JORDAN VALLEY

(From the Express)

A movement that promises much for the good of this valley was launched at the Jordan Valley hotel last Saturday night when a Taxpayers league was organized. All sections of the territory included were represented and several of the heaviest taxpayers in this part of the county were there.

The meeting was called to order by Mr. Fred J. Palmer and Mr. Thos. T. Kohout was elected temporary chairman and Mr. J. E. McDonnell, secretary.

The object of the meeting, as stated by the chairman, was the formation of a taxpayers league to include all the territory of the three road districts, Nos. 17, 7 and 19, and the city of Jordan Valley, with the purpose of keeping the taxpayers of this section informed as to matters of taxation and to devise some method of securing a more systematic and beneficial expenditure of the road funds of these districts.

Permanent organization was effected by the election of Thos. T. Kohout as president, J. E. McDonnell, secretary and Fred J. Palmer treasurer.

John Wroten is now able to get about town on his crutches.

Cool weather is retarding the growth of the range grass.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fenwick left this morning for Baltimore to take radium treatment for cancer.

Sim Loveland and family arrived from Vale yesterday.

Mrs. George Spencer and children left for Boise Monday to reside. They were accompanied by Mrs. J. M. Dinwiddie, who will visit with her daughter for a time in her new home.

The Rebekahs held a most interesting session Wednesday evening at which four candidates were initiated into membership. A sumptuous repast followed the ritualistic and routine work.

Graydon C. Crawford arrived from Boise last Saturday to assume his duties as assistant cashier of the Bank of Jordan Valley. He is quartered at the Jordan Valley hotel.

Frank Davis of Bogus creek has turned freighter, temporarily, and went through here Monday morning with a load of sheep pelts for Boise. Returning he will bring a load of supplies, which was the object of the trip.

Five wagon loads of sheep pelts left here Monday morning for Boise. The pelts are from sheep that perished on the Owyhee desert last winter during the unusually heavy snows that prevailed throughout the northwest. One company lost over six thousand head.

An eighteen-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Ysaquiere died last Monday morning at the family home here. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Faris in the parlors of the Jordan hotel. A large procession followed the little one to her final resting place.

J. T. Jamieson arrived last Saturday from his home in Arkansas and on Monday went to the home of J. K. Payne for an extended stay. Mr. Jamieson formerly lived in this county, on the Malheur river, but went back to Arkansas fourteen years ago. He plans to remain in Oregon and his family will come out later.

It is now "Deputy Sheriff" Jack Mumford, Sheriff Brown having made the appointment upon the strength of a numerously signed petition from this city, and upon the recommendation of citizens elsewhere in this portion of the county.

HOMEDALE

Mark Price is drilling a well at the Combs ranch.

Mrs. Ralph Eckhardt, who has been here a couple of weeks visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Rogers, left Sunday for her home at Idaho Falls. She will leave there in a few days for Los Angeles, Calif., where she will spend the summer.

Claude Bingham was a business visitor in Ontario last week.

Ralph McDowell's alfalfa seed averaged $50.00 per acre.

DEAD OX FLAT

A son-in-law of Mr. J. H. Wilson moved his family from Payette to the Wilson desert claim last Tuesday.

The Senior Young People's class of the Sunday School at the Park School house met with C. O. Douglas Wednesday April 5th to study the lesson and have a social time. Ice cream and cake were served.

A terrible wind storm visited Dead Ox Flat Tuesday afternoon. The only damage reported was that two big light and power poles were blown down on the Chas. Herr place. The wires on these poles carry 3,000 volts and we can imagine Mr. Herr's state of mind till the company got them reset which they did on Wednesday.

Chas Herr made a business trip to Vale Tuesday April 4th.

Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Herr and children went to the hills Sunday April 2nd to pick wild pansies and they report the hills covered with them.

C. O. Douglas reported Friday April 7 finished his plowing with the tractor.

Mrs. J. H. Langley went to Caldwell April 4th.

The Benson brothers are seeding the Frank Welch place to spring rye. Mr. A. Sutton is preparing to plant 40 acres to corn. He has always had good luck with a few acres of corn each year and is going in heavy on corn this year.

Chas. Rice and daughter, Mrs. Cora Hand, called on Mr. and Mrs. A. F. McDonald Sunday April 9th.

Mrs. A. Sutton made a shopping trip to Payette Saturday April 1st, returning via the Higby home on Lower Dead Ox Flat, thence home Sunday bringing with her her little grand daughter, Dorris White and her little grand son, Bruce Higby for a week's visit.

Leon Higby made a trip up to the Sutton home Friday, April 7th.

JUNTURA

(From the Times)

The lambing season is now at hand and the sheepsman have been very busy the past week getting out their pack outfits and carrying supplies out to their camps.

Supervisor Richey informs us that the bridge across the North Fork at this place is not safe, the stringers and other timbers are all rotten and sagging, the abutments weakening and in fact the whole structure going to decay.

Claude Propat returned from his trip to the interior last Friday and states that the roads were in very good shape all over the interior and that he had no trouble in making Harriman, Narrows, Burns, Harney and other points and got along fine until he struck the road between here and Drewsey which he found to be about the worst on record.

Mr. Cole made his first auto trip with the mail Monday night. The roads were somewhat rough but he got through alright returning about midnight. The new schedule gives Drewsey the best outside service it has ever had, the people there receiving their Boise papers the same day they are published on every day except Sunday. The present schedule was outlined by Mr. Cole and granted upon his request.

W. H. Shepherd reports a yield of $875.00 worth of seed from ten acres of clover. This from ground that was cleared of sagebrush and seeded late in the spring of 1914.

J. E. Wood is seeding 120 acres of new land to grain and alfalfa.

George Huntley left for the hills last week with a big herd of cattle. He expects to take out several more herds.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Anderson and Master Fay and Leslie visited in Ontario Saturday and Sunday.

Master Henry Willard, a fine seven and one half pound boy, arrived at the Willard Robinson home, Sunday morning, March 26th.
