People all over America will attend this great event at the Hoosier stores and we have had to prepare weeks ahead to get a special allotment of Hoosiers from the factory for our own home folks. The sale starts tomorrow and will last all week if our supply of cabinets lasts. Those who come first are sure of being supplied at once. If you don't want to wait for your cabinet, then please don't put off your visit to our store.

We want you to see the many patented features that have won a million women.

DOMESTIC SCIENCE EXPERTS have designed and located every Hoosier convenience exactly at your fingers' ends. Skilled mechanics and inventors have perfected the many working features.

NOTHING HAS BEEN OVERLOOKED that could improve its convenience or add to your comfort. That's why a million women use and praise the Hoosier Kitchen Cabinet for the hours of time and miles of steps it saves them. You can easily roll the Hoosier about on its ball bearing casters, and the metal sockets can't break. These, and other Hoosier Gold Medal features, will be demonstrated to all the folks who call tomorrow. Those who are not ready to buy won't be expected to. We will scarcely have enough cabinets to last the week out anyway.

But we want you to come and learn the inside facts about kitchen cabinets. If you missed this demonstration at the San Francisco Fair, this is your chance to see what interested thousands of people.

NEW MILITARY BILL IS BEFORE SENATE

Measure is Designed to Give Army a War Strength of 700,000.

Washington.—The new army bill was reported to the senate by Senator Chamberlain, chairman of the senate committee on military affairs. The measure, which is the first of the administration's national defense bills to be introduced, gives the United States a peace strength of about 178,000 men for the regular army, and a war strength of 250,000, which, with the national guard and volunteers, will make a total estimated war strength of about 700,000 men.

Aside from its plan virtually to double the army and national guard, the senate bill has four striking features. One of these authorizes federal volunteer force in peace times, the object sought by Secretary Garrison with his continental army plan. Another mobilizes all whose callings fit them for special war duty. The third federalizes the national guard and the fourth contemplates training officers from among graduates of military schools and colleges.

Army Bill Also Before House. Chairman Hay, of the military committee, has introduced an army bill in the house.

The house bill proposes to increase the regular army to a strength of 140,000 fighting troops, which means the addition of 40,000 men and 7439 officers. It also provides 786 additional officers for detached service with the national guard, military schools and elsewhere. A maximum strength, however, is fixed at 170,000 men.

The bill provides for federalization of the national guard under a militia pay bill substantially similar to that proposed in the senate bill. The house plans, however, differ with the senate bill in that the president is authorized to draft national guardsmen into the federal service on the outbreak of war.

Gore Resolution is Killed in Senate. By a vote of 68 to 14 the senate carried out President Wilson's wish and killed Senator Gore's resolution to warn Americans off armed belligerent ships.

In a turbulent scene, such as is seldom witnessed in the senate, voting proceeded, with senators shouting objections, futilely demanding recognition to explain their positions and making hot retorts to each other, all of which were out of order.

At one time so many senators were shouting for the vice president's recognition that the sergeant-at-arms was called to restore quiet.

The fourteen senators who voted against killing the Gore resolution were:

Borah, Chamberlain, Clapp, Cummins, Fall, Gallinger, Gronna, Jones, La Follette, McCumber, Norris, O'Gorman, Sherman, Works.

Wilson Asks Republicans.

President Wilson appealed directly to Representative Bennett and Representative Lenroot, republican members of the house rules committee, to consider the armed ship issue without partisan bias and assist in getting a vote on a resolution warning Americans off armed ships. For an hour he discussed the foreign situation with the two republican members and told them of the necessity of demonstrating that reports abroad that the majority of congress was not with him, are erroneous.

After the conference Mr. Lenroot said the republicans had no intention of bringing party considerations into the issue.

IRISH FORM ORGANIZATION

Separation From Britain is Demanded in "Declaration of Independence."

New York.—Resolutions termed "an Irish declaration of independence," appealing for the recognition of Ireland as a nation by the powers of the world and demanding that Americans be warned not to travel on ships carrying contraband, were adopted by the Friends of Irish Freedom, a national organization formed here as the outgrowth of a conference called to define the attitude which it is contended Irishmen in this country should assume toward Great Britain.

Victor Herbert was chosen president in place of Justice John W. Goff, who declined to serve because of his advanced age. The speakers included James Smith, of Lowell, Mass.; Mrs. Ellen Ryan Jolly of Pawtucket, R. I.; Joseph McLaughlin, of Philadelphia, national president of the Ancient Order of Hibernians; Matthew Cummings, of Boston; Hugh O'Neill and Miss Josephine McGarry, of Chicago, and J. P. Mulcahy, of Butte, Mont.

Colonel House is Back From Europe.

New York.—Colonel E. M. House, who sailed for Europe December 28 on a confidential mission for President Wilson, arrived here on the steamship Rotterdam from Falmouth and departed at once for Washington.

GOODING COLLEGE CAMPAIGN PROGRESSES

The Gooding College Campaign for $150,000 additional funds, to complete the unit of $400,000 for the standardization of the College, is fully launched. Three very important meetings of the ministers of the conference were held during the past week, one in each district. The one for Pocatello District at Pocatello on the 22nd inst. One at Nampa for the Boise District on the 24th inst.

These meetings were fairly well attended by the ministers, having from forty to sixty per cent of the membership of the pastors present. The men came from far and near, crossing mountains and valleys, and rivers, coming by car and auto, on horseback and on footback, but coming, so as to be present and have part in this important campaign.

At each meeting, resolutions endorsing the forward movement were passed unanimously, and with a spirit characteristic of the men that defy all obstacles and with a "Faith that laughs at impossibilities and cries, it must be done."

The need of a college was recognized by all and one brother put it thus strongly: "This has been our crying need for many years. This college enterprise is more important than missions, more important than the payment of church indebtedness, more important than church building, more important than church improvement, more important because so vital to the success of all these other enterprises, as well as the enterprise of furnishing higher education to this great Intermountain territory."

Even if you can't keep your money in your own possession, at least keep it in this town.

"Push and Go" is bully in a kid, provided it doesn't require a push to make him go.

Perseverance is an admirable trait, but without the safety valve of common sense it becomes a menace.
