Christmases In Various Lands

DEVONSHIRE, England, noted for its apples, boasts a curious custom. On Christmas eve the farmer and his son stand beneath the oldest and best apple tree, both bearing a jug of cider, and sing a certain folk song.

After passing the cider jug around they betake themselves home to a good supper and much merrymaking.

The Jamaica negroes collect all bits of odds and ends of finery with which to array themselves on Christmas eve and, choosing a king and queen, follow these leaders about, making as much noise as possible.

The custom of giving gifts at Christmas came not from the presents of gold and silver given to the Christ Child, as many believe, but from an old custom of priests putting on board of all outgoing ships a box of alms.

The box was opened at Christmas tide and masses said for the givers of the alms.

Christmas Among The Wealthy Kiddies

CHRISTMAS in Millionaire row! Is it a day spent in fairyland, where one has but to wish and all sorts of lovely things come tumbling down from somewhere?

Does Santa Claus come decked in gold and diamonds when he dashes over the roof tops as the little children of the rich lie softly cradled in their beds? Not a bit of it. Santa is the same jolly old saint when he drops down the chimneys of Fifth avenue, New York, as when he leaves a toy on the ash strewn hearths of the east side. He knows that, although the big nurseries and playrooms of the avenue already hold stacks of toys and beautiful things, somehow when the flavor of fir and holly is in the air there is the same thrill in the hearts of the tots in fur and velvet as in those in cotton. And blessed old Santa smiles on both!

To all youngsters, rich or poor—yes, and old or young—he is the embodiment of the blessed Yuletide spirit which brightens the entire year.
