Brief War News.

One year ago Monday the Austrian archduke, Francis Ferdinand and his wife were shot and killed in the little Bosnian town of Sarajevo by Garvilo Princip. It was the act of Princip, a poor student, which ultimately resulted in 11 nations going to war. These nations are, on one hand, Great Britain, France, Russia, Serbia, Japan, Belgium, Italy and Montenegro, and on the other, Germany, Austria and Turkey.
 The war to date, according to conservative estimates compiled from the best available reports, has caused a loss to the various belligerents of more than 6,000,000 men, dead, wounded and prisoners, and more than 500 ships. Of these, about 120 were war vessels. It is 11 months since Austria declared war on Serbia.
 Increasing pressure by the Italians against the Austrian fronts along the Isonzo river and in the Trentino with continued heavy fighting between the German allies and the Russians along the Dniester were the outstanding features of the war the past week.
 Hammering by Teutonic armies against the Russian forces in Galicia continues without cessation, but apparently with less success than in most of the many battles fought during the long weeks of the Galician campaign for the possession of Przemyśl and Lemberg.
 Artillery combats along the western front with continued steady pressure by the French in the Vosges and toward Lille were reported. British aviators were credited with blowing up a big ammunition depot near Roulers and Canadian troops were said to have captured four lines of German trenches some days ago near Lasseuse.
 Neither French nor German statements indicate operations of immediate moment in the western arena. The French admit lack of progress, due in many places, it is declared, to storm-ravaged ground, while the Germans set forth the repulse of all French attacks and the regaining of some of the trenches.
 Accounts of German military activity in Russian Poland come at the same time as reports that many big guns from Essen, Germany, are being shipped into that region, possibly in preparation for another drive at Warsaw.
 Pronounced German successes seemingly have occurred not far from the east Prussian border, the Germans telling of the capture by storm of a Russian position north of Przasnysz, and the Russians admitting a reverse in that region through superior artillery fire by the Germans.
 Kaiser Has 18 New Corps.
 Zurich, Switzerland, via London.—According to an authoritative military source, Germany will be able to place 18 more army corps in the field by the end of July. These are composed chiefly of the second category of the landsturm, comprising men who have never performed military service, but who are in training, and inland reserves which have been resting in the interior of Germany.
 Game Officials Named.
 Salem.—At a meeting here the state fish and game commission appointed Carl Shoemaker, editor of the Evening News of Roseburg, state game warden; R. E. Clanton, ex-master fish warden, superintendent of hatcheries, and H. L. Kelly, of Oregon City, master fish warden.
 The resignation of A. H. Lea as state game warden was accepted. Mr. Lea, who was appointed at a recent meeting of the board, declined the place.
