PROSPERITY DAY IDEA IS A GOOD ONE

think and feel prosperity. "Let us remember that on this day the prosperity of the nation is regulated by the prosperity of the individuals that compose it—that America is America because its citizens as a whole have prospered. "In short, on this day, let all of us lay aside our hammers, forget our personal worries and boost with every ounce of energy in us for the continuation of this great new era of prosperity. "You can not only secure personal benefit, but can also do a great good to your community by the celebration of this day. See the newspaper editor of your town, talk it over with your leading business men, see your mayor and minister. If you advertise, incorporate the idea in your advertisement. "Get back of this movement with us and help us to make Tuesday, February 29, a day of national rejoicing.

BAPTIST CHURCH.

The annual business meeting of the Baptist church will take place at the church Friday evening of this week, beginning at seven o'clock. At 9:30 the members of the other churches of the town and all others who care to do so will come to the Baptist church, and after an hour of social time an address will be given by Rev. Brown after which a consecration and prayer service will last until midnight, watching out the old year and the new year in. The public at large is invited to this service. D. E. BAKER, Pastor.

TELLING THE OLD SWEET STORY OF CHRISTMAS

CHRISTMAS DREAMS.
SOME tiny elves one Christmas grew mischievous, it seems, and broke into the storeroom where old Santa keeps his dreams. And gathered up whole armfuls of dreams all bright and sweet and started forth to peddle them down the village street.

Oh, you would never, never guess how queerly these dreams sold. Why, nearly all the younger folk bought dreams of being old, and one wee chap in curls and kilts, a gentle little thing, invested in a dream about an awful pirate king.

A maid who thought her pretty name old fashioned and absurd bought dreams of names the longest and the queerest ever heard, and, strange to say, a lad who owned all sorts of costly toys bought dreams of selling papers with the raggedest of boys.

And then a dream of summer and a barefoot boy at play was bought up very quickly by a gentleman quite gray, and one old lady, smiling through the grief she tried to hide, bought bright and tender visions of a little girl who died.

A ragged little beggar girl, with weary, wistful gaze, soon chose a Cinderella dream, with jewels all ablaze. Well, it wasn't many minutes from the time they came in sight before the dreams were all sold out and the elves had taken flight. —St. Nicholas.
