers this year, one must top one hundred and fifty bushels of corn per acre.

A delightful jungle picnic was enjoyed last Sunday by several of the young couples of Nyssa. The young people, well provided with good things to eat, "hiked" down the railroad track to the cool shades of the jungles.

Afterwards the picnickers went for an auto ride. Those present were: Misses Alice Voegelien, Georgia Dennis, Louise Robertson, Gertrude Wilson, Crete Childers, Edith and Lucile Stitche; Messrs. Ernest Wilson, Barney Wilson, Sidney Burbridge, Harry Goshert, Obie Wilson and Will Howard.

Mrs. Thomas Coward of Ontario visited her daughter, Mrs. C. Crawford, last week.

The Goshert and Kinnaird families motored to Emmett in their new car last Sunday.

G. G. Merrick, who is suffering from heart trouble and general breakdown, caused by old age, was sent to the Weiser hospital, accompanied by Mr. Wills. Mr. Merrick, during the last sixty years has traveled widely, both in North and South America, and counts among his friends and acquaintances Abraham Lincoln and many other noted men of his time.

S. F. Foster is contemplating building in the near future a drug store on Main street, between the Spier and Goshert buildings.

Mrs. L. Spier visited in Vale last week.

Communion services were held in the Parish hall Sunday at 11 a. m., Rev. Powell officiating.

A business meeting of the Epworth League was held last Friday at the home of W. W. Foster. The officers for the coming year were elected as follows: Dennis Hon, president; W. W. Foster, first vice president; Miss Lottie Phillips, second vice president; Miss Mattie Dennis, third vice president; Miss Maude Largent, fourth vice president; Miss Dora Hon, secretary; Don Davis, treasurer. After the business a social was enjoyed by those present.

Frank Dutcher is erecting a new bungalow on the site of the old Nyssa hotel. Mrs. Lulla Canter is building a house on the lot adjoining.

Mr. Baxter, foreman of the painting gang of the O. S. L., became violently insane last week and was taken to Vale by Judge McKnight and Sheriff Brown.

Misses Edith Iredale and Della Clark were Parma visitors last week.

The agricultural class of the Nyssa high school made a trip to the cheese factory Monday, where much knowledge and considerable cheese was consumed.

J. H. Wolf was in Boise last week, where he attended a bankers' meeting, which was addressed by J. Russell Lowrie, deputy governor of the reserve bank at San Francisco.

J. Audrey Ward is suffering with typhoid fever.

Miss Dorris Mitchell was taken to Payette last Wednesday, where she will receive treatment from Dr. Cutren.

Robert Bell, state mine inspector of Idaho, accompanied by Mr. McGinnis of northern Idaho, were visitors in Nyssa Monday. Both gentlemen are interested in land under the Shoestring ditch, and in the Owyhee valley. The great improvements and general prosperous appearance of the farms, orchards and dairies of this section were a revelation to them, and both were highly pleased.

FRUITLAND ITEMS.

The election held Tuesday afternoon from one to seven o'clock at the central school building to vote upon the question of issuing bonds for the construction of a new high school building, resulted in the majority of one more than the necessary two-thirds vote to carry the election for the building. The board later discovered that some illegal votes were cast and the election has been declared off. Another election will be held soon.

The Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. church will meet Wednesday afternoon instead of Thursday on account of the Sunday school meeting to be held all day Thursday. The meeting this week will be held at the home of Mrs. B. Whealdon.

Plummer Grimes started Wednesday evening for a visit with relatives in Oregon and California. Russell Hooker intends to meet him in Wheatland, Cal., and attend the world's fair at San Francisco together. They expect to be gone three or four weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Fouts are the proud parents of a 11-pound boy born to them Monday evening, April 26.

Miss Gail White has completed her term of school near Mountainhome and has returned to her home south of Fruitland.

A large crowd attended the union services held at the Methodist church Sunday night. Ernest G. Taylor, national prohibition worker of Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana, was the speaker who addressed.

A good crowd attended the Baptist church Sunday morning and listened to an address on missions by Miss Mary Ayers, field worker of the Baptist Women's Missionary society.

"Mr. Bob," the Senior class play given at Johnson's hall Friday evening, was well attended and it is safe to say that the class did exceptionally well considering the limited room in the hall.

The Junior class is busy this week planning the Junior-Senior banquet for Friday night of this week. This will be a happy event for all who attend.

Miss Ruth Bracewell who has spent the winter in Boise with Florence Kinsey and attended the Gregg business college there, returned home last week for a visit before accepting a position.

The Fruitland high school baseball team, who were to play Vale last Friday afternoon for a practice game, was postponed on account of the rain.

The Christian Endeavor society will hold their monthly business and social evening next Saturday evening at the W. J. Russell home.

E. E. Hunter is not as well as he has been lately. He was stricken with paralysis last fall from which he has not fully recovered. A short time ago he was taken worse with heart trouble.

Ether Russell had as her guest Sunday for dinner Miss Velva Grimes.

George Stephens was confined at home all last week with the mumps.

The Alumni banquet will be held in the near future. The place has not been decided upon.

The Christian Endeavor, who had planned a potato and wienersupper last Saturday evening at the P. A. Creger homestead near Whitney Heights school, was postponed on account of the rain.

On Tuesday afternoon Boise high school's first baseball team will play with the high school team on the home grounds. Come out and help the boys and encourage them by your presence. The boys have a scheduled game with New Plymouth Friday afternoon.

Mrs. L. M. Ormsby, general Sunday school secretary and worker for Idaho, will be here Thursday, May 6, to assist the Sunday school workers in their work. There will be a morning and afternoon session at 9 a. m. and 2 p. m. held at the Methodist church. She will speak in New Plymouth in the evening. All are invited to attend.

Messrs. R. J. Miller, a brother-in-law, and William and Robert Royston, brothers of J. M. Royston, who attended the funeral, left Wednesday for their home in Baltimore, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Grover and children left last week for their shearing plant near Midvale. They will be gone about two weeks.

J. F. Carnefix was in this vicinity inspecting the orchards and nurseries last week.

KINGMAN KOLONY NEWS.

Three carloads of steel for the new Big Bend bridge came last week, and work will begin May 8.

An appreciative audience listened to the concert which was given Friday night by the Kolony orchestra. The attendance was not as large as had been expected owing to the inclement weather, but those who ventured out in the Arctic blasts felt well repaid for their effort, as was shown by the prolonged applause after each number and by the frequent encores. The high wind stopped the Big Bend ferry, so that a number of Bend people who were expecting to take in the concert were unable to get across the river. There have been a number of requests from Big Bend and Nyssa people for the concert to be repeated and arrangements have been made to give it the evening of Saturday, May 15, in the Wade school house in Big Bend and a date will be set this week for an engagement in Nyssa.

A. G. Kingman and C. E. Peck were business visitors to Nyssa last week.

A. E. Wade, E. M. Blodgett, C. Sweeting and C. D. Forbes attended court in Vale Wednesday.

Miss Dorothy Pilcher returned home last Thursday from a visit of

BIG RIVER FETE OPENS AT LEWISTON

(Special to The Argus.)

Lewiston, Idaho. — Distinguished men from throughout the northwest were here to participate Monday in the waterways celebration to commemorate the completion of The Dalles-Celilo canal. Those in attendance included Governor Alexander, United States Senators Borah and Brady and ex-Governors Hawley and McConnell, of Idaho. Senator Jones and Representative Humphrey, of Washington, Governor Lister, of Washington, and Governor Withycombe, of Oregon.

The celebration marked the first trip a steamer from Portland has ever made through the new canal to Lewiston.

Special trains over all lines running into Lewiston brought large numbers from all points and the city was thronged with visitors.

A feature of the day here was the firing of salutes along the river to herald the coming of steamers on their maiden trips to Lewiston.

Have you made that geranium bed? Call Ontario Floral Co. for your small geraniums to set out.

Several weeks with Miss Lillian Langley at New Plymouth.

Miss Maxwell, who superintends our Sunday school, is making the music a prominent feature of the Sunday morning service, having organized a Sunday school orchestra of three violins and a cello among her music pupils.

THIS grocery store believes in giving the public a fair deal. We have proved this many times. Just now, for instance, we are selling sugar, one of the most necessary of household staples, at figures that are very low considering conditions. We do not believe in jumping the prices of food-stuffs under this or that pretext. We don't think it pays to make the public "the goat." This store carries the finest line of groceries.

WILSON BROS.

MISSOURI VISITED
BY HAIL STORM

St. Louis.—Hail stones as large as baseballs were hurled upon scattered sections of Missouri Sunday. The damage to crops and livestock will run into thousands of dollars.

FRUIT CROWERS
ANNOUNCE CHANGE

Spokane.—The Spokane Fruit Growers' company announced withdrawal from the North Pacific Fruit Distributors as the sub-central organization for the Spokane district.

Great Sale of White Beauty Hoosier Cabinets Ends Saturday

The great sale of "WHITE BEAUTY" Hoosier Cabinet will end Saturday at the latest, perhaps tomorrow. If each of the 1000 towns where the Hoosier Company has permitted this sale does as well as we have here, there will be no trouble about the quick doubling of "White Beauty" Sales. There is every indication that the limited number allotted us for this sale will not last till Saturday night. We can obtain no more to sell at the present low price. Most likely you will see these cabinets in the homes of some of your nearest and dearest friends. Why wait until then and regret that you missed the opportunity that is offered to you as freely as to them!

Tomorrow Pay Only $1.00--Try the "White Beauty" in Your Own Kitchen

This chance of a lifetime to secure a real Hoosier Cabinet at a $2.50 reduction from a low cash price, on terms of only $1.00 down and $1.00 weekly, may never occur again. The Hoosier Club plan of payment has proved amazingly popular with the foremost women in this community. Some of them tell us it is the same way that they have bought fine editions of rare books. Yet it cost you nothing extra to enroll in the Hoosier Club if you come tomorrow. No interest. No fees of any kind.

Exclusive Features

See the wonderful shaker flour sifter; the Hoosier accounting system, the cook book holder; the food guide; the want list; the pencil holder; the money tray; the emergency shelf, and other labor-saving devices, 17 of which are entirely new.

Decide Now. Saturday may be too late.

Other women are making up their minds tonight to come tomorrow and select a Hoosier Cabinet while they can save $2.50. It won't take five minutes to decide when you see it.

Come early—for when this lot is gone no power on earth could get you another "White Beauty" at this price.

Ontario Furniture Company

TO THE PUBLIC: We authorize this sale, limited to "White Beauty" Hoosier cabinets, at $2.50 less than the fixed cash price of these cabinets, this week only. THE HOOSIER MFG. CO., New Castle, Ind.