

SOCIAL HYGIENE EXHIBIT AT THE CORN CARNIVAL

Exhibit which is Attracting Attention Everywhere Contains Pictures and Charts

The urgent request of Ontario's citizens, and other interested persons, the Oregon Social Hygiene Society has furnished its traveling exhibit as a special attraction during the Corn Carnival. It has been shown over the Northwest. Requests have been made for its display in these places.

A striking way it depicts by pictures, charts, illustrations, etc. (1) the nature and consequences of the various diseases; (2) the causes which are at the bottom of the problem; (3) methods of informing the child, ideals to uphold in teaching the value of physical exercise; (4) what the Oregon Social Hygiene Society has done to meet social emergency.

Others and mothers and the young will do well to look the exhibit over carefully. It will occupy room two doors north of the corn display room. No admission will be charged. A lady attendant will be in charge from 2 P. M.

The citizens of Ontario will remember Mr. Snyder's talks here last year under the auspices of the society. It is a source of pride to the citizens of this state that Oregon is only one state in the country to set aside an appropriation to educate people along these lines. In the annual report of the Society, issued, showing the definite results of the activities, there are these words by Dr. William Foster, president of Reed College, president of the society:

It is virtually certain that the social gains alone, due to curbing venereal diseases and the consequent increase in the number of days of productive labor of Oregon men and women, has in four years amounted to two hundred thousand dollars. The national economic gain to the state during this period, due to the elimination of highly successful slaves, has certainly not been less than one hundred thousand dollars.

Paul Van Petten was then elected vice president, and John Moore secretary and treasurer.

The club at present consists of twelve members, ten boys and two girls, and is divided into two parts which will debate against each other. The loser will then pay forfeit to the winner, thus creating a competition which will greatly promote debating.

RAID IS MADE AT RIVERSIDE AND SIXTEEN ARRESTED

Gambling and Bootlegging Were the Charges District Attorney Brought Against Men at Riverside

One of the largest raids ever made in this county, took place at Riverside last Friday when County Attorney W. H. Brooke, accompanied by Sheriff Ben Brown, Lee Noe and Dan Eno of Vale, dropped into Riverside unexpectedly, and with the aid of Detective Moore of Portland, who had spent several days there previously, arrested, tried and bound over to the grand jury, sixteen men on charges of bootlegging and gambling.

It has been planned for some time to make a clean-up at Riverside, and the men were captured unawares. During Friday night about ten others left town, some who were suspects, and some who were evidently guilty enough to be afraid to stay. Six barrels of whisky and beer were seized by the authorities.

Three of those arrested, M. U. Hart, C. F. Dupre and E. R. Shutter, are property owners at Riverside, and most of the others are transients, but none of them foreigners. Five of the sixteen men gave bond and eleven were landed in the county jail, crowding the jail to its utmost capacity. This makes the largest number of prisoners ever held by this county at any one time. The others arrested were Thos. B. Nordale, Grover Wade, W. P. Doyle, Jess Vernon, A. Fisher, John Foster, Frank Lyella, James Parker, G. D. Simmons, Jim McClure, Geo. Donaldson, Jim Brackett and Pete Brackett. Bonds were fixed at an average of $500.00 each. Harry Farnum, the Justice of the Peace of Riverside, heard these cases, they being his first, as he has just been appointed to office.

Mrs. W. W. Foster has returned from an extended trip with friend and relatives at Bowler, Colo.

Miss Cheeley and Miss Gibson, teachers in Arcadia school express themselves as being very proud of the Arcadia girls basket ball team, although they were defeated recently by Nyssa 7 to 6. It was the first match game the Arcadia girls had been in and the players were grade pupils while some of the Nyssa players were high school players. No doubt the Arcadia girls will hold their own after a little more practice.

Many Nyssa people are making plans to attend the Corn Carnival at Ontario on Nyssa Day, Friday. Many exhibits have been entered by residents of Nyssa, Big Bend, Arcadia and Kingman Colony and it is expected they will bring home their share of the prizes. Many will take advantage of the special train and attend on Thursday. The schools will likely close on Friday.

A meeting of the board of supervisors of the Nyssa-Arcadia Drainage district was held Wednesday for the purpose of considering further the modifications of the original plans of the engineer and to adopt a reclamation plan for their district. MRS. J. R. BLACKABY SUDDENLY PASSES TO THE GREAT BEYOND

The sudden death of Mrs. J. R. Blackaby last Saturday came as a great shock to her many friends in this city. Mrs. Blackaby was out several afternoons last week among friends, and on Friday afternoon attended the football game. She was not well in the morning on Saturday and physicians were called in and when she did not improve, other physicians were summoned, but medical aid was of no avail, and she passed into a peaceful slumber about four o'clock in the afternoon. Neuralgia of the heart was the direct cause, although she has been in frail health for several months.

Monday at 2:50 A. M. Mr. Blackaby started to Mt. Horeb, Wisc., with the body. He arrived there Wednesday evening and the funeral was held from the old home today (Thursday).

Alma Michelson was born in Wisconsin in 1885, being just thirty years of age when she died. She graduated from the Wisconsin University at an early age and then took a course in a Business Seminary near her home. Seven years ago Miss Michelson taught in our school, and afterwards was on the staff of teachers in the Boise schools, leaving there only a few years ago when the death of her father occurred, to make her home with her mother at Mt. Horeb. She and Mr. Blackaby were married there scarcely five months ago. The family has all the sympathy of its many friends in this city.
