Study Food Values

Food provided for the family table deserves the careful thought of every housewife. Do you use thought when buying baking powder?

The quality of cake, biscuits and all quickly raised flour foods depends largely upon the kind of baking powder used.

Royal Baking Powder is made from cream of tartar derived from grapes. It is absolutely pure and has proved its excellence for making food of finest quality and wholesomeness for generations.

Royal Baking Powder contains no alum nor phosphate.

PERSONAL-LOCAL

J. F. Mullen, of Westfall, was here Tuesday.

C. C. Hunt was a visitor here from Nyssa Tuesday.

W. G. Jenkins was here from Boise on Monday.

B. F. Logan was down from Westfall Wednesday.

Mrs. Peer and Mrs. Snyder of Nyssa were here Tuesday.

A. E. Nichols has been here from the ranch for a few days.

Mrs. Fred Bailey is visiting with friends at Boise this week.

Mrs. W. H. Adams was here from Harper this week looking after business matters.

John Ward, the Nyssa sheep man, was around town Monday with a few of his many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Weaver were here from Vale on Friday visiting with relatives and friends.

W. S. Lawrence, who registers from Parma, was around town this week with a broken ankle.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. McCormick are now located at Moscow where they are doing well with a bakery.

Bert Carter came down from Juntura Tuesday for a slight operation on his leg. He is doing fine.

Babe Arnold has been here several days with his wife and baby. Mrs. Arnold is going to Minnesota for a short visit with relatives.

Circuit court is still in session, but is expected to finish up in a few days. We will have a report of the proceedings in our next issue.

Ad. Simons was a visitor to Boise over Sunday. He says that business is good in Boise. The only trouble the merchants have is to get the goods to sell.

Bob Cavin was here Monday with a Ford auto, which he was trying to start. Bob said if he had a saddle on the blamed thing he would make it go. Bob is buying horses these days.

J. Boydel, the Nyssa merchant, was here Wednesday between trains. He says Nyssa is having quite a building boom this spring and that business and collections are good.

J. J. Burbridge, who is now located at La Grande, was here several days this week looking after his interests here. He recently returned from the coast where he found business good.

Friday evening, May 5, he came and come to the M. E. church if you are looking for a good time. A program, refreshments and a social evening. Admittance according to dimensions.

Boyer Bros., who own the building occupied by the Ontario Auto company, are having addition built on to accommodate the increasing business. The new part will contain a pit and other conveniences needed.

L. V. Stuart, of John Day, was called to Vale as a witness in a law case and took the opportunity to do a little electioneering for the state senatorship. Mr. Stuart says he is too busy to make a canvass for this place.

Ira Williams, one of the high school pupils, was awarded the silver medal in the drill contest held here Wednesday afternoon. Capt. Kessner of the Idaho National Guard was drill master. There was quite close competition and one boy lost by not having his gun clean.

The members of the W. C. T. U. wish to thank the public for the generous support they are receiving in their efforts to have a public fountain installed on the street. They will confer with the city council and determine where it is to be located.

Rev. Johns, who is now located at Mackey, was here this week renewing acquaintances. He says the Mackey section is very prosperous. The mines employ about six hundred and the Utah Constructiga company are going to build a dam so that the valley may be irrigated. Mr. Johns appeared in excellent health.

Cato Johns, a former Sumpter merchant, who is now buying hay for a Portland firm, was here a short time last week and said about all the hay has been shipped and soon the market will be supplied with new hay from California. There has been a good demand and the price was such that the farmers made good money.

There was a picnic over near the haunted house on Sunday. Those who participated were Mr. and Mrs. Somers, Mr. and Mrs. Peters, Mr. Mrs. Kenyon, Mr. and Mrs. Whitworth, of Weiser and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Billingsley and family, Mr. and Mrs. Kellogg and family, Mrs. John Woods and Mr. and Mrs. Coekrum and family of Ontario. Ghost stories naturally went with the haunted house.

J. J. Donnegan was here from Harney county last week trying to convince the voters that he is the man they want to send to Salem and it will not be known just how successful he was until the votes are cast. Mr. Donnegan has held some offices in Harney county and they say he has always made good and they believe he will make good if selected as the candidate at the primaries this year.

Mr. Cupp, who has a ranch on the Succor creek, was visiting with E. W. Howland a few days this week. He reports that work is going ahead on the Succor creek reservoir and when completed it will reclaim some fine land. The dam will be built near the Isaacs place. There is a much larger acreage being cultivated in the Gem district this year than heretofore.

Quite a number went from here to the conventions in Baker this week. J. R. Blackaby and A. L. Coekrum attended the bankers meeting. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Glenn, Mr. and Mrs. Baker Ball, Ontario; William Jones, Juntura; Charles Becker, Westfall; W. A. Robertson and Ed. Howard, Drewsey, attended the stockgrowers meeting.

A. F. Tonningsen came down from the Westfall country Tuesday to visit with the family for a few days. He says the lamb crop was not up to average as the range was too dry last fall. The sheep men will all be shearing in a short time. The range is fine now and the lambs are at least ten pounds heavier than at this time last year.

The voters of Malheur county should make a special effort to attend the primaries and vote for J. W. McCulloch for public service commissioner, not alone for Mr. McCulloch's benefit, but for the benefit of the county as well. It would be of great advantage to this county to have a home man on the public service commission.

Clay M. Steans has been appointed U. S. commissioner and annual proofs in land may be made before him at the city hall.

Doty and Stevens have sold their ice business to the Cold Storage Co., who will complete all contracts and are now prepared to deliver either artificial or natural ice. When you want to cool off phone 157 R.

Miss Hansen, the Dreamland orchestra, was a visitor to Weiser today.

Mrs. MacPherson Laid to Rest.

Mrs. Macpherson, relic of the late Professor E. B. Macpherson, died on April 24th and was buried from the Baptist church on Friday, the 28th. P. Monroe Smock, an old friend of the family, conducted the ceremony and made a beautiful talk.

Mary Jane Freeman was born June 22, 1853 in Texas; emigrated to California at the age of four years and was married at Bakersfield, January 6, 1876. She united with the Baptist church over 40 years ago.

In 1884 she located at Payette, where her husband was the first teacher and preacher. A few years later they moved to this county, where she has since resided.

Nine children were born to the union and all were at the funeral. There are also 18 grand children.

The children are Mrs. E. J. Beam, Ironside; Mrs. W. H. Beam, Ironside; Mrs. V. P. Brockover, Ontario; Mrs. Dan Grady, Ontario; Mrs. Wm. Plughoff, Huntington; Mrs. Frank McKee, Weiser; Mrs. Harry Kyes, Willows, Cal; Ross Macpherson, Emmett, Idaho, and Grover Macpherson, Ironside.

Mrs. Macpherson was a typical pioneer woman, one of that noble band who have contributed their all to subdue the west and make it a garden spot for the present generation to enjoy. Her life work completed, she went to sleep to awake in that brighter and happier world beyond.

Mrs. Macpherson's acquaintances were her friends and all sympathize with the bereaved children.

BANKERS FAVOR RURAL CREDIT

Group six of the Oregon Bankers association met in Baker City this week.

The old officers were reelected. Discussion during the session was taken up chiefly with the subject of rural credits and farm loans as the basis for such a system. Although no definite action was taken, it was the consensus of opinion that a national rural credits system would be vastly preferable to one under state direction.

WITH THE RAILROAD MEN

H. W. Young, the Short Line engineer, is in the city today. One of his assistants was brought to the hospital with an attack of pleurisy.

Marsden, one of Twoly's men was brought in with a crushed finger which was amputated.

Carl Mucker fell under a hand car and had his hip injured and is at the hospital.

Charles A. Powell, a fireman on a pile driver, was brought in Tuesday with fever.
