We have bought a large number of valuable prizes described on this page and are going to give them to persons who are willing to use some of their spare time doing a little pleasant work for us It is a business proposition. We want the business and are willing to pay for it. It dos'nt make any difference whether we get money enough in to pay for the prizes or not; they will positively be given away as advortised Our word is out and we will stand back of it.

Any person with energy can win any of these prizes. Every one entering this contest will be well repaid for their efforts. Think of winning an automobile in about five weeks. The time for closing the contest is October 23, and the contest will positively close on that date without extension or postponement.

Every subscription payment either for back or advance subscription is good for a regular number of notes. Any one paying their subscription is entitled to votes. They can give their votes to any one they choose. If a candidate collects the subscription, he or she will be entitled to the votes, or subscriptions may be paid at the office by the subscriber and the votes will be credited to the person they select. At the conclusion the prizes will be awarded to the contestants as explained elsewhere in this issue. The fact that everypody wins, that the contest is so short and the prizes so valuable makes this a grand opportunity for converting your spare time into something worth your while.

A coupon good for 25 votes will also be printed in the paper. These may be cut from the paper by any one and voted for themselves or anyone else.

If you would like to have one of these magnificent

RULES

Anyone of either sex of good repute may enter as a candidate for these prizes.

Employes of The ARGUS or their immediate famillies will not be permitted to participate in this contest. . The Contest Manager reserves the right to reject any nomination. A nomination may be made by anyone. You can nominate yourself.

All contestants entering the contest agree to accept and abide by the Rules of the Contest or by a decision of the Contest Manager where the rules do not apply.

Votes will be issued upon the payment of new and renewal subscriptions to The ARGUS during the contest. Each contestant upon entering the contest will be furnished with a copy of the rules and a complete working outfit.

A free nomination blank properly filled out starts the candidate with 5,000 votes. Only one such nomination blank may be voted for any one candidate.

Votes once cast cannot be transferred from one contestant to another. No subscription, ballots will be counted excepting upon the payment of the correct amount for the subscription with which the ballot was issued.

A new subscriber is one whose name is not on the subscription list of the paper for which subscription is to be paid, at the time the contest started. No change of names from one member of a family to that of another residing at the address in the same household will be considered as a new subscriber.

THE PRIZES

Special care was exercised in the selection of each and every one of these prizes. A finer bunch could not have been selected. They were all bought from local dealers whose guarantees are back of every one of them. The prizes will all be on display this week at the places where they were purchased. We want you to see them and decide for yourself as to the perfection of them. They are all of genuine value and you could not buy them for less than advertised from any store in the state.

The five-passenger Ford touring car, new 1916 model is so well known as to need no description. The desirability of owning such a car is appreciated by every one. As a time saver, and hence a money saver, you cannot afford to be without one, and especially when you are offered the opportunity of possessing one without cost. It will not cost you a cest of your own money to win this elegant little car. As automobile is no longer an experiment in tao matter of economy to the farmer or business man. Each year shows an increased number of farmers, professional and business men and women purchasers of nation oblies. For health and pleasure nothing can equal a car for the money or effort invested. Get busy, win this car and join the joy-crowd. You can do it if you make up your mind to do it. It will only require a part of your spare time for about five weeks. That is a short time, but things are done in a hurry these days.

The Victrola is one of the most wonderful of musical instruments. The perfection with which they reproduce the human voice and every tone of every musical instrument is marvelous. In a Victrola you have every other musical instrument. Each year brings increased popularity for the Victrola and they are to be found in the homes of the most wealthy. Any one can manipulate them and nearly everybody wants one. To a lover of music no end of pleasure may be had with one of these wonderful inventions. These machines were bought through Hill's Pharmacy, where they are on display and who's guarantee makes them good. One $100 and one $75 Victrola will be given away in this contest. Besides this a $25 cash prize will be awarded as a 'ourth prize.

EXTRA VOTES

subscriptions, extra votes will be offered for clubs of subscription at stated periods.

From the beginning of the contest until Saturday night October 2nd., 20,000 extra votes will be given on each $12.00 club.

During the week ending October 9th., 20,000 extra votes will be given on each club of $15,00.

During the remainder of the contest 20,000 extra votes will be given on clubs of $20.00 in subscriptions.

A club of subscriptions does not mean that one person must pay that amount in subscription but if the total payments equal $10.00 we shall consider that a $10.00 club. There is no limit to the number of clubs that may be turned in each week.

As many clubs as can be secured will count for votes. Subscriptions do not have to be turned in in club amounts in order to get the advantage of the extra votes. One subscription may be reported at a time and when the required amount is turned in for a club the extra votes will be credited.
