

BIG BEND PICNIC ATTENDED BY FIVE HUNDRED PEOPLE

Congressman Visits the Warm Springs Project and is Pleased

H. H. WEATHERSPOON GIVES INTERESTING TALK

Visits 17 Counties to Investigate Needs of Various Localities

The Harvest Home Festival given at Big Bend last Friday was attended by between four and five hundred people from all over the county, and all were well satisfied with the entertainment furnished for them. It was all a decided success and came off as per schedule, from the exhibiting of the products to the moonlight dance on the bridge.

All the exhibits were creditable to this productive section of the county and the children's exhibits deserved special mention as this department was especially well represented. The visitors were convinced that the younger generation near Big Bend is devoting its spare time to something worth while. Liberal prizes were awarded for the best products.

After all had partaken of a bountiful lunch a very interesting program of speeches and music took up the remainder of the afternoon. The Kingman Colony Orchestra. A quartet from Parma and several other pleasing numbers were on the musical program. Some speakers from Parma, County Judge McKnight, County School Superintendent Fay Clark, County Agriculturist W. W. Howard and Wm. Lees, of Ontario were among the ones who gave short talks, and H. H. Weather- spoon was the principal speaker of the day. He took as his subject, "Orchards and Potato Blight." Being an able speaker, and being able to give the farmers some valuable advice, his speech was especially appreciated.

In the evening a dance on the bridge was the principal feature. The Kingman Colony Orchestra furnished music for the dance and many couples enjoyed the dancing until a late hour. In addition to the Harvest Home Festival, the Big Bend people were especially anxious to take this opportunity of showing their appreciation to the residents of the county for the bridge which has just been completed.

GEORGE F. MOYER IS PLACED UNDER ARRESTED AGAIN

After Two Weeks Liberty From the Penitentiary He Is Again In Jail.

After a freedom from the state penitentiary of a little more than two weeks, George F. Moyer has again been arrested and unless he can furnish $1,000 bail, will be retained in jail until the meeting of the next grand jury. Moyer is charged with the stealing of some sheep from John Palmer of Juntura.

In May of last year Moyer was sentenced to the penitentiary for arson and was given an indeterminate sentence of from 1 to 10 years. He was convicted of burning a barn in Jordan Valley, the property of the Jordan Valley Hotel Co. After serving a little more than a year of his sentence he was brought back to Vale a few weeks ago by Deputy Sheriff Lee Noe for a new trial because after his appeal to the supreme court the verdict was reversed and the case was sent back to the lower court on a technicality. Because he had served the minimum of his sentence the case was dismissed and Moyer turned loose.

LITERARY SOCIETY GIVES GOOD PROGRAM

The literary society of the high school held a meeting a few days ago and elected their officers for the ensuing year and appointed a committee to make out the program for the first entertainment which will be held October 8th. It will be as follows: Song, by high school; vocal solo, Rena Adam; reading, Stella Milkin; duet, Ephrim Herriot and Alfred Holland; oration, Robert Bepder; solo, Neva Billingsley; school paper, Ella Brosman.

EVERYONE WINS

RULES

Anyone of either sex of good repute may enter as a candidate for these prizes.

Employees of The ARGUS or their immediate families will not be permitted to participate in this contest. The Contest Manager reserves the right to reject any nomination. A nomination may be made by anyone. You can nominate yourself.

All contestants entering the contest agree to accept and abide by the Rules of the Contest or by a decision of the Contest Manager where the rules do not apply.

Votes will be issued upon the payment of new and renewal subscriptions to The ARGUS during the contest. Each contestant upon entering the contest will be furnished with a copy of the rules and a complete working outfit.

A free nomination blank properly filled out starts the candidate with 5,000 votes. Only one such nomination blank may be voted for any one candidate.

Votes once cast cannot be transferred from one contestant to another. No subscription ballots will be counted excepting upon the payment of the correct amount for the subscription with which the ballot was issued.

EXTRA VOTES

In addition to the regular number of votes given on subscriptions, extra votes will be offered for clubs of subscription at stated periods.

From the beginning of the contest until Saturday night October 2nd., 20,000 extra votes will be given on each $12.00 club.

During the week ending October 9th., 20,000 extra votes will be given on each club of $15.00.

During the remainder of the contest 20,000 extra votes will be given on clubs of $20.00 in subscriptions.

A club of subscriptions does not mean that one person must pay that amount in subscription but if the total payments equal $10.00 we shall consider that a $10.00 club. There is no limit to the number of clubs that may be turned in each week.

As many clubs as can be secured will count for votes.

Subscriptions do not have to be turned in in club amounts in order to get the advantage of the extra votes. One subscription may be reported at a time and when the required amount is turned in for a club the extra votes will be credited.

RULES

A new subscriber is one whose name is not on the subscription list of the paper for which subscription is to be paid, at the time the contest started.

No change of names from one member of a family to that of another residing at the address in the same household will be considered as a new subscriber.

Correspondents may enter and compete for the prizes.

Read carefully all the rules and conditions of the contest. Ignorance of the rules will not be considered a valid excuse for any deviation therefrom.

Any person working in this contest who turns in $10 or over and not winning one of the other five prizes will be awarded a cash commission prize on all cash turned in on subscription to The ARGUS by them during the contest.

No votes will be given on subscription payments for more than five years in advance.

Candidates are not confined to their own districts in securing votes but may secure subscriptions anywhere.

In case of a tie the prize will be awarded jointly to the contestants who tie.

The contest starts Saturday, September 16 and closes October 23, 1915.

Employees of The ARGUS are excluded from voting or taking part in this contest.

At the conclusion of the campaign every vote turned in from beginning to end of the contest will be counted by three disinterested, well known men of this community.
