NEW PLYMOUTH.

Commencement week promises to be a gay one, not only for the graduating class, but for the young people of New Plymouth generally, who will share in the festivities which have been planned for the closing week of the school year. Preceding the "class day" exercises, on the evening of June 9th, is the luncheon to be given Wednesday by Mrs. H. T. Knight to the graduates of the class, the entire corps of teachers and Supt. O. D. Carper and wife. Friday evening Governor Alexander will give the Commencement Address in the Pioneer Opera House, a program of high order having been prepared for that evening. Gov. Alexander will be accompanied by a number of Ontario friends.

Mrs. F. H. Cross proved a charming hostess Thursday when she entertained at luncheon complimentary to her mother, Mrs. W. F. Cross of Boise and Mrs. Underwood of Salt Lake. One long table at which all the guests were seated looked most attractive with its decorations of wild roses and honeysuckle. Cards with cleverly worded verses which brought out some foible of each guest made much merriment as the ladies claimed their places. Those who enjoyed the afternoon were: Mesdames Cross, Underwood, Eastman, Lynch, Ehrlich, Ingalls, Burke, Fisher, Robinson, Farrell and Baker.

Seventeen happy little boys had the time of their lives Saturday afternoon when they were the guests of Miss Stella Yorvell on the lawn at the Geo. W. Wilson home. All kinds of games which delight boys were indulged in, followed later by big dishes of luscious strawberries and quantities of cake, needless to say not one strawberry or a crumb of cake was left.

Mrs. C. F. Eder and little son left Wednesday for Reedsburg, Wis., for a visit with friends and relatives. Mrs. Small was accompanied as far as Chicago by Harry Small who goes to Brookerville to take a course in pharmacy.

Mrs. W. T. Drysdale and Miss Beth Shaw entertained the members of the Kensington club Wednesday evening of last week in honor of Miss Marilla Harrigan, who is to become the bride of Arthur Ackerman. The pleasant affair took the form of a handkerchief "shower" many very lovely ones being received. On Friday afternoon Miss Harrigan was again the complimented guest at a "miscellaneous shower" given by Mrs. Ernest Meyer, Miss Viola Meecham and Miss Julia Harrigan. Thirty ladies were present. The gifts included everything imaginable and ranged from cut glass, handsome embroideries, silver, china, etc., down to the homely kitchen necessities. A very delicious lunch rounded out the afternoon most delightfully.

Mrs. F. Carnes, formerly of New Plymouth, but now of Pocatello is visiting friends in the valley this week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Kenkel are the happy parents of a little son, born June 3 at the Holy Rosary hospital in Ontario. Mrs. Burke, Mrs. Ingalls, and Mrs. Farrel motored to Ontario Monday to see Mrs. Kenkel, some of Payette valley's choicest roses were carried by the ladies to cheer the sick chamber.

P. Monroe Smock has been invited to deliver the 4th of July oration at Rosebury and has accepted the invitation so cordially extended by the people of that little city.

Mrs. Marks, of Salt Lake, sister of Mrs. Bernard Eastman, arrived Sunday evening for a two week's visit at the Eastman home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Boor returned Monday after a visit with their son C. E. Boor and family of Ironside, Oregon.

DEAD OX FLAT.

The rain is over and haying will begin full blast Monday.

Elmer Hayworth will return to his alfalfa fields at Misquitta Sunday and harvest the first cutting. He is getting a good start on his homestead. The most important of which is a good well of water. Although on the high ridge between the North Jacobson Gulch and Moore's Hollow he got water at 230 feet which is much less than many have to drill on the first bench land, thus proving the elevation has but little to do with obtaining water.

Everyone on North Jacobson's Gulch seems to have had some kind of an animal stray away the past ten days.

Mr. Mitchell has been riding in search of a cow and mare and calf; Guy Morgan for a cow and calf; B. B. Wilson, of Moore's Hollow, for a mare with hobbles on; and A. T. McDonald for a yearling colt.

Mr. Mitchell's mare and colt were found but at last account the cow had not been located.

Guy Morgan found his cow and calf. A. S. Witbeck caught Mr. McDonald's colt and took him home with one fore foot badly cut on the wire.

Range cattle are raiding the rye fields.

Elmer Hayworth has recently lost a cow and colt. The cow mysteriously lost her eye sight and fell into a ditch driving one horn into her lungs. The colt died from a navel disease causing his legs to swell badly.

Jewey Rice will help Mr. Hayworth make hay the coming week.

A. S. Witbeck will work in haying for Mr. Brosman.

Mr. Mitchell, at the head of North Jacobson Gulch, is doing much improving on his place this year. He has his water problem now solved in a most satisfactory manner. His convenient farm house well screened from flies. Has a large acreage plowed for fall seeding and is fencing the whole with rabbit wire. It's a pleasure to see such fine improvements in an arid (?) district.

KINGMAN KOLONY.

Mr. Howard, the county agriculturist, was in this vicinity and Big Bend last week, entering new contestants in the corn contest.

A. E. Wade left Saturday evening for Nez Perce, Idaho, to assume his duties as county agriculturist of Lewis county.

Will Harris, of Star, Idaho, who is visiting his cousin, Mrs. A. Wilson, was kicked in the face by a horse Tuesday afternoon. Dr. Sarazin, of Nyssa, was called and found that Mr. Harris' jaw was broken, and several teeth knocked out.

Mrs. Louisa Wade, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Peck, and her son, A. E. Wade, for the past eight months, left Thursday for her home at Decatur, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Hall, of Nyssa, and Mrs. Dickens and daughter, Miss Gordon Dickens, of Silver City, were guests at the Kingman home Sunday.

A three-piece orchestra, consisting of Miss Corinne Maxwell, Mrs. Peck and Miss Helen Peck, furnished the music at a dance at Vale Friday evening.

Mrs. E. M. Blodgett, who has been on the sick list for a week, is recovering.

Rev. Laurie, of the Grande Ronde presbytery, held services at the school house Sunday evening. While there he was the guest of the Kingman family.

Misses Eva and Bessie Boydell, Mr. Nedry and Dr. Sarazin came out to the Kolony Thursday evening in the doctor's car. On the return trip the car broke down and they had to telephone for a car from Nyssa. Hereafter when the doctor is in a hurry, he will take his horse and buggy.

Mrs. Peck and Mrs. McCreary chaperoned a party of young people who motored over to Vale Friday evening.

Mrs. W. C. Waltz entertained her Sunday school class Saturday evening and the young people spent a delightful evening. Those present were: Misses Martha Overstreet, Florence Kingman, Mary and Edna Warren, Maud and Martha Moses, Dorothy Pilcher and Helen Peck; Messrs. Earl and Roy Warren, Robert Overstreet, Harvey Otis and Tom Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morgan were in Vale Friday.

Misses Anna Anderson and Helen Peck and Messrs. McLean and Blodgett were guests of Mrs. Maxwell at dinner Sunday.

Work on the Big Bend bridge is progressing finely. The abutment on the west side and the false work is completed and the first span is almost done.

The new pumping plant is now in operation and every one with land in the new project is busy putting in crops. Some of the best land in the country lies in this district and we are glad that it is being put into cultivation.

Haying is now on in full blast. The crop is unusually heavy.

Mrs. W. C. Waltz was the hostess at another charming little party at her home Thursday afternoon. This time the ladies of the Kolony were the guests and they spent a very pleasant afternoon. Dainty refreshments were served. Those present were Mesdames Wade, Kingman, Overstreet, Burroughs, Morgan, Johnston, Moses, Maxwell and Peck and Miss Martha Overstreet.

R. M. McCreary gave an enjoyable dance at Adrian Thursday night. A platform was constructed of some of the bridge timber and the Kolony orchestra was stationed in a canvas booth on one side of the platform. A large crowd was present.

Will Harris, who had his jaw broken recently by a kick from a horse, is recovering slowly. He still has to have his jaw in a plaster cast.

R. R. Overstreet and son and H. I. Johnston worked for the bridge company last week, hauling gravel.

We are very glad to have in our community Mr. and Mrs. Burroughs, who have recently moved over from New Plymouth, having purchased land under the new irrigation system. Mr. Burroughs is a relative of John Burroughs, the naturalist.

Mrs. S. J. Galama, of Nyssa, is staying at the home of E. M. Blodgett while Mrs. Blodgett is recuperating after her recent illness.

Mrs. Wade and children were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kingman at dinner Sunday.

M. A. McLean and Kendrick Blodgett were Nyssa visitors Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ennis and children are expected shortly from Sioux City, Iowa. They will spend the summer here.

Children's Day exercises will be held at the Kolony school house next Monday morning at eleven o'clock. The program will include selections by the orchestra, violin and cello solos, and vocal solos, besides recitations and choruses by the children. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

Teachers' Examination.

The State Teachers' Examination will be held in Vale June 30, July 1, 2, and 3.

Following is the program that will be followed in Malheur county: Wednesday; Arithmetic, Civil Government and Geography. Thursday; Grammar, History, Orthography, Physiology and Algebra. Friday; Reading School Law, Theory and Practice, Writing and Composition. Saturday; American Literature and Psychology.

Special arrangements can be made by those who wish to write for Life or Primary Certificates.
